PISTOL DUEL WITH MASKED HIGHWAYMEN

BOLD ATTEMPT TO MURDER OFFICIAL

SANTA BARBARA, June 28.—The night operator of the Southern Pacific at Guadaloupe, a small station on the Coast Line in the northern part of this county, was held up by two masked highwaymen about 1 o'clock this afternoon, and after a thrilling pistol duel in which ten shots were exchanged, succeeded in driving off and frustrating their attempt to rob the company's safe. The night operator, whose name is unknown here, had just locked up the safe for the night and was standing with his back to the ticket window when two masked men entered the waiting room. They proceeded immediately to the window and called to the operator to throw up his hands. Instead of complying, the operator grabbed his pistol which lay immediately in front of him on the top of the safe, and facing quickly about, fired a shot at the men. The robbers, standing with their pistols drawn, returned the fire.

The operator dropped to the floor at the first shot of the highwaymen, feigning injury. As the robbers ran around to the door of the office and started to enter, he raised up and fired at them again. Pulling the trigger rapidly, he emptied his gun. The robbers again returned the fire, but none of the shots took effect.

At this juncture Day Operator Green, who was asleep in the second floor of the depot, rushed down the steps to the waiting room. The highwaymen heard him coming and fled from the building. They were seen making their way across the tracks where they disappeared from view. A sheriff's posse started in pursuit of them a few hours afterward and the officers are hopeful of overhauling them. The robbers are unquestionably desperate characters and if they are overtaken by the posse, a bloody fight will undoubtedly occur.

One of the men was a tall, heavily-built man, fully 6 feet in height. He wore a broad-brimmed white felt hat. His companion was of shorter stature, probably five feet, and wore a black derby hat. He had light hair, blue eyes and was smooth shaven. Both wore blue overalls.

AN INTREPID YOUTH.

John R. Glascock, Jr., known as "Jack" to his familiars at the University of California, where he entered as a junior last January, has had a pronounced penchant for mountain climbing for several years. Though now only 21 years old, he has achieved distinction in that form of recreation. Possessed of an apparently tireless physique, absolutely fearless of personal danger, and with a grim determination to "get to the top" whenever pursuing one of his favorite outing trips, Jack Glascock had become noted in this country as one of the most enthusiastic, daring and successful of the younger generation of mountain climbers before he reached his majority.

Several seasons he visited the Yosemite Valley regions, sometimes with other members of the Sequoia Club, and ascended to the summits of the principal peaks in that vicinity. Two years ago he and a companion ascended Mt. Rainier by way of its most difficult side. They remained one night in the icy crater of Rainier, surviving the intense cold by hovering over a jet of steam which spurted from a small crevice in the floor of the dead volcano's crater.

UP MT. BAKER.

Subsequently, young Glascock went to British Columbia, where he, unaccompanied, made the difficult ascent of Mt. Baker from the British Columbia side. A number of persons of a local mountain-climbing club, who took an easier side of Mt. Baker, were

KEY MEN DECLARE VICTORY IS THEIR'S

Strike Leaders Assert Both Companies Have Been Defeated and So Must Soon Surrender.

STRIKING TELEGRAPHERS WILL WIN, ACCORDING TO "DOPE"

According to the horoscope predicted for President J. S. Small, of the Telegraphers' Union, by Prof. Antares, scientific astrologer and astronomer of Chicago, a favorable outcome to Small and his striking operators is foreseen. It reads as follows:

"While you are at present not under the most favorable planetary transits you are not as badly afflicted as Colonel Clowry, who at present is under one of the most evil periods of his life, which indicates his defeat and possibly utter collapse.

"Proceed with your usual caution and there is good indication that you will come out with one of the greatest victories of organized labor that has ever been scored. I predict a victory for you. It will take place July 1. Colonel Clowry will no doubt lose out if you can strike the winning blow before July 1."

WEST OAKLAND, June 28.—President Small of the Commercial Telegraphers' Union of America, said this morning: "There will be no compromise between the Western Union Telegraph and the Postal Telegraph companies, as we have the situation well under hand. Our Chicago office telegraphs that no such a thing as compromise should be contemplated.

"The Western Union company played their first and last stampede bluff at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon," continued Mr. Small. "J. H. Hadley and C. W. Henry, two strikers on picket duty in the vicinity of West Oakland, main office of the Western Union, were approached yesterday afternoon by M. B. Brown, traffic chief, and invited to step into the office. Brown first approached the two pickets and engaged them in conversation on various subjects.

"After a lapse of fifteen minutes the two pickets were invited to step into the office and see how they were doing business.

"Mr. Jeffs," said Traffic Manager Brown to the pickets, "asked me to call you two boys in and let you see how they were doing business."

"We surveyed the whole room, said Mr. Henry, "and noticed that most of the chairs in the operating room were occupied by non-telegraphers. I. Mesher, assistant general foreman of construction, occupied one chair and H. Nelson, foreman of a construction gang, occupied another; Chief Operator Jeffs occupied still another, and a stranger to me was occupying a chair of the first Chicago bonus wire and was not working.

MANY MACHINES IDLE.

"All of the check clerks, bookkeepers, delivery and receiving clerks, were occupying chairs at way wires in various parts of the room. None of the Wheatstone automatic operators were at work, nor was the Wheatstone machine working at all.

"The whole thing looked to us as though Jeffs had filled the chairs and invited us to look the thing over, hoping to create favorable impressions."

MAKES 3 ATTEMPTS TO COMMIT SUICIDE

After trying three modes of self-destruction, Walter Monroe, 30 years old, residing at 21 Eighth street, still lives to attempt another route of suicide.

Just after midnight this morning Monroe stole out of bed while his sisters slept in the next room and noiselessly creeping into his brother Robert's room, took the latter's razor and went into the bathroom.

Monroe did not remove any of his clothing before his attempt at suicide, but immediately began slashing at his wrist. After the blood began to flow very freely, he turned on the gas and jumped into the bath tub which he had filled ready for the occasion.

Monroe hoped to become exhausted from the hemorrhage of the wrist and overcome by the deadly fumes of the gas; then fall submerged into the water and drown. As he lay struggling in the water from the self-inflicted pains and the smothering odors of the gas, his brother Robert came home.

His room is next to the bath room, and as soon as he entered he scented the escaping gas and heard the splashing water.

"DON'T WORRY ABOUT ME."

"What is the matter with you, Walter?" shouted the younger brother, placing his ear to the door of the bathroom.

"Oh, don't worry about me, I am about to die. Go away and leave me alone," came the mournful response.

"Open the door before I break it in," cried the frantic brother, at the same time alarming the household.

Robert Monroe began beating at the door with all his might and was about to break in the panels when the would-be suicide unlocked the door and stood in a streaming pool of blood and water.

The explosion from the fumes from the open gas jet were nearly enough to wreck the house when they came in contact with the lighted gas in the adjoining room.

TAKEN TO HOSPITAL.

Accompanied by his brother, Monroe was placed on the operating table where Steward Borchert was ready to attend the wounds. The bleeding of the wrist was stopped and after applying a stimulant, Monroe sat up quite eased after his wild attempt at suicide.

He then explained the reasons for his rash act. Monroe has been away from home for the past ten years and when he recently returned from San Jose where he was in the employ of a brick yard, he learned that his mother and father had both died during his absence.

Monroe had been suffering from a lingering illness and combined with his grief at the loss of both parents, the young man decided to end it all by a terrible death which he thought was made easy by assortments of deadly methods.

The punishment was not sufficient to change Monroe from his ardent endeavors, for he told the hospital authorities as he was being taken out that he would again attempt suicide.

Defeats a Swiss Rival in Race by Five Minutes.

LONDON, June 28.—Dispatches from Zermatt, Switzerland, tell of an ascent of the Matterhorn made yesterday by J. R. Glascock, son of the former Mayor of Oakland, Cal. It was the first ascent of the dangerous mountain for this season.

There was a friendly race between Mr. Glascock and a Swiss named

SEVERAL ARE GUNFIGHTERS

Graft-Courtroom Like an Armed Camp; Hostilities Are Probable, and Innocent Ones Will Pay Penalty.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 28.—Probably no more sensational feature connected with the prosecution of graft in this city has occurred than the disputation and threatened fight with fists and guns which occurred yesterday between Prosecutor Heney and A. A. Moore, his son, and other opposing counsel. It was the talk in court circles today.

It was expected a gun play would follow the flow of epithets bestowed by each of the belligerents upon the other. In fact it has been expected for a long time that shooting would follow some [illegible] between all the parties concerned in the prosecution and defense of graft.

"Probably forty or fifty people have guns on them," whispered Sheriff O'Neill in the ear of Judge Lawlor during a lull in the fight. "Nobody in this room, not even Heney's body guard, has a right to carry a weapon while here. I do not know whether there will be any trouble this afternoon or not, but if anything is started it would be a bad thing to have guns."

ALWAYS EXPECTED.

While this may be a remarkable proceeding for a court of justice, it is nothing more nor less than what has been expected by those conversant, and who

STEVEDORE DROPS TO GROUND DEAD

SAN FRANCISCO, June 28.—Fred Marks, a stevedore, 32 years old, while working at the docks of the Pacific Mail Company this morning, dropped suddenly to the ground. His fellow workmen picked him up and summoned an ambulance, but it was found that he had died instantly. Death is supposed to be due to natural causes, but the coroner will hold an inquest.

FINES IMPOSED FOR SELLING IMPURE MILK

B. Egenberger, P. J. Martina and T. Kajimoto, local restaurantkeepers, forfeited $10 bail each in Police Judge Smith's court this morning. The three men were arrested on charges of selling impure milk. They were released on $50 bail each, but this amount was reduced to $10, which they forfeited.

JUDGE LAWLOR REMINDS BELLIGERENTS OF DUT

Also Tells Them They Did Not Sho Proper Respect for the Church Surrounding.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 28.—Judge Lawlor in opening his court this morning paused long enough to deliver one of the most severe and impressive reprimands that has been handed down from the bench. It was apparently directed equally toward the attorneys concerned in the trouble which took place in his court room yesterday.

"It is not the custom of this court," said Judge Lawlor, "to take cognizance of anything that happens outside its regular sessions, but my attention has been called to things that took place here during the noon recess which created a condition little short of disorder.

"In taking up this matter the court is borne out in its position by the chu authorities from whom this room is p cured. "I was shocked beyond expressio learn of what occurred in this p immediately upon the adjournm Nothing can be further from fore practice than the trouble that occu here yesterday. If this thing wer continue I should consider myself able to preside over the sessions of court."

This was all. Both Attorneys M and Attorney Heney sat quietly their seats and received the re without comment or protest. Sta Moore says he will not pursue challenge to Heney further. Th cident is now regarded as closed.

SHERIFF O'NEILL UZZLED OVER SCHMITZ' ABSEN

SAN FRANCISCO, June 28.—When the two indictments against Mayor Schmitz charging him with bribery in the graft and trolley cases were brought up in Judge Dunne's court this morning at 10 o'clock Mayor Schmitz was not there. For a time Sheriff O'Neill had a busy and troublesome time trying to produce his charge and explain why he could not account for him.

The sheriff telephoned to the county jail, to the Mayor's residence and had deputies looking about the court house for him. Judge Dunne was obliged to declare a recess of an hour in order to provide for finding the Mayor.

No explanation was asked of the Mayor when he came into court at 11 o'clock, but it was stated that he had spent more time in his morning automobile ride from the county jail he had expected.

The two arraignments on Mayor Schmitz was asked to charge him with receiving a br $3250 from Frank Drum and Ab Ruef in connection with the gas nance and of receiving another b $50,000 from Tirey L. Ford and ham Ruef on the trolley franchis

TELEGRAMS RECEIVED.

Chicago, June 27.—At 10:30 p. m. 1200 San Francisco messages were 44 hours and 20 minutes late. 850 Los Angeles messages were 27 hours, 30 minutes late. 455 Portland messages were 25 hours, 19 minutes behind time. 700 Seattle messages, 29 hours, 48 minutes late. 125 Denver messages 2 hours, 50 minutes late. 107 Salt Lake messages, 4 hours, 13 minutes late. 95 Helena messages, 7 hours late. 100 Spokane messages 3 hours late. 100 Goldfield messages 6 hours late. They need one man today. We oppose any half-hearted movements. (Signed.) Archie."

Another telegram reads:

"Chicago, June 27.—At 5:30 p. m. 783 San Francisco messages on hand 23 hours 25 minutes old. 715 Los Angeles messages 26 hours 40 minutes old. 466 Portland messages 26 hours 30 minutes late. 592 Seattle messages 26 hours 30 minutes old. 311 Denver messages 3 hours 30 minutes behind time. 116 Salt Lake messages 6 hours late. 90 Spokane messages 9 hours late. 128 messages for Helena were 10 hours. Total, 3104 messages behind. (Signed.) D. N."

Below is an exact copy of a wire message sent to Chief Operator Jaffa of the Western Union Telegraph company, West Oakland, showing delays in the telegraphic messages en route to Oakland:

"Los Angeles, June 27.—At 11 p. m. we have 800 messages for Chicago and are ten hours behind. They mailed the Oakland stuff. Chicago has 2700 messages for San Francisco and Los Angeles, and is forty hours behind. We are unable to move more than from forty to fifty messages an hour. We are all as firm as a rock and have plenty of money. We hope that Sam lets the company come to us and not us to them. Charlie and Meyers and Billy Williamson are working their heads off and calling us vile names. (Signed) Secretary Local Union."

COMPANIES SATISFIED.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 28.—When asked about the telegraphers' strike this morning General Superintendent Storrer of the Postal Telegraph Company said that the situation was very satisfactory. Business was not behind and telegrams were not delayed.

The business community, he added, realized the fact that the wires were in working order, for messages were constantly being sent and received, despite assertions to the contrary. He was not at all worried by statements given out by the strikers to the effect that the service was crippled. Superintendent A. H. May of the Western Union said that the situation was clearing itself. More men were going to work daily and business was being handled without serious trouble or delay.

KEYMEN CONFIDENT THAT STRIKE WILL END SOON

SAN FRANCISCO, June 28.—The belief that the strike of the telegraphers would be of short duration has been strengthened and a spirit of optimism prevails among the operators. The prospect that President Roosevelt may take a hand in adjusting the differences tended to brighten the situation.

The appearance of the President of the United States in the controversy was suggested by a telegram sent by S. J. Konenkamp, deputy president of the Commercial Telegraphers' Union in New York, to President Small. The telegram stated that Konenkamp had been invited by Labor Commissioner Neill to visit him in Washington to discuss the situation. President Small says that he will welcome any official investigation of the strike.

NO NEW MEN WORKING.

No new men, it is said, were put to work yesterday either by the Western Union or the Postal Company. General Superintendent L. W. Storror of the Postal declared that he did not need any more men, although he admitted that the force was not as large as before the strike.

"We are working a little harder and putting in overtime, besides," he explained. "The volume of our business has not reached a normal level yet."

Superintendent Miller of the Western Union said that the company had about seventy men on the floor of the Oakland office, against ninety or 100 before the strike.

Both officials declared that their companies were handling all their business without delay.

...is certainly a remarkable circumstance that in a court of justice lawyers, armed and fully protected by body guards who are also fully armed, are constantly picking personal flaws and looking for every opportunity to indulge in fight talk.

...There are other people, and none of them are alarmists either, who feel that before these graft cases are concluded there will be an open fight in which men will make gun plays and the possibilities are that should any of the parades reach such a climax that the officers will be the innocent bystanders, the inference being that once the shooting starts it will be fast and at random and many people will be shot.

...Heney, who claims that he has been threatened, is said to be armed. He is constantly under the care of Detective Burns, an armed officer, and a body guard who has a reputation as a gun fighter, who is likewise healing for trouble.

ALL MEN OF NERVE.

...On the other hand, it is likewise known that several members in the defense of the accused of graft are likewise men of nerve—men who have called bluffs in the time; who would fight—all of whom are armed.

...Judge Lawlor yesterday told Sheriff Wittell that he did not think it necessary to search the spectators for weapons because there was no likelihood of anything disagreeable being started again such as has been witnessed previous to that time.

...It is the most unique condition that has existed in this connection, and it is not improbable that any time circumstances may force issues which will result in gunfighting, and it is not improbable that should gunplay follow many innocent people will be the victims of the shots.

...The courtroom in the graft cases while not exactly a Douma, for the reason that armed troops are not in constant attendance, verges upon that condition because most of the principals are seeking justice in a decisive way, with the intent of calling any and all bluffs in which one side or the other may make a personal war.

...The fact remains that professional gunmen, armed, and professional pugilists and professional fistics are in constant attendance on the principals in the graft cases and their lawyers, and it is on the qui vive to protect the ones who employ them.

...A gunfight means the slaughter of innocent people.

...In his mountain climbing, Jack Glascock has encountered many thrilling incidents, which are the lot of intrepid persons, and, happily, these he escaped all perils without personal injury. Unlike many of the college university students, Jack Glascock has never used tobacco or intoxicating liquors in any form, notwithstanding the nervous trips he has gone through.

LAWYER COOGAN ARGUES IN BEHALF OF LOUIS GLASS

Attacks Validity of Indictment That Was Found While Unsworn Stenographer Was With Grand Jury.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 28.—When arguments were resumed today before Judge Lawlor on the motion to set aside certain of the bribery indictments against Mayor Schmitz, Louis Glass, Patrick Calhoun, Thornwell Mullally, T. L. Ford and William M. Abbott, Attorneys T. C. Coogan and D. M. Delmas argued in behalf of Glass, and atorneys A. A. Moore and Stanley Moore in behalf of the United Railroads officials.

The court planned to call Glass to trial on one of the indictments on next Monday morning, but it was pointed out that the Fourth of July falls within next week and that probably a great deal of difficulty would be encountered through the absence of veniremen from the city. The defense suggested that the first case be called for trial a week later, July 8, and to this the prosecution made no objection. Assistant District Attorney Heney told Judge Lawlor he would like to have a week's rest. The order of postponement was made.

The motion of Abraham Ruef to set aside the twenty-eight gas and trolley indictments against him will come up at 4:30 o'clock this afternoon.

Among the points made by Attorney Coogan this morning was that the law was violated by the prosecution in allowing Miss L. H. Condon, the grand jury's stenographer, to remain in the grand jury room and report testimony when she had not been sworn. Mr. Coogan claimed that the failure to swear Miss Condon constituted the presence in the grand jury room of an unauthorized person, a thing expressly prohibited by the statute. He held that this invalidated the particular indictment to which he was addressing himself, and he called attention to the fact that the prosecution had evaded the court's request to have this circumstance explained.

LOVING TRIAL IS POSTPONED

Argument in Unwritten Law Case is Expected to Begin This Afternoon.

HOUSTON, Va., June 28.—When court convened today in the Loving trial, the attorneys had not finished preparation of instructions to be presented to the court.

MISS ELIZABETH LOVING for ruining whom ThomasEstes was killed by her father.

Judge Barksdale stated that the argument in the case would not begin until this afternoon and the jury was discharged until 2 p. m.

The legal battle over the instructions began at 12:40 p. m. The attorneys for both sides had spent several hours in conference with a view to agreeing upon the instructions. The conference was futile and the differences were argued before the court.

WILL RECEIVE FULL SALARY

WEST OAKLAND, June 28.—President Small announced this morning at a closed meeting of the telegraphers that up to the 1st of July all the striking operators will receive their regular salary at the end of each week. He also stated this morning that there was to be an excursion soon in which all the operators were to participate.

He read the following telegram:

St Louis, Mo, June 28.—S. J. Small—Message received and have assurances from the general manager of the Southern Pacific that his company will do all that is possible to avoid friction.

'DARK HORSES' MAY APPEAR

Appointments to be Made by Police Commissioners Source of Conjecture.

Several "dark horses" are likely to appear as candidates for the positions of sergeants and detectives in the police department, the appointments of whom will probably be made this afternoon at a special meeting of the Police Commissioners. The appointments have been held up for many months, owing to the lack of funds, it is said, in the city treasury to pay the additional salaries. Rumor has it that the commissioners have been considering other members of the department than have been recommended for appointment to the positions by Chief of Police Wilson. Who the "dark horses" are has not been made public, but it is understood that Jailer Robert Forgie and Louis Agnew, secretary to the Chief, would like to be made sergeants.

Several have been trying out for the positions of detectives, three appointments to be made. H. E. E. Green, William Kyle, Michael Byrne, T. J. Flynn and Peter Feely have their caps set for the positions, having been tried out. It is said that Kyle, Green and Flynn are favorably mentioned by Chief Wilson, but the "dark horses" are likely to upset all conjectures.

ANOTHER TONG WAR WAS NOT INVOLVED

The preliminary examination of Chon Wai, the Chinese hatchet-man, who yesterday attempted to murder a fellow countryman in an overall factory at 162 Second street, will be held in Police Judge Samuels' court on July 12. Chon Wai fired two shots at his intended victim, both of which resulted in flesh wounds. The police now declare that there are no evidences of another tong war in Chinatown, but they have discovered no reason for yesterday's attempted murder. They think that the shooting was caused by a personal feud between the two Chinese.

MOUNTAIN FIRES RAGE ALONG MEXICAN BORDER

EL PASO, Tex., June 28.—Fire is raging in the Chirichua mountains along the Mexico-Arizona line, and laborers have been dispatched by special train to assist rangers in fighting flames. Campers started the fire through carelessness.

CHARGE IS DROPPED.

The charge of violating the license ordinance, which was preferred against J. E. Henderson, a local undertaker, yesterday was dismissed this morning in Police Judge Samuels' court upon the motion of the prosecuting attorney. Henderson paid his license and the proceedings against him were dropped.

SCHWATKA-BOCK WEDDING.

Miss Alma M. Bock, daughter of Mrs. Carrie Bock of 3768 Piedmont avenue, and sister of Acting-Captain of Police Charles Bock, is to be married next Sunday at noon, at her mother's home, to Hubert S. Schwatka, a superintendent of construction in San Francisco. The ceremony is to be a simple one, conducted by Rev. Mr. Jatho of the German Lutheran Church.

LAND AND BOND CO. FILES ITS ARTICLES

Articles of incorporation were filed this afternoon by the Oakland Land & Bond Company of this city which is incorporated for extensive realty and financial investments in the bay counties cities for a term of fifty years. Of the $500,000 capital stock, $500 has been subscribed by D. Edward Collins, A. A. Pennoyer, Lewis A. Hicks, W. H. L. Hynes and B. G. McDougall. With the exception of McDougall whose residence is Berkeley, the other incorporators are Oaklanders.

WATER FILTER MAN IS ADJUDGED GUILTY

While endeavoring to induce many housekeepers in this city to purchase water filters he had for sale, by claiming that he was a representative of the water company, and had also been sent out by Mayor Mott to inspect the water pipes, Edward Shields, a young solicitor, yesterday ran into the arms of a license inspector, who took him into custody on a charge of violating the license ordinance. This morning he pleaded guilty in Police Judge Mortimer Smith's court and was sentenced to pay a fine of $20 or spend ten days in the city jail. Shields was taken to the police station some weeks ago, a resident notifying the authorities that he was using fraudulent means to sell his filters. He was released, however, after being warned.

ROTHSCHILDS OFFER STATE $15,000,000

RIO DE JANEIRO, June 28.—The Journal of Commerce announces that the Rothschilds have offered $15,000,000 to the State of Sao Paula in connection with the coffee valorization plan.

HEAD OF TRUST COMPANY ACCUSED EMBEZZLER

MINNEAPOLIS, June 28.—James V. Barnes, former president of the Title Insurance Trust company of this city, now defunct, was arrested here last night on a bench warrant charging him with embezzlement. There is a shortage of over $30,000 on the company's books.

RAPID TRANSIT BOARD IS OUT

Handled Subway Project and Had Disbursement of More Than $100,000,000.

NEW YORK, June 28.—After thirteen years as a Board of Rapid Transit Railroad Commissioners adjournment sine die was taken yesterday and on Monday the board will cease to exist, being succeeded by the new Public Utilities Commission. The one great achievement of the rapid transit board was the planning and building of the subway. The board altogether has approved expenditures of more than $100,000,000 for subways.

Public announcement of the membership of the local Public Utilities Commission which will hereafter have charge of transit matters is expected to be made in this city by Governor Hughes, probably late this afternoon or tonight. The names of the appointees, it is expected, will cause a surprise, as it is understood that some of the commissioners will be men who have not even been mentioned publicly.

BAGGAGE MAN MIXED TRUNKS

College Professor Secures Assortment of Young Lady's Articles.

CHICAGO, June 28.—When Professor Herman Churchill of the Northwestern University opens what he supposes to be his trunk, at whatever place he has gone to for his summer vacation, he will find the following mysterious articles.

Two white silk waists.
Three white skirts.
Two pairs high-heeled French shoes.
One sachet bag.
Two pairs twelve-button kid gloves.

Meantime, Miss Claudine M. Winkinson, freshman at the aforesaid university, is wondering how she is going to be able to use, instead of her missing garments, the following mysterious things:

One pair calfskin boots.
Rod and fishing tackle.
Pipes.
Six packages smoking tobacco.
One razor, strop and shaving mug.
Thirty-eight caliber gun.

JURY DISAGREES IN STANDARD OIL TRIAL

FINDLAY, O., June 28.—The jury in the case of the State of Ohio against the Standard Oil Company charged with violating the anti-trust laws, this morning reported to Judge Duncan that it had been impossible to agree upon a verdict. The Court thereupon discharged the jury.

WELLDRESSED WOMEN ARE STEALING HORSES AND RIGS

Several Buggies Left Standing on Streets Have Been Driven Away by Brace of Fair Horse Thieves.

Two women, whose descriptions have been furnished the police, are stealing horses and buggies left standing by their owners in the business section of the city. Yesterday afternoon about 3 o'clock the women were seen driving away from Austin's real estate office on Broadway in a buggy, belonging to E. O. Johnson of the Kentucky stables. The rig is still missing and the authorities have been unable to learn of its whereabouts or who the two women thieves are. The women are stout and well-dressed. Both are dark complexioned and one is thought to be of Spanish descent. The stolen horse is a sorrel, with one white ankle. The buggy is a business vehicle, with a black body and red running gear. It has rubber tires. The police believe that the women have been implicated in the theft of several buggies and thus far they have been able to successfully elude the strong arm of the law.

Duncan McMullen of 4936 Broadway has reported that a bay mare, weighing about 850 pounds, fourteen hands high, was stolen yesterday from a lot at Forty-ninth street and Broadway.

WILL TEST LAW AS TO PARADES

Claiming that the local police court has no jurisdiction in his case and that the charge against him does not constitute a public offense but should be considered by a military court, C. H. Davis, a member of Company F, Fifth Regiment, N. G. C., through his attorney, Mervin Samuels, this morning entered a demurrer, to the complaint which accuses him of failing to parade on Memorial Day when ordered to do so by his commanding officer. Captain Wethern of Company F brought the charges against Davis, claiming that he had violated Section 653 of the penal code.

"Every member of the National Guard who, when duly notified, fails to appear at a parade, or who disobeys any lawful order, or who uses disrespectful language towards his superior, or who commits any act of insubordination, is guilty of a misdemeanor.—Enacted on February 14, 1872."

Davis is desirous of having the law tested as to its validity and has filed his demurrer. Captain Wethern asserts that the law has been upheld in Sacramento county in several instances, commanding officers being enabled to compel the members of their companies to parade whenever ordered.

Judge Smith has taken the demurrer under advisement and will make a ruling on July 3.

ATTORNEY WILL NOT LET CLIENT STOP LAW ACTION

Widow Says Lawyer Insists on Having Husband's Will Probated, Though It Is Not Necessary.

What is said to be a most unusual procedure in a probate case, was made this morning in department four of the Superior court when Judge Ellsworth called the probate calendar and Attorney Charles P. Drolla asked for a continuance in the matter of the estate of the late George C. Clark, at the same time denying the widow the privilege of addressing the court. Before Mrs. Clark could make herself heard by the judge, Drolla hurried her out of the court room, informing her that it was necessary to have a continuance for two weeks.

Mrs. Clark, who resides in Alameda, and is a widow of a Civil War veteran and well-known Alamedan, was made the sole heir of her husband's estate, but after his death it was learned that all of the estate was separate property and there was nothing to probate.

Before this discovery was made, Mrs. Clark called at the office of Attorney Drolla and asked his advice on the matter. He told her to bring the will left by her husband and $20 to his office on the next day and he would fix it up all right.

GAVE WILL TO LAWYER.

Mrs. Clark brought the document to the law office of Drolla on Park street and gave him the will with the retainer. The will merely bequeathed to Mrs. Clark the household goods, for the property where they lived had been deded by her several years before her husband's death. Upon going home, Mrs. Clark found that a bill of sale had also been made to her by her husband for the household goods that amount to several hundred dollars.

With this information she says she returned to Drolla's office and told him there was nothing to probate. He agreed with her on the matter and informed his client that it was not necessary to go to court with the will. Before Mrs. Clark could recover the will and the bill of sale that she gave Drolla, the attorney took the papers to the County Clerk's office and filed the will for probate.

This morning it came up to be heard and Mrs. Clark wanted it dismissed but her attorney denied her the privilege. She says that the lawyer has approached her for additional fees and she fears that if he continues the matter in court there will be much ado about nothing while Drolla will claim a fee for all the lengthy services rendered.

NEW MAYOR NOT YET AGREED ON

District Attorney Says Schmitz's Successor Will be Chosen After His Sentence.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 28.—District Attorney Langdon said today with regard to the mayoralty situation:

"We have not yet even tentatively agreed upon or selected a man to take the place of Mayor Schmitz when the latter is ousted from office. We expect to make such a selection within the next two weeks. We do not expect to take any steps in that direction until after sentence has been passed upon Mayor Schmitz on the 8th of July. We desire to accomplish the removal of Schmitz with as little legal friction as possible and we shall not complicate matters by seeking to oust him until his legal status as a convicted felon has been completed by the passing of sentence."

CLINCH OF GRASS VALLEY TO SUCCEED C. N. FELTON

Governor Gillett Tells Why He Does Not Intend to Appoint Senator Belshaw Prison Commissioner.

SACRAMENTO, June 28.—Within a very few days, if his present plans materialize, Governor Gillett will name as a successor to Senator Charles N. Felton on the State Board of Prison Directors Charles G Clinch of Grass Valley.

If Governor Gillett could be assured in his own mind that harmony would rule in the board his choice for this vacancy would be Senator C. M. Belshaw, the former member of the board who stepped down and out to gratify the personal ambitions of Lieutenant-Governor Warren Porter, but the executive fears that friction would ensue between Porter and Belshaw if they were members of the same board, and while he is assured that Belshaw would be a good man for the position, he feels obliged to lay aside his personal desires in the matter and therefore selected Clinch.

The rumor that politics had something to do with the retirement of Senator Felton from the board is declared to be absolutely false by the Governor, who, in discussing the subject this morning, said:

POLITICS NOT IN IT.

"I want to tell you right now that politics does not cut the slightest figure in Senator Felton's retirement. Personally I want him on the board and I have done all that lies in my power to retain him. He has repeatedly told me that he desired to retire and I have repeatedly refused his resignation, in the hope that he would eventually make up his mind to fill out his term, which expires in 1910.

"We all like Felton, and we know that he takes an active interest in everything he undertakes, and if for no other reason this would retain him on the board; but in addition to this he takes a deep interest in the unfortunate beings in our State prisons and does everything in his power to improve their conditions and to see that they have justice done them in all things.

FRIENDLY TO BELSHAW.

"No, I shall not allow politics to interfere in the management of our State prisons, and in selecting a successor to Senator Felton I have chosen a high-class business man, the best in California, in my opinion. It is not Senator Belshaw (although I will admit that no one is better fitted than he), because I fear that there may be some feeling between him and Porter that might produce a jar that would be unpleasant for everybody concerned. I had promised Porter that I would appoint him on the board long before I knew that Belshaw was a member, and he held me to my promise. I feel very friendly to Belshaw and would gladly favor him in any possible way."

WANTS SHARE IN OWN PROPERTY

Claiming that the improvements he has made in the one-half share of the estate of his six minor children, of whom he is the guardian, Christain Radzwill has presented an accounting to the Superior Court in which he asks for a claim amounting to several thousand dollars. This portion of the estate has been appraised at $19,836.75. In ignorance of the law, Radzwill for twelve years withheld the filing of this accounting.

His children brought suit against their father to have a settlement made of the matter. This morning when the case was called in the probate court, Attorney E. K. Taylor asked for a continuance of the hearing until July 16th. With the consent of the attorneys, Albert L. Radzwill, one of the sons, was allowed $40 a month out of the estate.

Radzwill cut himself out of his half interest in the estate for fear of being sued for damages by an unknown woman who twelve years ago was walking by his home in Alameda and tripped and fell on a stake in the sidewalk. Before she could sue him, Radzwill transferred the property over to his wife, who bequeathed it to the children when she died several years ago. Since that time Radzwill has been nothing more than guardian for the children over this vast estate.

FUNERAL RITES BY MISS RIX

ALAMEDA, June 28.—Funeral services were held this morning at 10 o'clock over the remains of the late John Henry Tingman, the well-known San Francisco journalist, who died suddenly last Tuesday night at his home in this city. The funeral was held from the late residence of the decedent, 1609 Lafayette street. Miss Harriet Rix of the Home of Truth presided over the last rites and spoke in glowing terms of the departed. The pallbearers were James Stewart of Sacramento, H. N. Madison of Lodi, Dr. R. B. Proll, S. M. Wood, E. A. Allen of Alameda and Dr. M. V. Kempe of Oakland.

The floral pieces sent by sorrowing friends and business associates were numerous and beautiful. The body was taken to the Oakland crematory, where services were conducted by Rev. Charles R. Brown of Oakland.

CORNELIUS DENIES MEN WILL RETURN TO WORK

President Calhoun Is Anxious to Affect Reconciliation and Reach Terms of Immediate Settlement.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 28.—President Cornelius of the Carmen's Union, gave emphatic denial today to the report that the members of the union had decided to return in a body to the service of the United Railroads. He admitted, however, that renewed efforts have been made to bring about a settlement, and to this end, President P. H. McCarthy, of the Building Trades Council had called upon President Calhoun of the United Railroads yesterday and again today for the purpose of presenting a request for a conference between Calhoun and a committee of twenty-six representing the prominent leaders of labor of the city. It is said that Calhoun gave tacit approval to the request and that a conference may soon be arranged at which terms of settlement will be decided upon.

PRIEST BEATS JAPANESE NEWSPAPER EDITOR

Assault Is Result of Charge That Mission Funds Were Misappropriated by Buddhists.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 28.—R. Tonomura, editor of the local branch, Soko Shimbun, a Japanese daily newspaper, was badly beaten up last night by a priest who has charge of a Buddhist mission in this city, and a dozen of his followers. The assault was the result of a charge in the paper that the funds of the mission were being misappropriated. The editor today swore out a warrant for their arrest.

STREET CAR COLLISION IS CAUSED BY GREASY RAILS

SAN FRANCISCO, June 28.—Two street cars came into collision at Lake street and Second avenue at 11 o'clock today and both were completely wrecked. As far as can be learned, no one was injured. The motormen of both cars jumped from the platform and saved themselves when they saw that a crash was inevitable. The United Railroads officials claim that this accident was due to the rails being greased on Lake street.

Car 1616 of the Clement avenue line was crossing Second avenue when car 1347 of the Hayes street loop came down with terrific force and crashed into the rear end of it. The motorman of the Hayes street car had lost control of his brakes at First avenue. The levers were thrown back, but the car continued to gain in speed, and by the time Second avenue was reached the speed was terrific.

CHILD CARRIED OUT TO SEA BY TOY BALLOONS

CHICAGO, June 28.—A dispatch to the Record-Herald from Rockport, Texas, says:

Minnie, the 2-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Moody of Waco, was carried into the air yesterday by a bundle of toy balloons, which an Italian peddler on the grounds of the hotel had given her, and, thinking to please her, [illegible] the [illegible] could recover from their surprise she was wafted out to sea, fifty feet in the air. A launch occupied by George Munafee of Denver, was in the bay and he came to the little girl's rescue. Firing at the bundle of ballons he punctured several of them and she began to settle downward, finally landing safely twelve feet from the water on the shore of St. Joseph's Island.

INSURANCE MEN ARE INDCTED

NEW YORK, June 28.—Indictments charging conspiracy and forgery against George R., Scrugham, manager of the International Policyholders committee, and Charles F. Stirrup, an employe, and one of the alleged conspirators against Charles Harrington, another employe, were returned today by the county grand jury.

IAQUA SIGHTS DISABLED SHIP

SAN FRANCISCO, June 28. — The steamer Inqua, which arrived today, reports that at 9 o'clock last night she sighted the steamer South Bay with her tail shaft broken, fourteen miles northwest of Point Arena. The South Bay is bound from Eureka for San Francisco. The steamer Vanguard, which is owned by the same company as the South Bay, was near at hand and will tow the disabled vessel to port.

ROCKEFELLER MUST APPEAR

Attorney's Appeal for Magnate's Excuse From Court Makes No Impression.

CHICAGO, Ill., June 28.—John S. Miller, attorney for the Standard Oil company, informed the court that Mr. Rockefeller, although president of the Standard Oil company of Indiana, was not possessed of the information regarding the financial condition of the Standard Oil company desired by the court. He also informed the court that Mr Rockefeller was an old man, who had many business cares and that no advantage could be had to any person by bringing him into the court.

The appeal of the attorney did not appeal to Judge Landis, for he promptly refused to recall the subpoena, and in addition, directed that subpoenaes be issued for the vice-president and secretary-treasurer of the Union Tankline.

under the sun is "spontaneous love," and a Mr Reed of Boston is its apostle. I am not yet apprised of the exact nature of Brother Reed's new fad, but it is doubtless a good thing for those who follow it. If it serves no more useful purpose than to enable the funny writers of the press to draw parallels between "spontaneous love" and "spontaneous combustion," it will not have blossomed in vain. I think any kind of love is good, if not carried to extremes even the love for money which so many persons deride until they get possession of it. I think the most natural and spontaneous love is the love for ice cream and jelly tarts. But, of course, they must be good—the Lehnhardt kind. You know the Lehnhardt brand, do you not?

CITY OUTGROWS ITS BUILDINGS

Extensive Alterations Required Pending Plans for a New Municipal Home.

Extensive alterations are likely to be made at the City Hall within a short time, pending the arranging of plans for a new municipal building. The volume of business in the city offices has increased to such a degree that it has been found that additional room must be had and the city officials are planning ways and means of acquiring this space. But a short time ago it was found necessary by the City Assessor to rent a large hall across the street from the City Hall, where the tax rolls are now being prepared.

It is understood that the Board of Works, the business of which has increased to such a great degree since the earthquake, so many buildings being constructed in this city, must have more space. A plan is now on foot to alter the large room on the second floor of the building, now used as an assembly hall by the Board of Education, and install the Board of Works' office there. The school directors will have the old Board of Works room as a place for the meeting of their committees, while the regular sessions will probably be held in the City Council Chamber.

Police Court No 1 is in need of repairs and the auditing and finance committee of the City Council will be asked to provide in next year's budget the necessary money to do the work. Police Court No 2 is also unfit for occupancy and an appropriation will be asked for its renovating.

The office of the police is now too small and this will probably be altered.

TOBACCO KING TO TAKE WIFE

J. B. Duke Will Claim Bride in the Last Week of the Coming Month.

NEW YORK, June 28.—In spite of her efforts to keep the facts from becoming public, today it was learned from a reliable and exclusive source that James B. Duke, the tobacco king, will be married the last week in July to Mrs. William Inman, the beautiful society woman of Atlanta, Ga., to whom he has been attentive for the last two years.

The wedding will take place in Europe and the tobacco king and the prospective bride will sail on the morning of July 15. The party will be Mrs. Holt of Macon, mother of Mrs. Inman; the twelve-year-old son of the fascinating widow; his boy chum from Atlanta, St. Julian Ravanelle; Mrs. Thompson, a lifelong friend of the Duke family; R. L. Duke and his daughter, who is convalescing from appendicitis.

The ceremony will take place as soon as they reach the European port for which they will sail and which, for reasons best known to himself, Mr. Duke is keeping to himself. The entire party and two or three other friends of the groom and bride, whom they expect to meet on the other side, will start for a continental automobile tour in four machines. Two of these, a large Mercedes touring and a Fiat, the largest made, which is a recent present from Mr. Duke to Mrs. Inman, and is said to have cost almost $20,000, will be taken from this country. Two others will be purchased in either France or Germany to accommodate the entire party.

It is believed by many friends of Mr. Duke and Mrs. Inman that they will inaugurate a social campaign on their return to New York from the honeymoon tour. Color is given to this by the fact that Mr. Duke has been looking over several famous Fifth avenue residences, and probably will buy one of them for his bride. One of these is the William C. Whitney residence, now known as the James Henry (Silent) Smith house, as it was purchased by the late multimillionaire for his bride, for the distinct purpose, it was said, of entertaining on a large scale. Since his death the house has been for sale, and the two most probable buyers have been said to be James B. Duke and E. H. Harriman. Mr. Duke is said to be especially partial to the Smith house, because he is familiar with it, having been a frequent guest of the late William C. Whitney.

PLEDGE TO BOYCOTT ALL LIQUOR SELLERS

BERKELEY, June 28.—"Boycott" is one of the weapons that is to be used by the temperance people in fighting the liquor interest's attempt to loosen up the provisions in the prohibition ordinance now in effect in Berkeley. The following pledge is being circulated among residents here, and it is intended to show the town trustees that temperance people do not want any change in the ordinance, and they are ready to push the "boycott" to the limit to keep liquor selling out of Berkeley.

"We pledge ourselves, each to the other, that, with the help of God, we will buy goods and merchandise only from those who, to the best of our knowledge, do not sell intoxicating drinks.

"And, while we will work to secure the signatures of as many honest persons and Christians as possible, let us free ourselves from the liquor dealers in place of enriching them."

GRASS BURNS ON BERKELEY LOT

BERKELEY, June 28.—Burning grass on Bonita avenue between Rose and Vine streets was the cause of a still alarm of fire that was turned in to the North Berkeley fire house last night between seven and eight o'clock. The department responded, but the fire had died out and no damage was done.

Hop Industry Receives Impetus

Valuable Cup Given at Sacramento Exhibit for Best Showing.

The Interstate Exposition of Irrigated Land Products and Forest Products, to be held at Sacramento, California, next September, is expected to show the wonderful progress that has been made in developing lands hitherto unproductive for agricultural purposes.

Immense tracts of hitherto waste lands that have been reclaimed by modern irrigation methods, have materially added to the resources of the United States, and large interests have been quick to see the possibilities of these irrigated lands in producing an exceptionally fine quality of various products.

The Pabst Brewing Company of Milwaukee, was among the first to appreciate the possibilities of irrigating lands for the raising of the finest quality of hops. To stimulate the hop growers to make every effort to produce hops of the quality and flavor that will brew such a beer as Pabst Blue Ribbon, Col Gustave Pabst has offered a $500 Solid Silver Cup for the finest exhibit of irrigation grown hops, to be made at the forthcoming Exposition.

The Board of Control have already arranged for some fifteen trophies ranging in price from $200 to $500, and these prizes will make this Exposition one of the most successful that has ever been known. Mr. W. A. Beard, secretary of the Executive Committee of the 15th Annual Irrigation Congress, which convenes at Sacramento on September 2d, the opening day of the Exposition, says:

"The Pabst Blue Ribbon Cup will insure a magnificent hop display at the forthcoming Fair. It is but one more evidence of the far-reaching influence already being exerted by the National Irrigation Congress and in the Exposition to be held under its auspices."

The Pabst Blue Ribbon Cup will be designed by Messrs. Shreve & Company, the well-known silversmiths of San Francisco, and will be one of the handsomest designs this firm has ever produced. The Cup is offered without restriction and with the intention that a prize of this character will stimulate the hop growers of the West to rival in excellence of their hops the finest product of foreign lands.

The Interstate Exposition will continue until September 14th, the closing date of the California State Fair, which is held at Sacramento simultaneously with the exposition, and it is therefore anticipated that in addition to those who compete for the Pabst Blue Ribbon Cup, a very general interest will be awakened in the growing of hops on the part of thousands of farmers who will visit Sacramento during the month of September.

TELLS JURY OF TRAIL OF BIG BLOODHOUNDS

Haywood Case Witnesses Assert Massive Dogs Followed Path From Tell-Tale Wire to Marshall's Cabin.

BOISE, June 28.—At the Haywood trial today the first witness after the noon recess was C. A. Collins of Leadville, Colorado, a railroad brakeman who was a miner at the time of the Independence depot explosion. He told of two bloodhounds being brought there and put upon the scent. They circled about for some time and then brought up at a cabin occupied by Al Beemore. The last he saw of the dogs they were being taken toward the Vindicator mine.

Cross-examined by Mr. Hawley, Colline said he had once belonged to the Western Federation of Miners. He was twice arrested by the military following the Independence depot affair and thrown into the "Bull Pen." He was also arrested once by the civil authorities and convicted of being drunk and disorderly.

Collins said his house was but 125 feet from the wrecked depot. The explosion broke two windows in the house and stopped a clock. He and his mother and three brothers were awakened by the blast, but none had curiosity enough to look out and see what had happened. He had not seen Orchard for some time prior to the explosion.

TRAIL OF BLOOD HOUNDS.

L. F. Taylor, of Independence, Colorado, a miner and former member of the Western Federation of Miners, also testified as to the action of the bloodhounds in taking the scent twice from the wire and chair round at the depot and running to Beemore's house.

"Who was Beemore?" asked Darrow.

"He was a deputy sheriff and at one time Marshal of Independence."

"Was he in the employ of the mine owners?"

"He was generally supposed to be."

The last answer was struck out as heresay.

On cross-examination Taylor said he saw Beemore at the depot the morning after the explosion.

Thomas Wood, a native of Scotland, a non-union miner, who was at work in the Vindicator mine at the time of the explosion, was the next witness offered by the defense.

Wood said the day before the explosion he placed half a box of dynamite on the water barrel near the shaft of the 800-foot level. He passed McCormick and Beck, who were subsequently killed in the explosion, coming to the level. Half an hour later the explosion occurred. Running out of the level Wood noticed the powder was gone. The explosion occurred on the sixth level where it was planned to begin work the night McCormack and Beck were killed. It became evident here that the defense planned to show the Vindicator explosion was an accident, McCormick and Beck having taken the half box of dynamite to the level where work was about to begin.

WILL REDUCE THROAT WEAR

Telemegraphone, New Device, Being Experimented With in New York.

NEW YORK, June 28.—The telemegraphone, newest device for reducing wear and tear upon human throats, is being tried for the first time at the Grand Central station by the New York Central road. If, after a fair trial, the invention proves practical, shouting of departing trains by station attendants will be dispensed with.

The telemegraphone consists mainly of several large brass horns distributed over the station. These horns are connected by wires with a centrally situatd booth. A railroad employe standing inside this booth speaks about the trains into a mouthpiece resembling somewhat a telephone mouthpiece and the words are carried to the several horns by the wires. But the original sounds are magnified when they issue from the mouth of the horns. Thus far, aside from a certain harshness of tone, the train announcements seem quite intelligible to passengers.

ROBBERS TAKE GOLD FROM LONE ITALIAN FISHERMAN

Thugs Fell Victim With Vicious Blow---Latter Calls for Help---Highwaymen Run Into Arms of Police.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 28.—Antonio Vaglutti, an Italian fisherman living at 1560 Powell street, was attacked by three fellow-countrymen while on his way home at an early hour this morning, beaten almost to death and then robbed of $40 in gold. Alibrando Linetti, Firranti Farranta and Henry Campi are on the prison detirue book and are held as responsible for the crime.

Vaglutti had just returned from a fishing trip and was proceeding on his homeward journey shortly before 3 o'clock this morning. On Pacific street, between Montgomery and Sansome, the three Italian thugs set upon him. He was felled by a vicious blow from some blunt instrument, and while he lay bruised and bleeding on the sidewalk two thugs continued to beat him about the head and face, while the third robber rifled his pockets, taking his gold. After getting his purse they left him and ran hurriedly down Pacific street.

Although badly hurt Vaglutti did not lose consciousness, and after his assailants fled he arose to his feet and called lustily for help. Attracted by his cries, Officers Sullivan, Nelson and Evart hastened to the scene. The robbers running away run right into their arms and were soon handcuffed together. They were taken back to the scene of their crime, and after being positively identified by their victim were transferred to the city prison.

The prisoners carried revolvers and ugly dirk knives, but none of them had any gold, and the police are inclined to believe that during their flight some one of them must have concealed the two $20 gold pieces stolen from Vaglutti.

DIVORCE OVER LIFE INSURANCE

Diverse Views on Vaccination is Also Cause of Sanders and Wife Separating.

Just a little thing like a $2000 life insurance policy and diverse views on the scientific art of vaccination, according to the complaint of Carrie M. Sanders, were the grounds for which the family was broken up and the commencement of a divorce suit that was granted this morning with an interlocutory decree of divorce signed by Judge Wells. Carrie and Clarence S. Sanders were married on May 21, 1904, and lived peaceably until October, 1906, when, according to Mrs. Sanders, they had a quarrel over his life insurance.

In the $2000 policy that Sanders held his mother was the beneficiary. His wife suggested that she ought to be the receiver of the money upon his death, which brought forth the wrath of Sanders, and, according to his wife, was followed with beating and abuse of her. Sanders paid no heed to his wife's request and his mother remained as the beneficiary.

WOULD NOT KISS HER.

Along in May of this year Mrs. Sanders declares that she and her husband engaged in a little argument on the benefits of vaccination. She said it was necessary to prevent smallpox, while her spouse disapproved of the operation. She says that for days and weeks to follow Sanders would not kiss her when he went to work because she wanted to have the doctor make a scar on her arm.

The family troubles continued from this point until Sanders is accused of charging his wife with infidelity. She says she was forced out of bed one night and driven to the home of her sister-in-law on the county road, where she has since resided.

HARRIMAN SAYS HE IS GUILTY

Followed Regatta Committee Boat Fearing His Launch Would be Overturned.

NEW YORK, June 28.—E. H. Harriman, who was taken into custody by Internal Revenue officers at the races at New London yesterday said today that he was no doubt guilty of a violation of the rules governing the course, but that it was unintentional.

The regatta's committee boat, which he was following, he said, bore a sign reading: "Keep astern" and he obeyed it. When he received the order to stop following the committee boat his launch was so placed that he could not obey without danger of overturning his launch. He said he regarded the incident as closed and that he did not expect that any penalty would be imposed upon him.

Merchants Badly Handicapped by Action

Insurance Cancellation Leaves Many Big Firms at Mercy of Fire Disasters.

The next handicap that the aggressive, patient and long-suffering merchant of San Francisco is subjected to is the cancellation of the insurance policies in some parts of the stricken city.

S. N. Woods & Company, the largest men's and youths' furnishing goods house on the coast, made a remarkable statement in Thursday evening's TRIBUNE, showing how a house carrying the gigantic stock such as is carried by them, is compelled to reduce stock. This last impediment to merchandising will cause the merchants to carry a much less stock. The Oakland house of S. N. Wood & Company are fortunate in having such a fine brick building, amply protected against fire loss, and the San Francisco store has been accorded the privilege of sending some of its merchandise over to sell here to reduce stock.

A large corps of sales people have been added to the regular force of over 220 employes to give the public a courteous and speedy service.

AUTOIST EXCEEDS SPEED LIMIT ON WAY TO BE WED

Lawbreaker Makes Novel Plea When He Is Arraigned in San Francisco Police Court.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 2.—"I may be guilty, Your Honor," pleaded Chauffeur Carl Nelson, when he faced Police Judge Cabaniss on a charge of speeding his automobile in excess of the limit law, this morning, "but I have this to say in extenuation. I had just secured a marriage license and was on my way to be married. I may have been in a hurry."

"You were in a hurry, all right; I know I was," laughingly retorted the magistrate. But remember, that excuse only goes once outside of Utah. Don't bring it in this court again soon. I am making a practice of fining local speed burners $10, and I will make only this exception in your case. The fine shall go as a present to the new bride. Take the money home and give it to her as a wedding present from the Court."

"I'll do that," said Larsen, as he went on his way rejoicing.

TOURING EAST TO STUDY ATHLETICS

BERKELEY, June 28.—A tour of all the Eastern institutions of learning to investigate their methods of athletics is the trip that two California athletes, members of the State University, are engaged in at present. They will return in the fall with data of the latest methods in vogue in athletic sports at the big universities in the East

Roy Cowles, the hurdler, who holds the record for the high sticks made in the last intercollegiate meet with Stanford, and Joe N. Swan, a member of the track team, are the athletes who are making the trip The expenses are being paid by the two men, who were not sent as representatives of the State University. They are taking the trip for the pure love of athletics, hoping to gain thereby knowledge of Eastern methods.

The men are visiting the University of Chicago at present. Swan is a member of the Kappa Alpha fraternity, and the members of that society in the East are taking great interest in their fellow fraternity man's trip and making his visits at the different institutions a round of pleasure. Cowles is likewise being entertained by the Phi Delta Theta society, of which he is a member.

CLASS SELECTS ITS PERMANENT OFFICERS

BERKELEY, June 28.—Miss Edith Rickley and Julius Klein, both members of the last graduating class of the State University, have been chosen by the members of the class of 1907 as their permanent secretaries. Miss Rickley will manage the affairs of the women students, while Klein will do the same for the men.

Julius Klein is at present writing the history of the manufactories of the coast for the Carnegie Institution. Miss Rickley is a prominent member of the Y. W. C. A. in the University, and also a member of the Hypatsean honor society.

GRADUATES OF ST. JOSEPH'S HEAR ELOQUENT ADDRESS

Father Morrison Delivers Commencement Oration Before Senior Class at Berkeley Academy.

BERKELEY, June 28.—The closing exercises of St Joseph's academy in Peralta Park, Berkeley, were held yesterday afternoon an immense audience of friends of the graduates, scholars and school being present. The academy has a complete orchestra composed of students of the academy, and this assisted materially in the entertainment of the afternoon.

The exercises were held in the gymnasium which was gaily decorated with American flags, bunting and an abundance of red and white carnations.

Many of the singers and speakers were boys in knickerbockers and they displayed remarkable talent. The program was in two parts and follows:

Part II.—Quartet—"Spreading a Rumor," E. Delmonte, A. Bookmyer, G Haines, V. Cooney; recitations, Charles A. Perkes, Ambrose T. Mahoney; cornet solo, George Ench; concert recitation—"Bells of Shandon," Preparatory class; recitation, John A. Clecak, double duet, "Kind Words"; concert recitation—"The Drummer's Bride," Intermediate department; chorus—"Carnival of Venice," choir; dialogue—"A Slight Misunderstanding," W. Fitzgerald, F. Lunn, concert recitation—"The Seminole's Reply," Academic department; Sleighrider's Serenade, double quartet, finale—"Arrah Wanna," Academy orchestra; distribution of medals.

FATHER MORRISON'S ADDRESS.

Rev. F. X. Morrison, D.D., before distributing the medals, addressed the students and spectators. He said in part "Nobody who has been here in this hour and a half can leave with any other feeling than that what you have seen of these boys spells success There is no question before the country today of such vital importance as the question of the education of the young man. If there is anything the country needs today it is men of character, men of honor, men of worth. It is in the schools of the kind in which you are gathered today that these kind of men are instructed in their youth and the principles inculcated here make them rise above the paltry things of the world and work for God and their fellow man.

INFLUENCE OF EDUCATION.

"Education is doing the greatest work in the country today. These young men will now enter universities, high schools and colleges, but the work done here will shape their destiny and the years passed here will always be looked on in after life as the foundation period in their career."

Dr. Morrison thanked those present for their attendance and hoped they would be benefitted by the exercises and would come again.

Members of the graduating class are George Haines, William Fitzgerald, Eugene Del Monte, Harold Nash, Alvin Bookmyer, Henry Myers and Vincent Cooney.

In the elocution contest recently held the medal winners were announced yesterday. These are: Intermediate department—gold medal—Charles A. Perkes; next in merit, William J. Guthrie.

DR. REINHARDT MAKES APPOINTMENT

BERKELEY, June 28.—Dr. Allen F. Gillihan, a member of the Berkeley Board of Health, has been appointed by Dr. George F. Reinhardt to be medical examiner at the University during the absence of the latter in Europe. A part of Dr. Gillihan's work will be the direction of the students' infirmary on the campus.

Dr. Reinhardt took a leave of absence for a year. Victor Henderson, acting secretary to the Board of Regents of the University, is traveling with Dr. Reinhardt.

WILL STUDY SPECIMENS OF GRASSHOPPER PEST

BERKELEY, June 28.—The University will soon receive some live specimens of the grasshoppers that have been causing so much trouble in the San Joaquin valley lately. L. A. Woodworth, son of Prof. Woodworth of the University, is now in the valley near Fresno to collect them. He has been all the way from Bakersfield to Modesto, and is now on his way back to Bakersfield.

He reports that the pest is not menacing except in the vicinity of Turlock, the only place he has visited in which he was able to collect the specimens in sufficient quantity for safe shipment alive to Berkeley. The farmers he has talked with declare the pest not as bad as in former years. He did not seem to think the situation serious in the least.

The specimens he succeeds in sending alive to the University will be examined and experimented with in the entomological department. The ultimate purpose of the investigations will be to discover some poison which will destroy the grasshoppers without injuring the crops upon which they feed. Mr. Woodworth did not conduct any experiments in the field, and in talking about his work has not discussed this annual pest further than to mention the diminuation in numbers to such an extent as to render his work difficult.

POSTMASTER EXTENDS MAIL DELIVERIES

ALAMEDA, June 28.—Postmaster Lydecker has announced that on Monday next he will extend the postal delivery service so it will take in the shipyards and factories bordering on Oakland harbor. At the present time the firms are compelled to get their letters and postal matter either from the local office or the Oakland office and are seriously inconvenienced.

There will be two deliveries daily along the harbor. The delivery will increase the business o the local office as there is a heavy correspondence coming from all the concerns. So far nine firms have sent notice of their acceptance of the plan. They are the United Engineering Works, the John Brosnan Company, the

THUMBS TAKEN BY TOY CANNON

Both Hands of Alameda Boy Are Mangled When Premature Explosion Occurs.

ALAMEDA, June 28.—John Ansel Jr., the fifteen-year-old son of J. Ansel, a Chestnut station butcher, had his thumbs amputated near the first joint yesterday by Dr. W. O. Smith. With a companion the boy was ramming a charge of powder into a toy cannon which they had just purchased. Friction is believed to have caused the powder to explode and the boy's fingers were terribly mangled. His hands were burned by the powder and he fell in a faint after the accident.

The injured boy was taken to his home and later was removed to the Alameda sanatorium, where the amputation was performed. The accident is the first to occur here this Fourth of July season There is fear that blood poisoning may set in and that it will be necessary to amputate the lad's hands. The companion of the Ansel youth was not injured.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK IN ALAMEDA SOCIETY

ALAMEDA, June 28.—The announcement of the engagement of Miss Alice Jost and Leopold J. Rissmann has just been made to their friends. Miss Martha Snow, of Union street, is among the Alamedans now at Lake Tahoe.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Paxton have invited a dozen friends to a house party at their summer home at St. Helena.

TWO DUCKS HATCHED FROM ONE EGG SHELL

BERKELEY, June 28.—Prof. M. E. Jaffa, poultry expert at the University of California, has received a curiosity in the shape of a pair of twin ducks that were hatched out of one and the same shell. The novelty was sent him by V. Martinez, a tonsorial artist of Walnut Creek, Cal.

The ducks were completely formed and appeared to be normal, having hatched from a large double-yolked egg. They died, however, not long after breaking open the shell. When found by Mr. Martinez they were both lifeless, having picked only half way out of their shell. Professor Jaffa has them preserved in alcohol and is keeping them as a curiosity. He says that low vitality was probably the cause of their short career.

The secretary is to send a communication to the council noting the action of the club.

JACK LONDON MAY LOSE HIS SECOND CAPTAIN

HONOLULU, June 28.—It looks as if more trouble was in store for Jack London. He may soon be without a navigator.

After Captain Eames, the sailing master who brought the Snark to Honolulu, left Honolulu to return to California, the author engaged Captain A. A. Rosehill as navigator. Efforts were begun this week by local parties to try and induce Rosehill to resign from the Snark and go into a commercial seafaring career.

JOHN WESLEY BELIEVED ANIMALS TO BE IMMORTAL

Founder of Methodism Held Beliefs Recently Advanced by Dr. McTaggart at State University.

BERKELEY, June 28.—It would seem that Dr. John Ellis McTaggart, the eminent lecturer in moral science in Trinity College, Cambridge University, is not alone in his views in which he expresses himself in the belief that dogs and horses will enjoy immortal life, that they are possessed of souls Several of the local ministers have voiced these sentiments since Dr. McTaggart has come out into the open.

Rev. Dr. S. D Bovard, editor of the California Christian Advocate and formerly president of the University of California, says,

"John Wesley, founder of Methodism, held practically the same views and wrote of them extensively in his treatises on religion. So you see there is nothing revolutionary or startling to a Methodist in the assertion of Dr. McTaggart that dogs and horses have immortal life. It was Wesley's belief that a good dog and a good horse would get into heaven. Of course, Wesley made it plain that his belief in this regard had its foundation on speculation and not on revelation Since Wesley's time other noted Methodists have expressed the same beliefs regarding the chances that dogs and horses have of eternal life."

Professor George Howison, the eminent philosopher of the State University, firmly believes in the theory of Dr McTaggart and has frequently corresponded with him on the subject.

Rev. R. S. Eastman, pastor of the South Berkeley Presbyterian Church, says he is skeptical regarding the matter. He said: "I have read with interest the statements made by Dr. McTaggart I must say that I am rather skeptical of such ideas, but of course the problem is purely a speculative one, and I doubt if either Dr. McTaggart or Dr Howison would attach any great value to the idea even if it is true. It seems to me to be merely an interesting exercise in logic to say that all intelligence is immortal Dogs have intelligence, therefore dogs are immortal. I know of nothing in the scriptures that either proves or sustains the contention of Dr McTaggart

FORMER UNIVERSITY STUDENTS ARE MARRIED IN BERKELEY

BERKELEY, June 28.—The wedding of Miss Marguerite Brown and John Clifton Rodder was celebrated last evening at the home of the bride's parents on Versailles avenue in Alameda.

Both Mr Rodder and his bride have many friends in this city, where they were former university students. Their marriage was attended by a large number of friends from here.

Miss Beulah Potts attended Miss Brown as her maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Miss Charlotte Brush and Miss Ella Moffatt.

The ceremony was performed by F. S Brush and Ralph Brown was the groom's attendant.

After the ceremony the couple left for a honeymoon trip through the northern counties of the State, where the groom, who is a mining man, has extensive mining interests. Their home will be in Calaveras county.

The bride was graduated with the class of '03 and afterward was for a short time a teacher in the local schools.

A reception at the home, for which more than two hundred cards have been issued, followed the wedding ceremony.

Recently Miss Brush, who is to be one of the bridesmaids, entertained the girl friends who made up the bridal party at the wedding. Luncheon and an informal chat followed the hour at the jolly afternoon. Pink, the color used at the wedding, made the decoration for the table, sweet peas and carnations being used with telling effect.

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Caroline I. Clark and Howard C Plummer, which was solemnized last evening at the Fairmont Hotel, in the apartment occupied by the bride's parents. A wealth of blossoms and foliage made the rooms most attractive, and formed a pretty setting for the ceremony, which was read by the Rev. Dr. Nicholls of the Episcopal Church. The bride had as her attendant Miss Ellen Stansbury, who was prettily gowned in soft pink lace Bridesmaids roses were used for her bouquet. Miss Clark wore a beautiful gown of white satin, trimmed with rare old point lace.

E. J. Clark of Cheyenne, a brother of the bride, was the best man. Mrs. Clark, mother of the bride, was gowned in a rich robe of black chantilly lace. Mrs. Plummer is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs Thomas Clark of Placerville, and is a most interesting and attractive girl. She was educated at Miss Head's school, and has many friends in the cities about the bay. The bridegroom is a mining man from Boston, and it was while he was engaged in his profession in Placerville, the home of the bride, that he met the interesting girl who is now Mrs Plummer. The couple will make their home in Placerville.

Following the ceremony supper was served to the forty guests in the gray room of the Fairmont. The tables were prettily decorated with pink roses and sweet peas, with a delicate lighting from pink candelabra.

MRS. C. E. FINK

HEALTH OF WOMEN

In this nineteenth century to keep up with the march of progress every power of woman is strained to its utmost, and the tax upon her physical system is far greater than ever.

In the good old-fashioned days of our grandmothers few drugs were used in medicines. They relied upon roots and herbs to cure weaknesses and disease, and their knowledge of roots and herbs was far greater than that of women today.

It was in this study of roots and herbs that Lydia E. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., discovered and gave to the women of the world a remedy more potent and efficacious than any combination of drugs.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

is an honest, tried and true remedy of unquestionable therapeutic value. This medicine made from native roots and herbs contains no narcotics or other harmful drugs and today holds the record for the largest number of actual cures of female diseases of any medicine the world has ever known, and thousands of voluntary testimonials are on file in the laboratory at Lynn, Mass., which testify to its wonderful value.

Mrs. C. E. Fink, of Carnegie, Pa., writes:—Dear Mrs. Pinkham:— "I wish every suffering woman would take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and write to you for advice. It has done me a world of good and what it has accomplished for me I know it will do for others."

When women are troubled with Irregularities, Displacements, Ulceration, Inflammation, Backache, Nervous Prostration, they should remember there is one tried and true remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation to Women

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to write Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Out of her vast volume of

ALAMEDA AND THE ADJOINING COUNTIES

SYNDICATE BUYS 10,000 ACRES

Will Colonize Large Tract of Fresno County Fruit Land.

FRESNO, June 28.—Ten thousand acres west of Firebaugh and Mendota have been sold to a syndicate of interests with the understanding that they be used for purposes of colonization. A guarantee has been given that improvement and preparation for colonization will be commenced immediately.

One of the most heavily interested agencies in the deal is the West Side Improvement company, of which W. S. Goodfellow of San Francisco is president and De Witt H. Gray of Fresno vice-president. An Eastern real estate agency, Haber Brothers and the Val Verde company are others interested in the scheme.

The land is said to be peculiarly adapted for wheat and fruit raising. W. W. Mackey, the government expert here, said that good water might be obtained at 200 to 600 feet, and that the land compared well with the remainder of the fertile parts of the San Joaquin valley. An extensive campaign for settlement by Eastern colonists will be instituted.

DEATH ENDS YEARS' AGONY

Student Injured in Football Game Three Years Ago Succumbs at Last.

PALO ALTO June 28.—After suffering agony for three years as the result of injuries received in a football match while a member of the Santa Rosa school, Harry E. Miller, a young man of 20, died here several days ago. His funeral was held Wednesday from the home of his parents and was attended by several of his former team mates, in addition to a large number of other acquaintances.

A sturdy athlete and clever player, Miller was a star on the Santa Rosa eleven three years ago. In a close struggle with a rival high school team he was injured severely, his back being badly wrenched, tuberculosis of the spine set in. His parents came to live in Palo Alto in the hope that the change might benefit him. Recently the invalid declined rapidly, and he was racked by pain in the days preceding his death.

Miller's grit stood him in good stead to the end, and his attitude was one of attempted cheerfulness at all times.

ST. PATRICK'S COMMENCEMENT

MENLO PARK, June 28. — Commencement exercises were held at St. Patrick's seminary here Wednesday. Archbishop P. W. Riordan of San Francisco presided. The visitors were Rev. Father Freedan of St. Ignatius of San Francisco, Father Gleeson of Santa Clara college, Father Mulligan of St. Joseph's church of San Francisco and Rev. Father Lyons of Menlo Park. There were no graduations, but several prizes were awarded to students.

YOUNG SKATER'S CHALLENGE.

There is a chip on the shoulder of Master Harry Estudillia, and he carries it around every evening at a local skating rink. Harry is 13 years of age; weighs, with the chip on his shoulder, about 75 pounds. He challenges any boy skater of equal weight and age for the title of "champion of the Pacific Coast." Frank Courant Jr., of 1049 Grove street, will receive any challenges to Estudillia's claim to the championship and offers to back him against any and all skaters in his class. Saturday evening at the Lakeside rink, James Kennedy will race against time and will endeavor to equal if not beat his own record. Henry Nichols, Forest Brown and Harry Estudillo will pace him.

RAIDS ON SAUSALITO POOL ROOMS ARE CONTINUED

Sheriff Threatens to Take Prisoners to San Rafael When Town Recorder Denies Legality of Arrests.

SAUSALITO, June 28.—The raid was continued on the poolroom yesterday afternoon when Sheriff William P. Taylor commanded the men in Joseph Harvey's room to disperse. Several of the men took advantage of the grace allowed by Taylor to leave the rooms, while others, relying in the advice of Harvey to remain in the room, remained in defiance of Taylor's orders. District Attorney Boyd swore to a complaint charging the men who remained with assembling for the purpose of gaming and betting, and then asked that a time be set for the hearing.

SAID ARREST WAS ILLEGAL.

Recorder Renner said that they were not arrested as there had been no warrant issued, that he could not set a time for the hearing, and that he was not cognizant of their arrest. He was supported in his contentions by Attorney Vincillione, who quoted law to support his view. Then District Attorney Boyd told Sheriff Taylor and the deputies to take the prisoners to San Rafael, as the Recorder refused to receive them. The men proceeded to execute the orders, when Renner changed his mind and said he would consider them under arrest.

WOULD NOT GIVE ADDRESSES.

Attempts were made by the prosecution to ascertain the occupations and residences of the arrested men, but Judge Renner sustained the objection of Attorney Vincillione and all invariably declined to answer. The Recorder instructed them in their legal rights, and fixed the hour of hearing at 9 o'clock Monday morning. Bail was fixed at $10, which was put up by the poolroom, and the prisoners left the room.

District Attorney Thomas P. Boyd says he will repeat the raids again today, and feels sanguine that he will have the support of the law, as well as the moral support of the county. He will not let up on the raiding and arresting of frequenters.

NAME OF CEMETERY CREEK MAY BE MADE "GLEN ECHO"

City Council Committees Recommend Street Repairs and Other Municipal Improvements.

At the request of Mayor Mott, the ordinance and judiciary committee of the City Council last night recommended that the name of Cemetery creek be changed to "Glen Echo." The name 'Oak creek' had been suggested by residents along the creek, but Mayor Mott thought that "Glen Echo" would be more appropriate.

The ordinance and judiciary committee recommended that the city attorney enter a disclaimer of interests in the suit of E. P. Vandercook against W. F. Brock and the city of Oakland, to quiet title to lot 2 in block G, Bay View Homestead.

The same committee recommended that grades be established on East Twenty-fourth street between Nineteenth and Twenty-first avenues.

RECOMMEND IMPROVEMENTS.

The street committee recommended the following:

A petition to grade, curb and macadamize Ayala street.

A petition for an Extension of time, from the Ransome Construction company, on Thirteenth avenue, between East Twelfth and East Fourteenth streets.

A petition for an extension in the grading of time of the western half of Linden street.

That John Carlson, W. E. Hite and John A. Peterson be allowed to connect their properties with the Echo avenue sewer by a private sewer over described land.

An extension of time to the Ransome Construction company for work on Forty-fourth street.

A notice of intention to grade, curb and macadamize Third street, from Kirkham street to Union street.

TO REPAIR WHARF.

The wharves and water-front committee recommended that $2500 be appropriated for the repairing of the Webster street wharf, which City Wharfinger Greer says is badly in need of repairs.

The proposed ordinance which would appropriate $10,000 for the improvement of West Oakland park, was referred to the auditing and finance committee, to be considered when the budget for the new fiscal year is prepared.

SEEK WRECKERS OF BIG AUTOMOBILE.

Members of the Chauffeurs' Association of Alameda county, through the latter's executive board, last night offered a reward of $25 for information which will lead to the arrest and conviction of the person or persons who stole and partially wrecked the automobile of W. R. Hume of 4320 Piedmont avenue, on Wednesday night. The automobile was recovered and turned over to the police by H. E. Brown and Horace Hills, members of the association who found the machine at College avenue and Forty-fifth street.

ATTORNEY FILES FIVE DIVORCE SUITS AT ONCE

SANTA ROSA, June 28.—Attorney Thomas J. Butts broke the Sonoma county record in filing divorce cases yesterday. He filed five actions at one time. The grounds of the actions filed run from desertion to extreme cruelty and failrue to provide, and four of the plaintiffs are women. Santa Rosa is represented by two of the plaintiffs, while Sebastopol, Forestville and Alexander Valley each have one. The suits were entitled Amanda Rose against George Rose, Married in Winfield, Kan., in 1897, and the grounds urged are failure to provide; May Sumner against D. Gilbert Sumner, married at Watertown, South Dakota, in 1883, extreme cruelty; Sibyl Kimble against Thomas H. Kimble, married in Sebastopol in 1900, desertion and failure to provide; Annie E. Davis against Elmer St. Clair Davis, desertion; and James E. Bidwell against Annie Bidwell, married in Alexander Valley, in 1899, extreme cruelty.

W. P. HAS LAID ALL ITS TRACKS IN STOCKTON

STOCKTON, June 28.—The Western Pacific Railroad yesterday finished tracklaying inside of the city limits and will now put down the tracks northward toward Sacramento. The work through the city was slow owing to a portion of the streets having to be torn up, but out in the country the rails will be placed in position at a much faster rate. The grading has been completed and sufficient material to build the line to the Capital City is stored on the line of the Tesla road, which was purchased by the Western Pacific.

A track-laying machine is being used with good results. It handles the ties at a fast rate where there are no obstructions. Construction trains have been made up and the busy scenes will be enacted north of this city for days to come. Two large locomotives arrived today from the east for the Western Pacific. It is expected that trains will be in operation between this city and Oroville before the end of the present year.

PRIEST INJURED BADLY BY DOG

Many Stitches Necessary to Close Laceration of Father Lally's Throat.

SAN MATEO, June 28.—Rev. John A. Lally, who was attacked by a dog belonging to Mrs. Andrew Welch Sr., was more seriously injured than at first supposed. The clergyman, who is the pastor of St. Patrick's church of San Jose, was confined to his bed all day and was under the treatment of a physician. The animal inflicted a severe laceration on the cheek and throat of the clergyman and many stitches were found necessary to close the wound.

The dog, a large Russian wolf hound, one of a number imported and retained on the large Welch estate, was shot yesterday morning to prevent a recurrence of the accident.

Father Lally is resting at the Welch residence, where he will remain until the gash has partially healed.

RIDES FOR MILES IN BLAZING AUTO

FRESNO, June 28.—Farmers living in the vicinity of Tipton, some thirty miles south of here, were excited Wednesday night by the sight of a large touring car all ablaze and the two occupants gripping the machine and speeding ahead, unconscious of their peril. Al. Ehmann, formerly of an automobile firm of this city, was driving the car, and had with him Charles Fuller Gates, editor of Pacific Motor Magazine. The car was a big touring car, going from Los Angeles to Fresno. The car left Bakersfield Wednesday afternoon, and a few miles south of Tipton the road lay through a lot of straw. It is thought some of the straw collected in the muffler and the heat from the engine caused ignition.

The whole tonneau was ablaze before the men discovered it, after riding fifteen miles. Gates discovered the flames, and as soon as the car was stopped the two men threw on dirt, fighting the flames as best they could, and sustaining painful burns. The rear tires and tonneau were entirely destroyed. The men were brought to Fresno and their burns attended to.

COMPLAINS OF PHONE SERVICE

Oakland, June 22, 1907.

Editor TRIBUNE:

We have been subscribers for your valuable paper ever since coming to Oakland and I therefore trust that you will not think it presumptuous of me if I ask a favor of you. We purchased a home at Peralta Heights last winter and gave our order to the Pacific States Telephone Company to have a phone placed in the house about the first of February. We were informed at the office that there were quite a number of phones to be put in just then so that we should be obliged to wait about two weeks. We waited for about a month and then interviewed them again and were informed that there was no cable on our street and that we would have to wait until material could be brought from the East. Several weeks went by and the cable was put in but no phone was forthcoming. This time it was switch-boards that were wanted from the East but they would probably be here within a few days. A few days went by and still no phone made its appearance. We were somewhat out of sorts by this time and told the superintendent that we did not care to wait much longer and he was good enough to promise us one by the fifteenth of this month without fail. No phone has as yet made its appearance, and we are wondering if there is not some way whereby we can compel them to give us a phone. Please answer through the columns of your paper and let us know what can be done. We are occasioned much inconvenience and are losing money by having no phone. I am wondering if we are the only ones so treated by this corporation or if there are many others. If there are such they have my most heartfelt sympathy. Very truly yours.

RINGNALDA GRADUATE ACHIEVES BIG HONORS

Another plume in the bonnet of Ringnalda Normal Institute is attracting increased attention to that popular and thorough school in Bacon block, conducted by William F. Ringnalda and F. S. Groome. This June seven of the students graduated and one of these, Miss Ruth Penfield, at a subsequent examination of applicants for teachers' certificates before the Alameda County Board of Education, stood at the head of the list, her record average being 98 per cent, the highest of all who took the examination. Miss Penfield was examined in not fewer than twenty-three branches.

The Ringnalda Normal Institute's preparation of Miss Penfield for such a triumph was no more than it accords to all others of its students. In December last, of its graduates twelve were successful. The institute was established in August, 1906. Its faculty includes William F. Ringnalda, principal; Miss E. E. Crawford, preceptress; Miss Cora L. Williams, mathematics; T. J. Wallace, sciences; Ed H. Coffey, languages; Joseph Branyas, art and drawing; L. P. Sullivan, shorthand; Miss Nan Bates, shorthand and typewriting; H. B. Bridges, bookkeeping and penmanship.

2500 MEN RUSH WORK ON WESTERN PACIFIC

RENO, June 28.—Improved labor conditions have made possible more rapid construction of the Western Pacific railroad westward from Salt Lake City. On this work there are now about 2500 men employed and the track is completed from Salt Lake to within 120 miles of Elko. From this point about half the line into Elko has been graded and rail construction work will start soon. It is not known when the completed portion of the road will be opened for train service, but it will not be for several months.

Officials of the line say the heaviest part of the grading on the 120-mile gap to Elko is done and that only the light work remains.

ORGANIZE MUSICIANS' UNION.

PETALUMA, June 28.—At a meeting held Monday evening in this city a local musicians' mutual protective union was organized. Harry F. Smith, leader of Company C band, was elected president and C. R. Winfield chairman. The charter will be kept open for thirty days in order to enable all musicians to affiliate with the organization.

MARINES ACCUSED OF THEFT.

VALLEJO, June 28.—C. N. Laccaw and George Storderherdt, two marines from Mare Island, are confined in the local jail following a daring theft in one of the houses of the tenderloin of this city. Among the articles stolen were several pictures, a bankbook and a valuable watch. When Storderherdt was searched several articles stolen from the house were found on his person.

MANILA, June 28.—At the opening of the third day of the registration of voters the officials estimate the total registrations at less than sixty thousand.

FIND MISSING MAN'S CANE FLOATING ON BAY

Aged Richmond Resident May Have Committed Suicide as Result of Rapidly Failing Health.

RICHMOND, June 28.—A. J. Cloud, about 80 years of age, mysteriously disappeared from the home of his daughter, Mrs. E. G. Alexander of 1437 Third street in this city, Tuesday, and it is believed he has committed suicide. The old man was melancholy at times and while in the mood told his relatives that he contemplated self-destruction. Officers have been scouring the country in search of him since his disappearance.

The only clews obtainable were secured from sailors who saw the old man walking along the Santa Fe pier Tuesday morning, and yesterday his walking stick was found floating in the bay. Beyond a reasonable doubt the body lies at the bottom of the bay. Officers searched from the end of the pier with grappling hooks yesterday afternoon, but failed to find the body. Mr. Cloud has considerable property here. The only motive considered for his probable taking of his own life was his rapidly failing health.

COMPLAIN OF NIGHT REVELRY

Adeline Street Citizens Succeed in Having Liquor License Application Denied.

That men and women make the night hideous in the vicinity of Sixtieth and Adeline streets was the declaration of A. G. Dundaro before the license committee of the City Council last night, when the application of F. M. Rose for a license to conduct a saloon at 6020 Adeline street was being considered. Many residents in the vicinity protested against the application, asserting that the two saloons in that neighborhood at the present time are two too many the vicinity being built up with homes. The committee, after hearing the applicant and protestants, recommended that the license be denied.

TELLS OF REVELRY.

Dundaro asserted that he knew of several instances where men and women, late at night and in the wee hours of the morning, visited the saloons now located in the vicinity in automobiles and were served with liquor in the machines, and would then sing and yell, awakening the sleeping residents with their orgies.

A vote was taken on the proposition of recommending that the application be denied and it was as follows: Ayes: Ellsworth, Baccus and Burns.

Noes: Jackson.

Absent: Everhardt.

LICENSES GRANTED.

The license committee recommended that the following be granted liquor licenses: Cox and Company, 905 Seventh street; J. T. Brennan, 1050 Franklin street; Peterson and Becker, 479 Tenth street; Gus Beltine, 403 Fourteenth street; M. Pozzi, 1437 Fourteenth street; Frank Smith, 1720 Seventh street; A. Marcovich and P. Miocovich, 29 Telegraph avenue; P. Perata, 562 Broadway; J. J. Bettencourt, 5833 Shattuck avenue; Joseph and Viera, Sixth and Franklin streets.

WILL BROWSE AT LAKE TAHOE

A large party of Oakland Elks will leave tonight on a special train for Tahoe where they will remain until Sunday night, arriving home Monday morning. At this time of the year Tahoe is at its best and that is saying a good deal. The climate is delightful, invigorating, but not cold.

The Elks' party will stay at the Tahoe Tavern, where many improvements have been made during the year to add to the comfort of guests. The following will compose the party, which will be in charge of John S. Ross of the Southern Pacific Company: H. W. Frank, J. E. Barricklo, E. A. Drew, E. L. Corbin, R. J. Montgomery, J. G. Spence and daughter, E. J. Bartholemew and wife, R. J. Shingle and wife, Miss E. L. Hawthorne, Miss L. Cassidy, W. Hamelin and wife, R. D. Fuller and wife, George C. Morgan and wife, Max Horwinski and wife, J. B. Whittemore and wife, Col. Theodore Gier and wife, J. J. Hanifin Jr. and wife, Mrs. Sheehan, A. Schleuter and wife, R. S. Kitchner and wife, Harry F. HURT BY FALLING TREE; WANTS $20,000 DAMAGES

WILLOWS, June 28.—Charles Vestner of Orland, a former employe of the Northern California Power company of Redding, has brought suit in the Superior Court of Glenn county against that corporation for $20,000 damages for an injury inflicted one year ago. While constructing a power line Vestner had been asked to climb a tree and fasten a rope at the top for the purpose of anchoring another tree, being cut down by other employes, and keep it from falling across a road. While descending, Vestner was injured by the falling of a partially cut tree.

CARRIES GUN IN HER STOCKING

Officers in Quandary When Ordered to Disarm Woman Tenant.

REDWOOD CITY, June 28.—"I can't disarm that woman; she carries the gun in her stocking," exclaimed Justice James Hannon of Redwood City yesterday, when the demand was made by Carl Muller, Daniel Flynn and Henry McGarvey, three business men of this town, that Mrs. John Titus, an aged woman, be disarmed in order that they might be able to take peaceable possession of property formerly belonging to her, but which now belongs to them.

Despite the expostulations of the plaintiffs the judge remained firm and chivalrously declined to molest the defendant. He allowed her to return to renew her vigil against trespassers.

From present indications it is thought that the three men will not attempt to secure possession by force, as the woman bears the reputation of being a dead shot.

Mrs. Titus is one of the earliest settlers of this part of the county and is a well known character. She came into the possession of the disputed land over 40 years ago and has lived in a cottage thereon for the greater part of that period. Until recently she was the owner, but she assumed heavy mortgages to make repairs subsequent to the earthquake. She was unable to meet the payments on the loan, and her brother, who lives at Pacific Grove, bought the mortgage interest and gave his sister the privilege of living on the place as long as she desired.

Recently he disposed of the entire piece of property to the three merchants who are now endeavoring to gain posssion, but are willing that Mrs. Titus shall retain her cottage.

The woman stands guard night and day to prevent being ousted. The place is one of the most valuable single holdings in town, being a tract of 100 feet frontage on the main thoroughfare of the business section.

It is understood that the merchants will resort to the superior court and demand that the sanity of the guardian of the premises be investigated.

WOMAN RECEIVES FATAL INJURIES IN RUNAWAY

SANTA ROSA, June 28.—Miss Edna McClure and Miss Jane Aubrey were injured yesterday in a runaway accident, the former probably fatally. The two women were driving in a single buggy on the Mark West grade. Miss McClure sustained, it is thought, a fracture of the skull. Miss Aubrey was seriously bruised and was unable to take hed part at a local theater last night, where she is leading lady. Both women are in a hospital.

WARSHIPS ORDERED TO BREMERTON NAVY YARD

VALLEJO, June 28.—It was reported on the Mare Island yard yesterday that the Chicago and Princeton had been ordered to the Bremerton yard to be placed out of commission, and their crews were to be transferred to the Nebraska, which is to be placed in commission on July 1st.

The torpedo boat destroyer, Paul Jones, which is now at Portland, is expected to arrive at Mare Island shortly to be paced out of commission. Her crew is to be transferred to the Perry.

The cruiser Charleston is to proceed to the Bremerton yard for extensive repairs.

Smelter Fumes and Scientific Slops

Some time ago an article appeared in these columns relative to the blight on the surrounding region that the San Bruno smelter, now being erected by the Guggenheim smelting trust, would cause. The Mining and Scientific Press, edited and controlled by T. A. Rickard, mayor of Berkeley, refutes the statements made in said article by calling THE TRIBUNE a "disreputable newspaper." It is hardly likely that Mr. Rickard wrote that in his sober moments. Probably he did not write it at all. The Press says it is "no more beholden to the Guggenheims than the king of the Belgians." If so, why this furious hurling of slag from the Guggenheim melting pots? Wherefore the display of bad temper, rude language and furnace fumes? What's Guggenheim to Rickard or Rickard to Guggenheim that the mayor of Berkeley should sally out of the Guggenheim back door to drench the wayfarer with the Guggenheim dishwater? Why not leave that menial office to the paid scullions of the Guggenheim literary household?

However, it is but fair to say that the Press alleges that the smelters at New York, Tacoma and Denver do no damage to vegetation or animal life. It says "the trouble in Montana and Utah has been due either to the carelessness of the smelter people or blackmail from ranchmen." It fails to give the causes of complaint at the Selby works, in Arizona, and at Ducktown, Tennessee. At the latter place a suit has just been decided against the smelting company. There is no denying that vegetation and small animal life have been destroyed in the vicinity of some smelting plants. This fact is self-evident and cannot be dismissed by shouting blackmail at those who protest against the ruin of their property.

If smelting operations can be carried on without injury to health and property in the vicinity, no reasonable person is likely to object. The property-owners in San Mateo county who are protesting against the erection of the San Bruno smelter are men of intelligence, means and standing Surely the Mining and Scientific Press (when John Barley corn is not wielding the editorial pen) will not charge that they are intending blackmail or assert that they are "disreputable." They are not men to obstruct a great enterprise without good reason. If they are mistaken, they are not likely to be convinced of their error by arguments from the Guggenheim slop-pail.

The third-term shouters are posting President Roosevelt for membership in the Ananias Club.

If Schmitz really wants justice, he should apply for it at the confessional. There he may get absolution as well as justice.

While the Japanese who are already here are crying that they are grossly mistreated, their countrymen are crawling in under and over the fence along the Mexican and Canadian boundaries. It is strange that the anxiety of the Japanese to come to this country should apparently be whetted by the knowledge that they will be subjected to outrage when they get here.

The practice of the learned and honorable profession of the law has its thorns and its crosses. Mr. Heney insinuates that Mr. Moore is a shyster. Mr. Moore retorts that Mr. Heney is a rascal. Mr. Heney's rejoinder is that Mr. Moore is a liar. Then young Mr. Moore enters a sur-rejoinder by giving Mr. Heney the lie and offering to fight him. The court demands and receives apologies to itself from the disputants, who renew their expressions of mutual disesteem while giving the court assurances of their distinguished consideration. The jawing preliminaries to a fake prizefight could not have been conducted with more spirit and decorum or with a finer regard for the proprieties. If the law does nothing else it inculcates a nice regard for the amenities of debate that recalls the stirring moral of the hymn of Dr. Watts beginning, "Dogs delight to bark and bite."

Congressman Hull of Iowa says Bryan would run for President if morally certain of being defeated when he accepted the nomination. So would any other Democrat willing to run next year. It is apparent to every thoughtful student of current politics that the Democratic nominee in 1908, whoever he may be, will lead a forlorn hope. In the past Bryan has demonstrated his ability to poll more votes than any other candidate named by the Democratic party, and the signs are abundant that he has not lost his primacy in the affections of his party. The talk of a Southern man is bosh because no Southern man can poll the vote Bryan can or carry a single Northern State. Parker's fiasco in 1904 shows how futile it is to expect the rank and file of the modern Democracy to follow an old line, States Rights, Locofoco conservative of the ancient type. If the Democrats decline to nominate men who are morally certain to lose, they will make no nomination next year.

Secretary Taft and the Catholics.

It is not surprising that Archbishop Harty, the Roman primate in the Philippines, should hold Secretary Taft in high estimation. Secretary Taft settled the irritating and perplexing land question in the Philippines, in which the Catholic church was interested, and settled it in a manner entirely satisfactory to all concerned. The friars were paid for their property, the Filipinos got the lands they coveted and the church had its spiritual authority over the Roman congregations sustained. On the other hand, the United States government was relieved of an embarrassing and aggravating problem. The sense of justice, the diplomatic talent and the fine consideration for religious sentiment different from his own that Secretary Taft displayed in all the negotiations leading up to the purchase of the friar landholdings and the adjustment of the property rights of the church very naturally earned him the cordial good will of the clergy. The good word Archbishop Harty says for him is merely an expression of the esteem in which Secretary Taft is held by well informed Catholics from the Supreme Pontiff down. It is a high testimonial to the Secretary's gift for conciliation and compromising delicate disputes.

The South is again saying cotton is king. The cotton crop is second only to the corn crop in value, and cotton is the largest item in our foreign exports. According to the Bureau of Statistics, the exports of cotton to foreign countries for the eleven months ending with May reached the grand total of $470,000,000. It will be close to $500,000,000 at the close of the fiscal year. Up to June 20, there had been received at Galveston of last year's crop 3,830,315 bales, aggregating about $200,000,000 in value. The exports to foreign countries by sea aggregated 3,300,198 bales, worth on shipboard the enormous sum of $175,000,000. This exported cotton was equal to 276 cargoes of 3000 tons each. No wonder the GREATER OAKLAND SENTIMENT GROWING.

That the sentiment of the opponents to consolidating with Oakland is rapidly changing, there is no doubt. The people of Elmhurst, it is stated on the best of authority, are anxious to have the question resubmitted, as they see the error they committed in rejecting the offer Mayor Mott laid before them last March in his speech at that place. Many prominent citizens in other sections, who opposed annexation at the election held in March, are now openly advocating the measure. And now Supervisor Bridge and Charles Lee are enthusiastically advocating the cause they so lately opposed. Attention is directed to their language before the Merchants Exchange, to be found in another column.

But if the people of the outlying district want annexation they must make their wants known in such an unmistakable manner that the Oakland government will feel sure it will carry, as the last election cost Oakland a good many thousand dollars and the late experience must not be repeated. It is up to us to ask to initiate the movement.—Melrose Messenger.

THE NOBLE GUEST.

A nobleman as guest came to another's gate,
And on a flying leaf sent in this card of state:

"Is entrance granted me? I come, as comes the feather
And sails away again in the light summer weather."

Then came the answer out: "We give thee not the right
To enter our gate; thou mak'st thyself too light."

Then went the message in: "I come as comes the stone,
Which, tossed into the sea, lies quiet where't was thrown."

Then came the answer forth:" "We never can allow

Then went the message in: "I come as mounted men,
Who, when their errand's done, mount and ride on again."

Then he within called out: "That word I like the best.
Porter, fling wide the gate to such a noble guest!"

SOCRATES OF THE SOUL.

The soul which cannot die merits all the moral and intellectual improvement we can possibly give it. A spirit, formed to live forever, should be making continual advances in virtue and wisdom. A well-cultivated mind regards the body merely as a temporary prison. At death, such a soul is conducted by its invisible guardian to the heights of heavenly felicity, where it becomes the associate of the wise and good for all ages

There can be no evil befall a good man, whether he be alive or dead.

He who fulfills his duty here on earth with constancy, despite all difficulties, and who bears all adversities with resignation to the divine will, must enjoy the reward of his virtues hereafter.

MRS. MARTIN WILL LET INSURANCE MAN LIVE

Oakland Woman, With New Gown for Every Day in Week, Denies Intention to Shoot Financier.

The New York World contains the following account of the difficulties of Mrs. J. J. Martin of this city:

Mrs. Isabella J. Martin of Oakland, Cal., better known on the Pacific coast as Mrs. John Martin, or Mrs. Hoffman Martin, would like to present George R. Crawford, president of the Westchester Fire Insurance Company, with a bouquet, and not a bullet. Mrs. Martin identified herself yesterday as the woman who was reported to have come to New York to kill Mr. Crawford.

"I left my pistol behind in my mining camp," Mrs. Martin said. Mr. Crawford shall live if Providence consults me in the matter. I believe in letting such men live to suffer."

TELLS OF HER MISSION.

In her apartments at 86 Madison avenue, where she is living with her son, John, aged fourteen, she said last night:

"One of my missions in coming to New York was to see Mr. Crawford. The Westchester Company insured one of my houses in Oakland for $1700 and the place was burned to the ground five years ago. I was refused payment in full on the policy and the case was taken into court. When it was called I was ill and could not be present. For that reason the claim was dismissed, but it is now pending on an appeal.

"I called on Mr. Crawford at his office two weeks ago and was received by Mr. Kelly, the assistant secretary. I made no threat against Mr. Crawford. Secretary Brown received me on a subsequent visit and offered to pay me $500 in settlement of my claim. I refused the offer. Concerning the published report that I went to Mr. Crawford's home to kill him, I did present myself at his residence on Stevens avenue, Mount Vernon, but with no thought of violence. I was accompanied by my son and I was not armed.

"GIVE HIM A BOUQUET."

"The maid told me that Mr. Crawford was not at home, and when I asked permission to sit down and wait, the maid said she did not know who I was and refused my request. We left the house, but I sent my son back to inquire for Mr. Crawford again. The following day I wrote him a letter, stating that I had called to 'give him a bouquet,' I also wrote that people living in glass houses should not throw stones, but I did not mean I intended to throw a stone at him or do any pistol shooting."

Delphin M. Delmas, the California lawyer, who was senior counsel in the Thaw trial, first came into general public notice as counsel for Mrs. Martin. It was during the trial of the celebrated will case that he flopped to his knees before the jury and, with tears coursing down his face, pleaded for a million or so for the child who is at present with his mother in this city.

Mrs. Martin was Miss Isabella J. Bidwell, of Elmira. She married the eldest son of George W. Hoffman, of that city, and after his death moved to California, where she married John Martin, who died in 1892. John Martin and his brother, Henry, both wooed the dashing widow and John won her. Following is Mrs. Martin's own brief account of the famous will case:

POISON HINTS FALSE.

"In July, 1904, I got into litigation over the will of my late husband's brother. Henry left a third of his estate to my son, and an attempt was made to break the will on the ground that it was a forgery. Prior to that time my husband had died, and one year after there were hints that I had poisoned him. His body was exhumed, and I was exonerated. The will contest went against me, and my boy was cheated out of his rights."

At the trial, Mrs. Martin appeared in a new gown each day. On one occasion she heaved a book at the principal attorney against her. Frequently she broke in on the arguments with bits of scandal about the private lives of opposing counsel.

Mrs. Martin was arrested in this city on February 6, 1897, and charged by E. J. Henley, an actor, with threatening his life. Mrs. Martin was placed in $300 bonds to keep the peace.

During THE TRIBUNE arm contest a mysterious photograph was received and published. The photograph is reproduced on this page today.

Accompanying the photograph when received at THE TRIBUNE office was an unsigned letter to the effect that should the arms shown in the photograph be judged the most shapely in Alameda county the rest of the photograph would be dispatched to the office of THE TRIBUNE, also the identification of the original.

When the above picture (or half picture) was produced on this page readers were invited to guess the identity of the young lady. Many guesses were made, and all of these have been filed away.

It was not until recently that THE TRIBUNE was able to identify the mysterious photograph.

Do you know the original? On this page tomorrow THE TRIBUNE will reproduce the complete photograph.

Perhaps you can then guess the young lady's name? On the day following will be shown on this page a new view of the "mysterious lady of the broken photo," and at the same time her name and address will be made public.

Here's a hint: She's an Oakland girl and doesn't live in East Oakland.

IMPERIAL, Neb., June 28.—Willis P. Morgan, a Case county rancher, 72 years old, has just been married, according to advices received here from Champion, to Miss Luella A. Charlton, the pretty 22-year-old stepdaughter of his own son, Marcus M. Morgan.

Morgan fell in love with and began to pay court to Miss Charlton several months ago, when she went to his home to visit his two daughters, girls of about her own age.

Despite the great disparity in their ages and the fact that she had many young suitors, Miss Charlton encouraged Morgan's suit, and when a few weeks ago he proposed marriage to her she promptly accepted him.

Bread-and-Butter Beauty.

About fifteen years ago women woke up to the epicurean delights of the hors-d'oeuvre and the savoury, and ever since there has been a clamor for beauty doctors and face masseuses.

The "bread-and-butter-miss" sung by Byron had a complexion of milk and roses, but the modern young lady, who starts her dinner with olives and anchovies, and ends the evening with welsh rabbit at supper, has to take to artificial "make-up."

The destruction of a girl's complexion is largely due to these "restaurant" foods, for a woman cannot eat the strong diet of a man, and drink his strong drinks, without paying the penalty.

ARREST FAIR BRIDE-TO-BE ON EVE OE HER WEDDING

Mother Sends Policeman to Preqent Nuptiafs, and Daughter Promises to Forget Sweetheart.

PHILADELPHIA, June 28.—The romance of Jeannette Madeline Campiche ended in the Central Police Court yesterday morning when she promised Magistrate Scott that she would not leave home again without the consent of her mother and that she will banish from her mind all thoughts of the man she was to have married last Saturday.

Jeannette is 18 years old and pretty. It is her beauty which has made her mother, Madame Campicho, of 1613 North street, guard her closely from temptation. Weary of the surveillance, she left her home two months ago and went to Brooklyn, where she lived in a boarding house and worked in a department store.

In the same house lived Harry Harcourt, son of the owner of the Kansas City Opera House, who was also living away from all his friends. A mutual loneliness brought the pair together. They were to be married last Saturday, and with her heart full of happiness, Jeannette wrote to her mother, telling of her plans and asking forgiveness.

Instead of an answer extending maternal forgiveness and a blessing there came a policeman in response to a telegram sent by Mrs. Campiche to the chief of police, in which she asked that her daughter be arrested as a wayward girl. Harcourt engaged an attorney to defend his sweetheart, and tried to have her released on bail so they could be married, but the alderman held her to await her mother.

Special Policeman James Sullivan went after the girl and induced her to return with him to Philadelphia without demanding requisition. She had a hearing yesterday morning, and shed many tears while her mother was telling her story. Madame Campicho says Jeanette was enticed away from home about a year ago and remained a week. The young man who went with her was arrested on the charge of enticing a minor.

When he had heard the mother's story Magistrate Scott gave Jeanette some good advice and then got her promise to be good.

SOCIETY: GOSSIP ABOUT SMART SET

The Countess Gyula de Festebics of New York, in the center, leaving the west side court with her daughter at her side. They are talking to a friend. The countess had implored the count to let see her 9-year-old son, whom she "hadn't kissed in eight months."

The marriage of Miss Alice Laws and William R. Birt took place Wednesday at noon at the home of the bride in Auburn. The ceremony was performed by Dr. Chas. Van Orden in the presence of a small company of relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Birt will spend their honeymoon at Lake Tahoe and will probably reside in Berkeley.

Mrs. Birt is a sister of Mrs. Dan Belden and has many friends in society about the bay. The groom has large business interests in the Sacramento valley.

BROWN-RODDER.

Miss Marguerite Wallace Brown became the bride of John Christian Rodder last evening at a pretty ceremony performed at the home of the bride's parents on Versailles avenue, Alameda. The Rev. Frank Brush was the officiating clergyman. The parlors of the home were decorated with a profusion of greens with pink hydrangias and sweet peas of the same shade. The marriage vows were exchanged beneath a canopy of marguerites and foliage prettily combined. Preceding the bridal party were four little cousins of the bride, Enid, Merle, Marjorie and Grey Boyce, who acted as ribbon bearers. The bridesmaids, Miss Charlotte Brush and Miss Ella Moffitt, entered next. They were gowned alike in pink mousseline made over pink silk slips. The yokes were made of cream lace, and bands of messaline trimmed the gowns. Enchantress carnations, arranged in a shower with pink tulle and ferns were carried by the bridesmaids. Miss Beulah Potts, as maid of honor, preceded the bride, who entered with her father. Pink mousseline, cut en princess with lace inset in the skirt and in the yoke made the gown worn by Miss Potts. Her bouquet was of Cecil Breuner roses.

Ralph Brown, the bride's brother, attended the bridegroom.

The bride was beautiful in her gown of satin messaline of ivory white. The princess model was followed in fashioning the gown, elaborately trimmed with rare old duchess lace. Orange blossoms held the tulle veil in place. Lilies of the valley in a shower made the bridal bouquet, and the only ornament worn was a rare gold bracelet, set with sapphires, Mr. Rodder's gift to the bride.

Indian baskets filled with ferns and pink sweet peas formed the decoration for the dining-room, as well as for the

THE ENGAGEMENT RING

Instead of the once-inevitable diamond solitaire, the engaged girl has won a pretty independence in the matter of what the token of her betrothal shall be.

Birthstones are wonderfully popular for engagement rings, and the gold "Mizpah" bracelets (the kind that fasten on "for keeps" and have to be ignominiously filed off if the engagement is broken) are about equally popular, the bracelets probably best liked of all tokens for those engagements which must necessarily be a matter of years, and are consequently not announced at once.

Perhaps the prettiest of all betrothal gifts, though, was a ring—not a usual ring, by any odds, but a circlet of diamonds, the stone set between two mere rims of gold.

And one girl, who was in business, hit upon a clever way of wearing a ring without letting it tell the tale it usually does. The only man had a replica of his seal ring made for her to wear on her little finger.

BALLAD OF OUR COOKS

Selena's specialty was brooms
  And scrubbing and adjusting.
Daily she cycloned through the rooms
  Industriously dusting.
  And milk staid sweet—sic semper;
We really loved Selena, but
  We couldn't stand her temper.

Carlotta's voice was soft and low—
  A most pacific creature;
A pious goodness seemed to show
  Upon her every feature.
And clever, too; we never had
  To shout to make her see things;
It's cruel to be obliged to add
  She stole our silver tea-things.

Jemima—bless her!—loudly scorned
  The least prevarications;
Her lightest moments were adorned
  With biblical quotations.
We liked Jemima—I'll be bound
  I sometimes think we would have Kept her forever. But we found
  She drank more than she should have.

Katrina flirted all day long;
  Sabina fed her cousins;
Elizabeth was never strong
  (But dances!—by the dozens).
Now Mary rules authoritatively our culinary;
And we—we patiently await
  A fresh surprise from Mary.

FEMININE ELBOWS

The "Nice Boy" offers a few suggestions on the subject of Feminine elbows:

The gifted author of the "Aeneid" starts off that immortal work with the remark: "I sing of arms and the man," etc. And a good many small boys have been known in recent times to express a soul-felt wish that his powers of singing had not received so much encouragement. In any case, however, if Virgil had lived in the twentieth century it seems fairly safe to conjecture that he would have selected as his theme: "Arms and the Woman;" for the feminine arm plays a more prominent part just now than ever before in the history of the world.

In the dear old nursery days the order was frequently given, with no little asperity, by the observant nurse to "Miss Hethel" to take her elbows off the table. But if the nurse of today could take a glance at one of the most fashionable London restaurants at luncheon or dinner-time she would be astonished to see ladies of the very highest position in society not merely sitting with their elbows on the table, but contriving to look remarkably graceful while doing it.

Like the question as to which came first—the hen or the egg—it is a little difficult to say with absolute certainty whether the prolonged reign of the short sleeve is responsible for the cult of the elbow or whether the elbow is responsible for the short sleeve. More probably the former is nearer the truth; and the persistence of the short sleeve fashion is certainly a thing to be marvelled at, for the average girl who appears in short sleeves and bare arms in the daytime seems to find it extraordinarily hard not to suggest a laundress' assistant who is taking a day off.

DAUGHTERS OF EVE

(With apologies to Rudyard Kipling.)

  In every age there are always some.
With a tranquil heart and a soul like Mary's,
  Who take things quietly as they come.
They sit at ease, and are quite content
  To leave the strenuous life to man;
And hold that a woman was never meant

But some there are who favor her sister—
  Practical Martha—the girls who feel
That unless their hands are beginning to blister
  They're showing a pitiful lack of zeal.
They of course wear "sensible" clothes,
  Clumsy and thick, with a manly air—
The sort of thing that the other loathes,

  To scale some perilous Alpine peak;
It is their craze to indulge in hockey
  In a garb suggesting a Barnum's freak;
It is their craze to wear boots that frighten
  The bashful beetle, in chill dismay,
While Mary's daughters are trying to brighten
  The world with a chic toilette display.

They do not think that a man adores them
  For feebly aping his manly tricks;
They do not blink the fact that it bores them
  When women dabble in politics;
They do not deem it a fitting hobby
  For women to drink and to swear and bet;
They do not think that the shins of the Bobby

So Mary's daughters smile and are blessed;
  They know that men, as a rule, prefer
The womanly girl who is prettily dressed
  In billowy chiffon and lace and fur,
Daintily chaussee and smartly gloved—
  But the Martha-type, as a rule, he shuns;
For she's not the kind that will ever be loved
  By the greater number of Adam's sons.

Following the supper Mr. Rodder and his bride left on their honeymoon. They will make their home in Calaveras county, where Rodder is superintendent of one of the largest mines. Mrs. Rodder is the daughter of Mr and Mrs. John Wallace Brown, and for many years has made her home in Alameda. She is a graduate of the University of California, where she was prominently known in undergraduate and social life. She has been extensively feted during her engaged days, and the popularity of the couple was attested by the splendid display of costly and beautiful wedding gifts.

AUTO DEALERS WILL ASK FOR 'FAIRER' TREATMENT

Motorists Criticize Rules Governing Them While Crossing Bay on Southern Pacific Ferries.

The officers of the Automobile Dealers' Association will discuss ways and means of obtaining fairer treatment for the motoring public of San Francisco and Oakland in the matter of transferring automobiles on the ferry boats.

Nearly every owner of a motor car, and most of the agents are strong in their criticism of the Southern Pacific rules, and have promised the members of the dealers' association their support in their work. It is suggested that the members of the trade discontinue their shipments of freight via the Southern Pacific unless accorded better privileges on the local boats.

Cuyler Lee, one of the prominent dealers on automobile row, in discussing the stringent rules in force on the boats, said: "It is certainly a very arbitrary ruling allowing only four motor cars on each boat.

"I do not see any harm in carrying more than that number. There is certainly no more danger in eight than there is in four. They could run four, or ever more cars on the front end of the boat, just as well as they can keep four on the rear end. And then, with eight cars on board there would not have to be any on the inside of the boat."

MOTORIST COMPLAINS.

"The idea of them allowing only four automobiles on each boat is the most uncalled for, unnecessary ruling. I ever heard of," said F. W. Marston, the well-known motorist, and prominent member of the Automobile club of California.

"I have made complaints to the railroad officials, and they have promised to look into the matter, but that is as far as they have gone. They should use a little horse sense and give the automobile owners of this city some consideration. There are certainly enough owners of cars who use the boats to warrant fair treatment from the railroad. As it is, the motorists pay high prices for their cars on the boats, and then have to wait for hours before being allowed to cross. I have waited at the Oakland mole one and two hours many a time before getting my car on the boat. Eight cars on each boat would be considered by the motorists as a fair concession, and this number would not greatly inconvenience the passengers on the boats.

"I am sure all owners of cars and members of the automobile club who now use the ferryboats for their cars will join in any movement which the Automobile Dealers' Association may start to secure better treatment on the ferries."

Gus Boyer, agent for the Royal Tourist and Franklin automobiles, was also very emphatic in his criticism of the present ruling.

"They could carry double the number they do now with absolutely the same amount of safety to the public," he said.

HEALTH BOARD ECONOMIZING

Salaries of Professionals Cut Down and Vacancies Are Created.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 28.—Yesterday the local board of health had a fit of economy, during which it abolished a number of positions and reduced the salaries of professional employes. The union wage of non-professional employes was not disturbed.

Dr. W. E. Conan, a brother of Superior Judge Conlan, who, for eleven years past has been the resident physician at the Almshouse, was, at his own request, dropped from the pay roll.

City Chemist H. D. Gibbs also resigned his $200 a month position to accept a more lucrative one in the employ of the Federal government as food expert in Manila, P. I.

The salaries of the two chaplains at the City and County hospital were abolished.

The places of the following were also declared vacant. Assistant Bacteriologist E. G. Kendall, Plumbing Inspector J. McFadden, Factory Inspector J. W. Graham, Stable Inspector J. D. Powers, Disinfector T. Kane, Food Inspector D. Reardon, Dairy Inspector M. J. Brady, Assistant Superintendent Curry of the Almshouse, Assistant Commissary John Newell and Chief Orderly T. Riordan.

The salaries of the assistant emergency surgeons were cut from $125 to $100 a month, plumbing inspectors from $140 to $130, nurses, $70 to $60, ambulance drivers, $90 to $80, stewards, $90 to $75.

These changes effect a saving of about $600 per month in the department's expenses.

MURDERS WIFE; KILLS HIMSELF

Slayer Stulz Also Makes an Attempt to Kill Mother-in-Law.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 28.—William Stulz, a butcher, failing last evening to effect a reconciliation with his wife from whom he had been separated, shot his wife dead at the home of her parents at 374A Dolores street; then turned his gun loose on his mother-in-law, Mrs. Emma Bechtel, badly wounding her, and closed the tragedy by blowing out his own brains.

The Stulzes and Bechtels formerly lived together, but when Stulz wanted his wife to leave her parents and set up housekeeping for themselves, she refused to leave them, so he left without her. He did not see her for the intervening two months, though she wrote several letters to him, and he called on her parents frequently in his efforts to bring about a reconciliation.

Mrs. Stulz had been out of the hospital only two weeks, where she had undergone an operation, when her husband called last evening to get some clothing he had left with her. Stulz was in the bedroom with his wife, sorting the clothes, while Mrs. Bechtel and her daughters, Emma and Ernestine, were in the kitchen at the rear preparing supper. They had been there only a few minutes when they were startled by two shots in quick succession.

Mrs. Bechtel rushed to the front of the house, and at the door of the room saw her daughter on the floor, with a bullet wound in each breast and the smoking revolver in the hand of the husband. Stulz immediately fired at Mrs. Bechtel, the second shot striking her in the mouth and going out through her left cheek, carrying away all the teeth from that side of the jaw. Then standing between the two women whom he had shot, the murderer put the gun to his left temple and blew out his brains with the last shot.

HACKMEN WILL ARRANGE FEES

According to statements of one of the leading hackmen of this city, made to the ordinance and judiciary committee of the City Council last night this city is far behind many other cities in the number of street hacks. There are now in operation here nine day hacks and six night hacks. In Los Angeles and San Francisco hacks are numbered in the hundreds. The figures are also an evidence of the popularity of the automobiles and the backsliding of hacks.

The committee last night considered briefly a proposed ordinance for the regulating of fees to be paid for hack hire. The hackmen were requested to prepare a schedule of uniform rates, to be considered at a later date.

WASH SUITS FOR THE FOURTH!

A Sale that Borders on the Sensational

It's the steady aim of the "Always Busy Store" to be on hand with unusual offerings when you can reap the most benefit from them.

At $4.95 Wash Suits Worth $7.50

We doubt if you could equal them for $7.50 elsewhere. Included are pretty chambray shirt waist suits, some with lace yoke, all lace trimmed, chiefly with skirts side tucked. Then there are jumper suits, in blue and white, pink and white, and black and white and many other good color combinations.

It won't pay you to think of making Fourth of July dresses at home with suits such as these at $4.95. The materials and trimmings alone would cost you nearly that amount, to say nothing of the time and labor taken up in their making.

At $9.90 Poplin Etons Worth $17.50

Words can't begin to give you an idea of the attractiveness of these suits, and what wonderful value they are at $9.90. You must see them on the third floor.

They come in blue, pink, and white. The coats embroidered with braid in elaborate designs. These are the suits we are going to sell tomorrow at $9.90.

Our Suit Department filled with the latest ideas in wash dresses, handsome styles in linen, and lawn, organdie, and ducks, We invite your inspection.

RUSSIA GUARDS AGAINST AMERICAN AGITATORS

TIFLIS, June 28.—On account of the anarchical conditions of Bitlis, Turkish Armenia, where much of the fighting between Mussulmans and Armenians occurred, the Russian troops upon the Turkish frontier have been heavily strengthened in order to prevent the transmigration of Armenians and a spread of the agitation to Russian territory, and also for the moral effect of the movement of the Turkish government. A repetition of Armenian massacres in 1896, when thousands of Armenian refugees crossed the frontier and settled in Southern Caucasus, is feared. The Russian government first encouraged the movement as a valuable industrial and civilizing factor, but later it felt obliged to prohibit immigration, claiming that the rapid occupation of Tartar lands was responsible for the Armenian-Tartar racial warfare, which has since periodically drenched Southern Caucasus with blood.

HEESEMAN'S 30--Day Opportunity Sale

Opens Tomorrow, Saturday, 8:00 a. m.

THIS extraordinary sale, full of money-saving opportunities, is the direct result of the unusual circumstances through which the Bay Cities have passed during the past year. The unhappy condition of affairs in San Francisco has naturally raised Oakland to greater importance in the estimation of manufacturers and wholesalers, and they now vie with each other in special efforts to secure our increased trade. Oakland's population has doubled within a year, and our buyers, not being superhuman, have, in their efforts to supply the tens of thousands of new residents, over-bought in many lines. The past year has been one of phenomenal business, naturally leaving an unprecedented number of broken stocks in our several departments. The tightness of the money market has given the house of Heeseman, which always buys for spot cash, a material advantage over the merchant who requires time to meet his bills. All these things figure largely in the great Thirty-Day Opportunity Sale which we inaugurate tomorrow.

It is a well-established fact that the Heeseman store has a fair and reasonable standard of pricing; prices are never raised for the purpose of creating a fictitious reduction, consequently a Heeseman reduction is a genuine slash in prices, not merely in figures. Since our last July sale two years ago we have added a big juvenile department---a complete store with its own new frontage. In this juvenile store will be found many of the biggest bargains in the house---more overstocked lines, consequently more radical reductions. Every garment and every article offered during this sale is staple, fresh and seasonable---not one pennyworth has been specially bought for this July event. It will pay you---pay you in good hard coin---to watch our advertisements and our window displays during the month of July.

ATTACKS WITNESS WHO DENIED CONFESSION

TESTIMONY CONFLICTING

Declares H. Orchard Threatened Life of Steunenberg.

BOISE, Idaho, June 28. — William Easterly who was one of the leaders of the great Cripple Creek strike and whom Harry Orchard connects with some of the violence in Cripple Creek, was recalled to the stand in the Steunenberg trial this morning and continued his testimony in behalf of William D Haywood. Easterly directly denied Orchard's testimony that reflects upon him and swore that in the fall of 1903 he heard Orchard threaten to kill Steunenberg.

On cross examination the State strongly attacked Easterly for remaining silent when he knew Orchard was Thomas Hogan had killed Steunenberg and not speaking until Orchard made a confession implicating the Western Federation of Miners.

CALLS DR. McGEE.

Immediately after court convened this morning the prosecution recalled to the stand Dr. I. L. McGee of Wallace, Idaho, a witness for the defense, whose cross-examination had been deferred. Dr. McGee testified that he saw Harry Orchard in the Couer D'Alenes in 1904. On one occasion he observed Orchard in company with a man named Cunningham. Orchard claims to have given the Peabody bomb to a man.

"Was Cunningham a stout man?" asked Mr. Hawley of the State.

"We did not get that far," replied the witness.

"Did he have a moutache?"

"I don't know, but he had a gun."

McGee said he had a "six-shooter." At Victor he went to the union hall, where several hundred members of the Western Federation of Miners were gathered.

The streets were filled with all sorts of people, some soldiers, some detectives and some mine owners' officials.

He declared that the soldiers in passing federation men would say:

"There's one that ought to be hanged."

He was excused and B. L. Easterly was called, and said that C. C. Hamlin, secretary of the Mine Owners' Association, made a speech in the streets which he referred to the Independence depot explosion and said that fifty or more of the leaders ought to be hanged and the rest driven out of the district. Then a shot was fired and, as Easterly put it, "the fireworks began."

WAS ARMED.

"You were armed," repeated Darrow.

"Yes, sir."

"What did you do?"

"I did like many of the others; I was very badly excited."

"Where did you go?"

"When the firing was over, I went up Third avenue and stayed there until I saw the militia maneuvering around and apparently surrounding the union hall. Then they began shooting at the hall, and I went on up the hill toward home. On my way, I stopped at Steve Adams' house and told him what I had heard and seen."

"What did you tell him as to leaving the country?"

"I told him of the threats I had heard against him, and told him he had better protect himself.

"When I got home I armed myself with a Winchester repeating shotgun and then went to Goldfield, Colo., where there was to be a meeting of union men. I met several of the boys on the way, and they were also armed. We were going to protect ourselves.

"While we were at Goldfield we saw the militia and Citizens' Alliance people and their sympathizers, all armed, going about and taking into custody all the union miners they could find.

FIRED SHOTS.

Easterly said there were about twenty of twenty-five union men in the hall where the meeting was being held at Goldfield. When the militia started in their direction the miners left the hall and started up the hills. As they went shots were fired at them. The miners took refuge in some prospect holes but were driven further up and over the hills. Easterly said that one bullet struck within a foot of him and a splinter of rock struck him over the eye.

"Did you fire back at the soldiers?" asked Mr. Darrow.

"I didn't. I had a shotgun and it would not reach that far."

"That was the only reason, was it?"

"Yes, sir."

Easterly detailed his movements after crossing the hills saying that he reached Denver in a few days.

There he saw Haywood, Moyer and Pettibone. Easterly changed his name to "Bill Brown."

The witness said he went from place to place, working where he could until 1905 when he came once more back to Denver. On his way to Pueblo he met Orchard and Vaughan. Orchard told him he had been selling insurance and had been making lots of money. Leaving Colorado in 1905 Easterly came to Silver City, Idaho.

He had seen Orchard again in Denver but the man had never spoken at any time of any act of violence. The witness then proceeded: In November after I arrived at Silver City, L. J. Simpkins came there at the invitation of our local to organize the miners in South Idaho.

KEPT NO LETTERS.

Simpkins told me that Harry Orchard or Tom Hogan was in Caldwell, selling insurance and mining stocks and that he seemed to be doing well. After that I got a letter from Orchard—"

"Did you keep that letter."

"No, sir."

Orchard referred to our talk in Pueblo and said that he was selling life insurance in Caldwell that he intended to sell hail and storm insurance. He asked me to come over and help him. I replied to this and said I was doing too well and declined to go.

Easterly said he got a second letter which he made the same reply to, and then a telephone message from Hogan.

"He had received my letter, but wanted to know if I could not get a big elk and come over to see him. for a little while. I said I was well satisfied where I was."

"Did Orchard or Hogan say anything about his intention to kill Governor Steunenberg?"

"No, sir."

OVERHEARD ORCHARD.

Easterly said that in Colorado he once heard Orchard declare that he had lost his interest in a valuable mine through Steuenberg and would get him."

Senator Borah here took up the cross examination of the witness. Easterly said he was in Colorado during the Steunenberg troubles in the Couer D'Alenes and as a member of the union he contributed to the support of the Idaho miners. He also felt with others that Governor Steunenberg was trying to break up the union. Orchard's threat against the governor after so many years impressed him, Easterly said, but he did not really know if the man intended to carry it out.

"I told him he was a vindictive sort of a man to carry a grudge so long," declared the witness. He only heard Orchard had made the threat.

"You knew Orchard pretty well," suggested Senator Borah.

"Pretty well."

"And Simpkins seemed to know him?"

"What do you know about a telegram received at Silver City to take care of Harry Orchard?"

"It was about a week later that Harry Hanlon, our secretary, told me he had received a telegram."

Easterly said he had up to this time told everything he had heard Orchard make against Governor Steunenberg.

KNEW INTENTIONS.

"And yet you knew that for two months prior to the killing that Orchard was lurking around Caldwell and that he had the intention to kill the governor?"

"I knew that he had made the threat."

"After the governor's death did you tell anybody?"

"I told Mr. Nugent."

"But this was after Mr. Nugent had been employed by the defense in this case and after Orchard had confessed?"

"Yes, sir."

"You never at any time told an officer of the State of Idaho?"

"No, sir."

"You kept it entirely in your own breast?"

"I had no occasion to repeat it."

"Not until you heard Orchard had turned against the Western Federation of Miners?"

"Not until he made the statement he did."

"Not until he implicated the leaders of the Western Federation of Miners?"

"And implicated himself," replied the witness.

"Now, why didn't you tell anybody?"

"It was none of my business. I am not an informer along those lines."

"Oh, I see," said Senator Borah, "but you became an informer after you heard Orchard had turned informer against the Western Federation of Miners?"

"I didn't say anything about it until he did what he did."

"And if Orchard had not turned against the Western Federation of Miners you never would have said anything?"

"If I had been asked I would."

CHANGES TACTICS.

Senator Borah suddenly changed the line of his cross-examination and took the witness back to Cripple Creek. He asked as to the attacks on "Old Man Stewart" and the justice of the peace. Easterly said he lived about a quarter of a mile from the Independence depot; Adams about a mile away and Orchard out an eighth of a mile.

"When you left your house the day after the Independence depot explosion, did you leave an infernal machine under the floor?"

"No, sir."

"A shot gun?"

"No, sir; I left two rifles."

"Let's see; you kept in your house two rifles, a shotgun, a six-shooter and an infernal machine?"

"No, sir."

"What did you keep?"

"I kept a shotgun, two rifles and a six-shooter."

CLOSES EXAMINATION.

Senator Borah quickly brought the cross-examination to a close. On the redirect examination M. Darrow asked about Moyer's visit to Silver City in 1905. Easterly said he saw him in the bunk-house, in the presence of twenty or thirty other men.

The threats made by Orchard in 1903 were then taken up, and Mr. Darrow asked when the fact that Orchard had made these threats came back to his memory.

Easterly said he remembered them immediately after Orchard was arrested.

"And you at once went to the attorney for the federation and reported it to him?"

"Yes, sir."

Easterly said the crime was attributed to the Western Federation of Miners by some of the papers long before Orchard confessed.

CHANGES DATES.

On recross-examination Easterly said it was in January, 1906, and not February, that he first told Nugent about the Orchard threats. He was asked if he desired to modify his statement that he had not told the lawyer until after Orchard's confession, but declared he did not believe he made that statement.

"You told Mr. Nugent as soon as the matter came to your mind, did you?" quickly put in Mr. Darrow.

"Yes, sir, I did."

Scholz said he was in Cripple Creek in 1903 and 1904. Orchard said a man named Scholz had gone down into the Vindicator mine with him to set off a carload of powder. He was confronted by the man who took the stand today, but said he was not the man. Scholz said today that there was no other Scholz in Cripple Creek until late in 1904, when a man by that name arrived. The witness said he did not know Orchard.

George Breen, who was a railroad man at the time of the explosion at the Independence depot and worked out of Canon City, was called to testify to the bringing of bloodhounds from the penitentiary to Victor on the day of the explosion. He was briefly cross-examined and the State passed the cross-examination.

Recess was taken until 1:30 p. m.

BOISE, Idaho, June 28.—C. A. Collins of Leadville, Colo., a brakeman on the Colorado Midland Railroad, was called to the stand after the noon recess.

BOY ROBBER HAS SMALL CHANCE TO ESCAPE TERM

Percy Pembroke's Appeal Is Declared Very Weak by District Attorney Brown.

According to District Attorney Everett J. Brown, Percy Pembroke, the boy robber, has very little in his favor in the appeal that is being taken to the Appellate Court to get a reverse to the ten years' sentence passed by Superior Judge Melvin a few months ago. The lengthy appeal made by Attorney Lin S. Church was sent over to the higher court today, after a close examination by the District Attorney.

Brown says the transcript on appeal is very weak and is based principally on technical points that are not to any great advantage to young Pembroke.

"It seems to me," said Brown, "that Pembroke has nothing in his favor that will prevent him from serving his term in prison."

IMPLICATED IN MURDER CASE.

After three trials for the murder of Thomas W. Cook, the Fruitvale grocer, who on July 22, 1905, was beaten, robbed and killed by Pembroke, George Blaker and John Schneider, Pembroke was acquitted and his two accomplices sentenced to life terms in the penitentiary. During Pembroke's stay in the county jail on the murder charges, he confessed to assisting James Crowhurst in holding up and robbing Edward Stanley, a barber, on the night of October 8, 1904. Crowhurst pleaded guilty and was sentenced to seven years at San Quentin prison.

ARRESTED AGAIN.

After Pembroke's release on the murder charge, he was arrested for the Stanley robbery. Last February a jury disagreed, Pembroke having proved a half-hearted alibi. On the second trial, District Attorney Brown and his assistant prosecutor, W. H. L. Hynes, brought in a rebuttal that disproved the alibi without any reasonable doubt. The jury were not long in returning with a verdict of guilty, and two weeks later Pembroke was sentenced to ten years at San Quentin. His parents say they will fight the case to the highest courts in the land before they will allow their son to serve his prison sentence. Pending the appeal actions, Pembroke is in the county jail.

BILLS AGAINST CITY MUST BE SIGNED BY TWO MAYORS

Treasurer Refuses to Recognize Signature of Gallagher Unless That of Schmitz Is Also Affixed.

TRIBUNE CORRESPONDENCE.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 28.—Official San Francisco now has two mayors without question. Inasmuch as neither one of them draws a salary it is not so much of a luxury as might appear.

Both City Auditor Horton and the City Treasurer refuse to recognize one mayor, or his signature, without the other. No bills are to be paid without the endorsement of Mayor Schmitz and Acting Mayor Gallagher.

Here arises a complication. Mayor Schmitz has on one occasion, at least, crossed off the name of Acting Mayor Gallagher. Now City Auditor Horton has two gas bills signed by Acting Mayor Gallagher, they amount to $40,000. He will not pay them without Mayor Schmitz' signature, and should he send them to Mayor Schmitz, they may go to back with Gallagher's signature crossed out. In this case he would also be afraid to pay them because District Attorney Langdon has warned him not to do so.

BETWEEN TWO FIRES.

"We are between two fires," said Mr. Horton this morning, "and it is hard to tell just how to steer clear of trouble. So long as both signatures can be obtained on all papers there is no difficulty, but it makes it rather awkward to transact business. As far as I am concerned Mayor Schmitz is still the chief executive of the city, but with a letter from the District Attorney advising me not to accept his signature on any bills, I cannot honor it.

"So far as these regular bills for city expenses which come up from the supervisors signed by Mr. Gallagher are concerned, I shall send them to Mayor Schmitz myself for his signature. I intend to do everything I can to promote the transaction of the city business without interruption, and while it is not my business to settle these questions, I shall avoid taking any chances by asking Mayor Schmitz to sign all the bills."

Mayor Schmitz in one respect has offered to alleviate the situation by not demanding his salary since June 13th, that he was elected. He does not say that if some future time he is not sick for the money due him, but with a letter from the District Attorney advising me not to accept his signature on any bills, I cannot honor it.

HIDES COIN AND GEMS FROM YOSEMITE BANDIT

ALAMEDA, June 28.—A. V. Clark, once a member of the board of city trustees and one of the owners of the large pottery works of Clark & Sons at the west end, was with his wife on the first stage that was held up by the lone bandit in the Yosemite valley Monday. Clark was relieved of $3 by the highwayman. His wife, with a woman's ingenuity, managed to conceal $150 and her jewels.

"Held up by highwayman; $3 taken; managed to hide $150 and jewels; Ed passed the hat; all game. The stage following us was also held up."

The Ed referred to is Edward H. Torpey, who, with his wife, was one of the Clark party. Clark and Torpey are brothers-in-law. The Torpeys were well supplied with funds, but they appeased the get rich quick ambition of the bandit with a contribution of $3. The highwayman did not insist on a larger amount from the Torpeys, as he had pressed Torpey into service at the muzzle of a gun and made him pass around the hat, for which assistance the bandit expressed his thanks.

The Clarks and Torpeys left here last Saturday. Their adventure with the road agent did not in any way alter their plans. On the contrary, it added zest to their trip and they expect to enjoy the remainder of their stay in the valley without having to produce cash a second time for a bandit.

EX-CLERGYMAN SUSPECTED OF POISONING HIS WIFE

LONDON, June 28.—Walter Swineburn Hancock, formerly a clergyman of a fashionable Episcopal Church in Chicago, whom his bishop inhibited on account of scandals with women, is under police surveillance here. He is suspected of having poisoned his wife, who was the widow of Paul Townsend of New York, allegations to that effect having been made from Kensington Corners' court at an inquiry now being held. Mrs. Hancock died on March 23 last, the cause of death being certified as appendicitis.

SON ACCUSES HIM.

Afterward the body was exhumed because of the suspicions of her son. He testified at the inquest, intimating that he thought Hancock poisoned his wife in order to obtain her property. Other witnesses testified that Mrs. Hancock had drawn a will giving everything to her son, but when she tried to sign the document on her death bed she collapsed.

UNDER SURVEILLANCE.

The inquest was continued until July 11. Meantime Hancock has been placed under police surveillance. Hancock's Chicago troubles occurred in 1897. He resided in that city and claimed relationship to Lord Castlemaine. Hancock is the son of a stone mason. He went to America in the early 50s and held several pastorates, including St. John's, Montreal. He married Mrs. Grace Jones while visiting in New York in 1897.

WIFE USES BUTCHER KNIFE TO KILL HER SISTER-IN-LAW

WARRENSBURG, O., June 28.—In a family quarrel last night near Bristle Ridge, a settlement six miles southeast of here, Mrs. Walter Herd killed Mrs. James Herd, her sister-in-law, slashing the latter with a butcher knife. According to the report of the affair, the women with their husbands had been drinking and a quarrel ensued in which the women led the fight.

Mrs. Walter Herd seized a butcher knife and attacked her sister-in-law, cutting her throat in a horrible manner and causing a wound from which she died. The police of Warrenburg was notified this morning and went to the scene of the murder.

PREDICTS A BIG STRIKE OF ALL THE ORE MINERS

DENVER, Colo., June 28.—The long drawn out discussion on the question whether the Western Federation of Miners shall continue to affiliate with the Industrial Workers of the World is trying the nerves of the delegates to the convention. A small sized riot was threatened today when the previous question was called with the object of ending the debate. The previous question requires a two-third vote and was lost by a narrow majority. A motion, however, prevailed to limit the debate to ten minutes for each speaker.

Among the speakers today was Robert Randall of Goldfield, Nevada, who predicted a general strike of all the miners throughout the country when the present contracts expire next April. He referred especially to the coal miners.

GOOD PLACE TO LEARN.

The two sons of a Kansas City physician are going to a farm when the school term ends, though both have been offered positions in the city.

"What are you sending the boys down there to raise hogs for?" asked an inquisitive neighbor.

MANY FRIENDS ATTEND BIER OF HOLLYWOOD

WEST OAKLAND, June 28.—The funeral of the late Andrew Hollywood, who for ten years was Collector of the Port of Oakland, was held from his residence, 1670 Twelfth street, this morning. Many friends paid tribute to his memory by their presence there. There was a large number of veterans of the Civil War present, the members of Porter Post, G. A. R. attending in a body.

A requiem mass was celebrated at St. Patrick's Church. Interment was in St. Mary's Cemetery, Piedmont.

ST. MARY'S CHURCH TO HOLD ANNUAL OUTING ON FOURTH

The annual outing of St. Mary's Church will again be held at Idora Park on the 4th of July. St. Mary's Church, Eighth and Jefferson streets, is the oldest Catholic church on this side of the bay and is fondly called by Catholics of Alameda county the mother church. As the mother church, all Catholics of Oakland are always interested in St. Mary's annual outing, as it gives an opportunity to renew friendships and serves as a general reunion day.

At the last outing over 23,000 people flocked to Idora Park, and judging from the enthusiasm shown by the friends of St. Mary's in their preparations for the coming 4th of July, the outing of this year promises also to be a great success. The various committees in charge of the affair are working hard to arrange for the pleasure of their guests at Idora on that day.

The Ladies' Aid Society, under the leadership of Miss Kate Maher, will have charge of the refreshment table and promise to give their patrons an excellent luncheon at very moderate rates. Mrs. M. Jones, assisted by the ladies of the rosary booth, will serve lemonade and soft drinks, while the members of the Young Ladies' Sodality, guided by Miss J. Clarke, will look after the tea garden. Company N, League of the Cross Cadets, will have charge of the dance pavilion, which will be open in the afternoon and evening. The Tivoli opera company, with its famous cast of talent, will give an afternoon and evening performance of the popular comic opera, "The Highwayman."

FIREWORKS.

An interesting program has been prepared to add to the pleasures and excitement of the skating rink. At night the outing will close with the greatest display of fireworks ever witnessed in Oakland. James Filling, the genial manager of Idora Park, has been making preparations for the display for many weeks, and he promises that Oaklanders who attend on that evening will have a great surprise awaiting them. Hundreds of people from San Francisco always attend St. Mary's outing, as the rector, Rev. E. P. Dempsey, and his assistant, Rev. J. Grant, labored for many years in the important churches of that city. The usual popular prices for admission to the park and to all the concessions will prevail on that day.

HORSE DROPS IN THE STREET

Italian Fish Dealer is Accused of Cruelty to Animals by Officer.

BERKELEY, June 28.—What is said to be one of the most distressing cases of cruelty to animals was reported to the police this morning by Policeman Leonard when he arrested and brought to headquarters an Italian named Narlesso Lucchesi, a fish dealer, who is moving to Berkeley from Oakland. The fellow is accused of having driven the horse until it was so completely exhausted that it fell twice on the way from Ninth and Clay streets, Oakland, to the corner of Shattuck avenue and Blake street.

Lucchesi's wagon was loaded down, says Leonard, until the horse could scarcely drag it along, yet the Italian made the distance between the two cities in about forty minutes. The animal was covered with perspiration, was gasping for breath, and dropped in its tracks when stopped at the Free Market. Policeman Leonard saw the horse as it dropped, and placed Lucchesi under arrest, and after telling the story at headquarters Lucchesi was released on $25 bail.

Lucchesi acknowledged that his horse fell once while en route between Oakland and Berkeley, but said there was nothing the matter with it, outside of a lame hip.

TRAMPS WATCH BOOZECAR BURN

PORTLAND, Or., June 28.—For about six hours yesterday a thirsty, hungry-eyed crowd of hoboes hung about a flaming car of whisky in the yard of the Northern Pacific Terminal Company. The car contained sixty-five barrels, or about 262,000 drinks, of firewater, consigned to a local wholesale firm, all of which was destroyed.

As soon as the fire was discovered vagrants began collecting and contemplated joyous, carousing times that were dashed to the ground by the burning of the spirits. Streams of water were turned on the car, but the flames were only hotter as they consumed the boiling liquor.

Although the shipment was valued at $8450, a saloonkeeper figured that the whisky would be worth about $40,000 sold over the bar. The flames started from sparks from the pipe of a tramp who entered the car to sleep.

BIDS OPENED FOR SUPPLIES

Board of Supervisors Hold Brief Executive Sessions—Awards Next Monday.

The Board of Supervisors today met and opened bids for furnishing various supplies to the county for the ensuing year. The bids were granted under eleven schedules, namely, one and two, coal and fuel; three, fruit and vegetables; four, meats; five fish; six, stationery; seven, drugs, eight, dry goods, clothing, etc.; nine and ten, groceries; eleven, hay and grain.

Bids were received from John C. Rohan, James P. Taylor, Joseph Herrscher, S. Angel, Louis Bruzzone, Fred Becker, Young Bros., Joseph Merani & Co., Geo. C. Borneman Co., J. B. The bids were referred to the committee of the whole which then held a brief executive session. Report of its findings and the awards of contracts will be made next Monday. Meanwhile the county expert is figuring on the bids to ascertain which are the lowest bidders.

MRS. SAGE PAYS $11,000 TAXES

NEW YORK, June 28.—Notwithstanding the large increase in the general fund this year and an unusual advance in the assessed value of special franchises by the State Tax Board, there will be a slight increase in the tax rate in New York City this year over 1906.

The tax rate in New York county last year was $1.4789 on each $100. This year experts in the finance department estimate that it will be about $1.479 on each $100.

It was learned today that the assessed value of real estate in the city this year will be about $6,223,487,245.

It is estimated that taxes will be collected on $550,000,000 of personal property.

Mrs. Russell Sage will be the largest taxpayer in the city this year, as she has been assessed upon $7,558,000. Of this, $5,000,000 is against personal property controlled by her, $2,258,000 against the estate of Russell Sage and $300,000 against her residence. She will pay the city about $11,000 in taxes.

Andrew Carnegie, who is second on the list, will pay a tax of about $10,700 on his total assessment of $7,300,000, of which $5,000,000 is assessed against personal property and $2,300,000 against his Fifth avenue mansion.

John D. Rockefeller will pay about $6000 on his assessment of $3,500,000, with Charles M. Schwab and W. A. Clarke paying about the same amounts on assessments of $2,775,000 and $2,500,000, respectively.

PARENTS CAN FIND NO TRACE OF MISSING GIRL

No trace of the whereabouts of Miss Ethel Johnson, the 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Johnson of 1328 Filbert street, has been found as yet by the police nor her parents. John Massie, whom the father of the girl accuses of enticing his daughter away from her home and keeping her in some place by force, still languishes in the city jail in lieu of $2000 bonds or $1000 bail. Detectives of the local department have visited all the lodging-houses in this city in an effort to find Miss Johnson, but no one seems to know where she is.

Massie stoutly denies any knowledge of the young girl's whereabouts and declares that he has not seen her since the day she left home, a week ago Thursday. He admits having courted Miss Johnson despite the wishes of her parents, and declares that as soon as she is of age and he obtains a divorce that he will marry her.

FATHER ACCUSES MASSIE.

Johnson, father of the young woman, who has an office adjoining that of Massie, at 232 San Pablo avenue, asserts that he is confident that the defendant knows where his daughter is, because prior to her leaving home she was almost beyond the control of her parents, so infatuated was she with the erstwhile actor. Johnson is making an effort to have Massie's bonds increased so that he will be kept in jail.

Miss Johnson is of the blonde type and prepossessing in appearance. She was employed in her father's office and had an opportunity to see Massie often, as he has a real estate office next that of her father's.

Massie appeared in Police Judge Samuel's court this morning and had his arraignment on the charge of child stealing continued until tomorrow morning.

WAFFLE WAGON IS BURNT UP

Tamales, Enchiladas, Hamburger Sandwiches and Eggs Disappear in Smoke.

Hamburger sandwiches, scrambled eggs and all the menu of a waffle wagon went up in smoke this morning shortly after 11 o'clock at the corner of Fifth street and Broadway, when a gasoline stove on Tom Kruhcauhi's sandwich wagon exploded and nearly set fire to the houses and buildings along the street. Had it not been for the prompt work of Hoseman Sam "Sherlock" Gluck, of Chemical No. 1, the entire tenderloin across from the courthouse might have been wiped out by the flames. Gluck grabbed the little handle of the wagon and with a few other men hauled it to the middle of the street.

The flaming wagon stood in the street with hamburger sizzling in red hot flames and the odor of onions filling the air, when Chemical No. 1 rushed up and Gluck with a stream of the extinguisher put out the fire and wrecked the wagon.

The wagon was in charge of Peter Cornelius when the fire broke out. He was lighting a gasoline stove when it exploded and he barely had a chance to escape with his life. The loss was nominal.

WORK IS BEGPN ON S. P. SIERRA TUNNEL

RENO, June 28.—Engineers of the Southern Pacific Company have established a permanent camp near Donner Lake to begin work on the Sierra tunnel. A corps of surveyors has begun making estimates on the length of the tunnel and a report received here is that the engineering department is getting ready to order machinery for the work. The Sierra tunnel is to lower the grade over the summit west of Reno. Instead of making the high climb along the ridge over Donner Lake the new line will circle the lake and run under the mountain.

IS HALE AND HEARTY AT 91

Relatives and Friends Attending Birthday Anniversary of Pioneer Woman.

BERKELEY, June 28.—Hale and hearty, enjoying the best of health, Mrs. Esther J. Gushee is today celebrating her ninety-first birthday anniversary at the home of her daughter, Mrs. G. A. Eston, 2234 Atherton street. Friends are calling and offering congratulations; relatives are chatting with her of the days gone by; grandchildren, of whom there are five, together with five great grandchildren, have brought beautiful birthday gifts.

Mrs. Gushee is the widow of the late Horace Gushee, a pioneer in California, having come here in 1849, and was followed by his wife in 1854. He was a business man in San Francisco and Santa Cruz many years.

Mrs. Gushee was born in Chatham, N. H., June 28, 1816. She walks out every day and her health is such that prospects are she will be spared many years. Immediate friends of the family and her relatives are being entertained this afternoon at a birthday luncheon.

A CONCESSION.

"But I do love you," he protested; "why, I'd die for you."

"But," she pouted, "I'm a brunette, and I heard you say you preferred blondes."

"Still, if you're willing to die for me, I suppose I ought to be willing to bleach for you."—Philadelphia Press.

MISS H. A. FARR TO BE A BRIDE

The engagement is announced today of Miss Helen Adella Farr, daughter of Frederick Howard Farr and granddaughter of Mrs. J. S. Emery of Emeryville, to John Woolsey Shaw, the son of H. R. Shaw of Warm Springs.

The wedding will take place early in July at the home of the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Emery on San Pablo avenue, where the bride's mother was married twenty-one years ago.

HARRIMAN IS ARRESTED AT YALE-HARVARD BOAT RACES

NEW LONDON, June 28.—There was one disagreeable incident in connection with the Yale-Harvard boat race on the Thames yesterday. This was the arrest of E. H. Harriman, the railroad magnate, by Lieutenant Billard, President Roosevelt's naval aid.

Lieutenant Billard, who was in charge of the revenue cutters, had warned every boat owner not to follow the race. The big varsity struggle had scarcely been begun when Harriman in a powerful motor boat started to follow the shells. Lieutenant Billard and Chairman Schweppe, who were aboard the regatta committee boat, the Arrow, repeatedly warned Harriman to stop his engine and get out of the course. Harriman not only paid no attention to them, but took a position right alongside the referee's boat and held it.

Off the navy yard Lieutenant Billard signaled for a launch and tooted the revenue cutter whistle, which finally caused Harriman to look around.

"You are under arrest, sir!" shouted Lieutenant Billard. "You will give yourself up to this man, who will take you aboard the Gresham to await my orders."

Then it was discovered that the man in the motor boat was Harriman.

Chairman Schweppe of the regatta committee was angry, and shouted to Harriman in terms that the latter could not mistake. The millionaire leveled his forefinger at Schweppe and yelled back:

"Young man, I will see you later."

YERBA BUENA TO CELEBRATE

For the first time in many years, Yerba Buena island will be thrown open to the public July 4th by the commandant, Captain James H. Bull, and visitors are invited to spend the holiday among the shaded groves and fern-carpeted nooks of the island and enjoy the elaborate celebration which has been arranged.

The apprentice seamen of the naval training station will participate in the greatest day of outdoor sports they have ever had, beginning at 10:30 a. m. with foot races, a cutter race, shot-putting and a tug-of-war. In the afternoon there will be a competitive company drill, 100-yard dash for the Pensacola, obstacle race, hammer-throwing contest, open to chief petty officers only, and a baseball game between the Pensacola and Fort Baker teams.

Several hundred dollars will be distributed in prizes to the winners of events, and brass tablets will be awarded to the victors in the company drill and the tug-of-war.

The steamer Monticello will make hourly round trips to the island on the Fourth from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m., leaving pier 3, San Francisco. As there are no public eating places on Yerba Buena, picnic parties should carry luncheons.

WALSH SETTLES WITH ACTRESS

Placates His Word by Gift Reported to Amount to $41,000.

NEW YORK, June 28.—It was stated on good authority last night that there will be a settlement of the various suits Violetta Watson has brought against Thomas F. Walsh, the multi-millionaire mining man. Miss Watson, it was said, is to receive $41,000, with the understanding that she release Walsh from all claims.

Miss Watson when seen tonight at her apartments at the Lansdowne, on West Forty-sixth street, declined either to deny or affirm the report. Her evasion, however, appeared to be corroborative.

The settlement is said to have been agreed upon at a conference between Miss Watson and her attorneys, Daniel O'Reilly and Maurice Mayer. An offer from Walsh for a slightly smaller sum was adjudged inadequate. After communicating with Mr Walsh's attorneys the sum was raised to $41,000 and agreed upon.

Upon receipt of this money it is understood that the former ward of the Western capitalist will withdraw her $250,000 action for damages for assault and battery, her $100,000 suit for breach of promise and her $40,000 claim for breach of contract, the nature of which has never been revealed.

A settlement with D C Hansen, former counsel of Miss Watson, who has sued Mr. Walsh and co-defendant W. T. McTrees for alleged fees, it is also said is under negotiation.

COMPLICATED LITIGATION.

That the litigation in which the mining man, the lawyer and the actress figure is complicated was shown today when the case came up before Justice Blanchard in the argument to vacate the order for the examination of Miss Watson before trial.

Herbert C Smythe appeared for the first time, representing, as he said, Mr Walsh's regular counsel, Nicol, Anabel and Lindsay.

He charges that the motion for an examination of the actress was made in bad faith, saying blackmail was the basis of the suits and that Hansen's only reason for wishing the examination was to gain information to sustain his claims against Walsh.

He declared Hansen had no valid cause of action, and that his contracts covering 40 per cent of all moneys recovered as damages were not enforced.

Hansen's contention in his suits against Walsh was that although a settlement had been made with Miss Watson he had never been paid.

He declined to discontinue the action upon written notification from Miss Watson, and recently was suspended from the practice of law for one year by the appellate division of the Supreme Court, the charge being unprofessional conduct.

It was said tonight by one of the lawyers in the case that any settlement between Walsh and Hansen depended altogether upon the decision of Justice Blanchard, which is not expected until some time next week.

ORDER $25,000,000 WORTH OF NEW CARS

NEW YORK, June 28.—The Harriman, Gould and other large railroad systems have placed car contracts within the last few days calling for an expenditure of upward of $15,000,000 and orders are pending for others to the value of fully $10,000,000. Contracts call for 14,100 freight cars. The Harriman lines have ordered 6000 refrigerator cars. The Missouri Pacific has contracted for 7000 freights, most to be delivered this year. For New York Central lines it is understood specifications are being prepared for 6000 cars, 3500 of which will be ordered within the next few weeks. The Rock Island system, it is stated, is also about to order 3000 freight cars.

JOHN WESLEY GAINES.

The editor of this paper has never been able to tell why some newspaper men make jest of Hon John W. Gaines congressman from the Nashville district. Mr. Gaines is one of the ablest, best truest, bravest men of the south. He is honest, earnest in friendship steadfast in purpose, and in determination to serve his district and State in the best possible way is comparable to any man in our history. The flippant remark we see concerning this distinguished gentleman is neither smart nor courteous. It is stale and distasteful to the everyday reader and detracts from otherwise excellent newspapers. Tennessee papers at least can afford to leave off such performances concerning one of the State's best men and representatives of congress.—McMinn County Sentinel.

Men's Suits

On Sale at $15 For a Few Days

This is altogether too good an opportunity to be missed. The suits we offer you at $15 are not just ordinary $25, $22.50 and $20 values—but the very finest $25, $22.50 and $20 suits that such famous makers as Hackett, Carhart & Co.; Kuhn, Nathan & Fisher; Schloss Bros. and Ryan of Boston can turn out.

The fabrics are strikingly handsome and full of honest wear—the patterns and colorings are extremely choice—the tailoring was done by hand and rivals that of the custom tailors---the styles are the very latest.

A few of the suits are shown in one of our big windows. Take a look at them—and bear in mind that the suits on display are no better than the hundreds of others on sale in our store.

That's a point worth noting, as some stores have the bad habit of decoying customers by putting better suits in their windows than they are really selling inside.

SPECIAL. We have 28 Men's Two-piece Outing Suits that were carried over from last year. They are good-looking suits and are built from excellent fabrics. But the styles are not strictly up-to-date. They originally sold at prices ranging from $10 to $15. But we want to close them out tomorrow and you can have your choice of any suit in the lot at the very low price of $7.50. Come and see them.

GARBAGE ROTS ON EAST SIDE

NEW YORK, June 28.—A sympathetic strike of 2000 street sweepers is threatened today if the street cleaning department does not accede to the striking garbage workers. The health of the city is being seriously menaced by the great piles of garbage which lie rotting in the streets of the East side. Dr. Darlington, of the health board, started an investigation today. Several physicians have already reported that much illness is being caused by filth in the streets.

The striking garbage men have been on strike three days, and unless they return to work in two days they will be discharged. The strikers, to enforce their demands, which include the abolition of a fine of five days' pay for emptying a can containing both ashes and garbage, and a fine for trotting their horses, decided to bring on a strike of 2000 street sweepers today unless their demands were acceded to.

NO BOOTBLACKS ON SIDEWALKS

City Council May Pass Ordinance Forbidding Stands on City Streets.

Bootblack stands on the sidewalks are likely to be tabooed by the City Council. A proposed ordinance is now before the ordinance and judiciary committee of the Council, which places in the hands of the Chief of Police the right to grant permits for all street newsstands, express wagon stands, automobile stands and bootblack stands. This proposed ordinance was before the committee last night, but it was laid over for two weeks.

The plan followed out in San Francisco, whereby all bootblack stands were removed from the sidewalks, will probably be followed out in this city.

FREIGHT CARS KEPT MOVING

WEST OAKLAND, June 28.—According to officials connected with the operating department of the Southern Pacific system, the visit of Vice-president Julius Kruttschnitt to this coast has been beneficial because the freight situation has returned to normal conditions. They assert that freight is now moving out of Sparks, Nevada, with a regularity that would shame a grandfather's clock. The figures given out yesterday at the main office include these:

For the last ten days an average of 243 loads have left Sparks, and twenty Pacific fruit express cars are being hurried to the southern part of the State. As for the condition nearer home, it has assumed a halcyon appearance for the operating department, and the following figures were quoted yesterday in support of their contention: There were 1562 cars in the San Francisco yards, seventy-six in Oakland for the city, 101 on the coast division and 304 in the northern district. All these cars, they say, could be put without any inconvenience in the San Francisco yards and could be cleaned up in five days. Merchants, too, are given their share of credit, for they have shown a praiseworthy spirit in hastening the work of unloading, for on the 25th of this month 399 cars were unloaded by the consignees, and on the 26th 369 cars were set free. The freight situation all over the country has greatly improved, and H. J. Merrick, superintendent of transportation of the New York Central lines, in his weekly circular declares that cars are being returned promptly from the lines in the west and that shortly the freight condition will be normal.

GOULD'S ROAD TERMINAL PLAN

WEST OAKLAND, June 28.—It is estimated that the construction of the slips and aprons, with necessary machinery, for the proposed passenger and freight departments of the Western Pacific at its terminal at deep water in the bay, will cost upwards of $250,000 and the cost of the depot $20,000 to $30,000 acording to the elaborateness of the building.

The plans, on which bids have been called for to do the construction, provide that the ferry boats shall enter the slips under the roof of the depot, so that in rainy weather passengers will be able to keep dry throughout the trip. There will be two slips—one for passenger boats and the other for freight-carriers at the Oakland mole. They will be about 500 feet long, with a depth of about fifteen feet of water. It is estimated that the work will require about 1,300,000 feet of lumber and about 3500 piles.

The boats used by the Western Pacific Railroad will be 230 feet long, and will have a seating capacity of 1200 to 1500 passengers. They will be built on a plan much like that of the Key Route boats, and will cost from $220,000 to $230,000 apiece. They will be screw-propelled, and it is expected that they will cross the bay from slip to slip in fifteen minutes. Freight will be carried in cars on a flat boat, which will be towed across the bay by a tug.

SNIFFS NOSE AT CONTRACT HAY

Veteran Fire Department Horse, "Tony," Detects Inferior Article.

WEST OAKLAND, June 28.—Considerable criticism is heard over the quality of some of the "oat hay" furnished under contract for the horses of the fire department to consume. Last month the entire load of hay first delivered at the house of Engine 33, consisting of a large number of bales of hay, was sent back to the contractors. The "fodder" was not considered fit for the horses, being cause in stalk and more resembling rank-odored straw than good quality oat hay.

When a load of hay was left at No. 3's house yesterday five bales of it were found to be of similar quality to that rejected last month. "Tony," the veteran flea-bitten gray horse of the fire department, now twenty-three years old, sniffed his nose when a lot of this "prime" fodder was placed before him.

MANY AUTOMOBILES COME BY RAILROAD

WEST OAKLAND, June 28.—"It would surprise you to see how many automobiles are received here from eastern factories," said Freight Agent J. W. Dickinson today at Fifth and Kirkham streets yards of the Southern Pacific. "Almost every day there are two or three of these costly machines delivered here. Not a few are for owners living on this side of the bay, while others are for San Francisco persons who come here to receive their autos and take them across on the passenger ferry or via the Creek route."

JOINT INSTALLATION OF Y. M. I. OFFICERS

WEST OAKLAND, June 28.—Members of Oakland Council No. 6 and American Council No. 8, Young Men's Institute, are looking forward to an interesting and enjoyable evening's incidents when a joint installation of officers is to occur next Monday night in Fraternity hall, at Seventh and Peralta streets. There will also be a class of new recruits initiated. Later there will be a spread of good things, in the banquet hall of Council 8, which will be enlivened with music and toasts. The installation ceremonies will be concluded by Grand President W. J. Hennessey.

ENGINEER KILLED IN RAILROAD COLLISION

PHILADELPHIA, June 28.—In a collision on the Pennsylvania railroad near Cynwyd, a suburban station, between the Pottsville accommodation train and freight locomotive, Engineer Oliver Rennert of the passenger train was killed and half a dozen persons were injured. The freight engine ran into an open switch onto the track on which the passenger train was traveling.

COLORADO RIVER IS AT HIGHEST FLOOD

WEST OAKLAND, June 28. — The next two weeks will be somewhat anxious periods for the Southern Pacific officials, as the Colorado river is at its heighest flood during this time, and dozens of locomotives and hundreds of cars with vast quantities of ties and rails have been assembled in case of danger from the river's rise. In order to insure the safety of the dam which the Southern Pacific built along the banks of the Colorado, a railroad was built on it, and this trackage is being patrolled constantly, so that if there should be the slightest break cars with earth and rock would be rushed to the spot and the damage repaired before it assumed serious proportions.

The Colorado is the second largest river in the country when at flood height, the only larger one being the Mississippi. If the dam withstands the June and July rise of the Colorado the work of Randolph and Cory to curb the river and keep it in its proper channel will be regarded as a complete success.

MAY NEVER TAX DELIVERY WAGONS

The proposed ordinance which meant the taxing of all delivery wagons in this city was given its death blow last night by the license committee of the City Council.

500 CHINESE REPORTED DEAD IN THEATER FIRE

VICTORIA, B. C., June 28.—A horrible holocaust is reported in mail advices from Hongkong, where five hundred Chinese of the audience of a Chinese theater and ten of the actors were burned to death when the native theater was destroyed by fire. The flames spread rapidly and the building collapsed, quickly blocking the entrance with burning debris. The origin of the fire is said to have been due to the igniting of explosives concealed under the floor of the theater the fire following the explosion.

FIRE DESTROYS BIG SAN JOSE GARAGE

SAN JOSE, June 28.—The automobile garage owned by Osen & Hunter, located in the heart of the city, was completely destroyed by fire last night causing a loss of about $65,000. Seven machines were lost in the flames. The entire fire department was called out to prevent the fire spreading to the Victory Theater and the St. James Hotel.

PORTLAND WALLOP HOGAN HARD AND WIN PULLED UP

By T. P. MAGILLIGAN.

STANDING OF THE CLUBS.

	Won.	Lost.	Pct.
Los Angeles	41	31	.575
Oakland	42	37	.532
San Francisco	41	37	.526
Portland	26	44	.371

Our Prides slipped their trolleys yesterday, and as a result of that little mental abberation were whacked and hewed to pieces by Mr. McCredie's hard boiled athletes from Portland to the tune of 12 to 3.

When the "Prides" lose a game, they are not stingy about it, and it is their habit to play bad ball all in one afternoon, which is not a bad idea.

When a game is lost it might just as well be lost by a score of 98 to 4 as 1 to 0. It counts the same in the percentage column.

Oakland formed themselves into a bunch of Katzenjammers yesterday, and played ball like Clarice Uppengotten's Bloomer Loidies. Wasn't that lovely? But let me tell you that for all they lost yesterday, the Oaks have been playing a stylish brand of baseball, and it's not for the fans to croak at this time.

The game was hideous, dearie. Happy Hogan did the hurling, and what the hard boiled lads did to his delivery would look bad in print, especially if we didn't expurgate our state of mind.

Oakland was not in the running. The Portland boys culled Hogan for as many hits as there are flowers on the cornsan of the Hammer Sisters' spring millinery. The northerners jumped into the midst of the Bakersfield demon for sixteen swats.

But that's not all, dear reader. To add to the high confusion of the afternoon the Commuters tossed in an even half dozen errors and played like a team from the Blind Asylum.

But as was said above, a team might as well lose good, when they do lose, and toss in all their bad baseball in one afternoon.

During the afternoon's frolic, Mr. Devereaux of Raspberry Manor flung in three errors. Brick doesn't do this often, and Dashwood was there with two.

The affair started out like a real classy ball game and got three entire innings before anybody suspected that it wasn't in the first half of the fourth, the first inkling of what was about to happen was obtained. The red dog slipped by first clue to the eager detectives. Califf slapped an easy one down his way. He scooped it up all right but he hurled it wide of the mark when he attempted to throw to first. Passey, who has been dubbed the Willie Keeler of the Coast League, possibly on account of his size, was present with a single. Mott cloaked one down to first that hit the bag and caromed off to right field, and Califf crossed the pan. Casey hit through second base and both Bassey and Mott found their way in safety to the plate.

When the sixth stanza came along, the men from the north lassoed another. This time Bigbie's error gave the start and Bassey was the lad accorded the first life. Mott popped out to short. Casey walked, and McCredie laced out a single that registered the lilliputian.

But the real big inning with all the fancy trimmings was the next—the fateful seventh. Schimpff drove to right for a sack. Hogan got wild and Wallace sauntered down, having been hit by a pitched ball. Califf was safe on a throw to third. Bassey shoved one to the infield and on the belated throw to the plate Schimpff scored. Mott then ripped off a two-cushion drive and all three of the young men on the bases romped home. Mott advanced on Casey's dinkey single to short and breezed in on the throw-in of Donahue's long fly to left.

The Beavers got one in the next and two in the last, but they didn't really help, as the game was never in danger. With two out in the ninth and the score 12 to 2 against the Commuters, Devereaux occasioned a ripple of merriment by going boldly to the plate with the declaration:

"Here's where we win the game, boys."

He made good with a single and finished the circuit on Hogan's two-bagger to the club-house, but that hardly won the game. Here's the ledger—look it over.

JACK BROWN BESTS JOE MITCHELL AT WEST OAKLAND

By EDDIE SMITH.

The usual enthusiastic crowd gathered at the West Oakland club last night to witness the regular monthly boxing show given by the popular athletic organization at the west end. The crowd had hardly got seated when George Bastine, the real Billy Jordan of Oakland, stepped in to the ring quickly followed by the first pair of scrappers for the evening. George Brown was introduced as the referee and Herr. Frederick Fitzhue Goodsell and Ring Side Kelly were announced as judges. Kid Howard and Young Rem, two curly haired 125-pounders, were then introduced as the principals and the gong sounded for the first round of what proved to be a near-fight. Howard started with a rush and soon made himself prominent by the easy manner in which he repeatedly missed his man and the regularity with which he stopped the other man's punches with his face. He rushed across the ring and all through the contest he never for a moment stopped coming, although Rem landed time and again on every fair place on Howard's anatomy that he could get at. Rem in the first two rounds looked an easy winner, but after coming to his corner after the third round Howard announced that he was going to get his man, and he did. Rem was discouraged at not being able to make an impression on his opponent and after being twice thrown to the floor made up his mind that it was the safest place he could be and stayed there for the count. The next event was between Danny Devane and Tom Paulson. Devane was introduced as the fighting conductor but after about one minute's floundering around the ring it was agreed that if he could not punch transfers any better than he could punch his opponent that the company lost little when he went on a strike. He led and countered with about as much grace as a student conductor would put a trolley back to the wire for his first time. Paulson was little better and after two rounds of the so-called fighting the referee, after slapping each on the back several times urging them to make a start, threw them out and called the affair no contest.

Kid North's wonder who he calls the Peruvian "B'ar" but who fights under the name of Joe Lee, and a dark-colored cinnamon bear by the name of Turner were then brought out for a short struggle. When the bell sounded, oh! my! how they did go to it. Lee rushed out of his corner and never stopped until he clashed with the black news boy, and how that boy did come back. The crowd was in an uproar in a minute and the fighters never stopped long enough to give the spectators a chance to get settled. Turner, proved to have a punch and at times looked to have a chance, but the boy from "Parue" never gave him a minute's rest and after knocking him down four times in the second round, finally rocked him to sleep in the third. The contest was a very interesting one and pleased the auditors. Young Shaikey and George Leahey then boxed four rounds to a draw in a contest in which each seems by the way they clung to one another to have a very kindly feeling to the other.

Eddie Lennon and Frankie Smith, who had fought a great fight the month previous, then entered and put up the best fight of the night. The first round was devoted to sparring and Smith had a little the best of it. Lennon came up for the second stronger and rushed the fighting at all times. Smith depended on a straight left and Lennon on the landing of a swing with which he expected to bring home the money. The round was fast fought and Lennon had the better of it. Smith came up for the third with fire in his eye and did better with his left and also in the mix-ups. The round was a fast one, but as Lennon did the best work in that he landed more solid blows than Smith, the round was awarded to him. The last round opened with a rush, Lennon going after his man from the jump. Smith fought his ground every inch of the way and held his own, both boys at the end of the round were tired and the last punch struck was a right swing to Smith's jaw that almost put him away. Lennon was awarded the decision owing to the fact that he had done the most effectual work. A draw decision would perhaps have suited better, but if a winner was to be picked then Lennon was the proper one. Jack Brown and Joe Mitchell, the main eventers of the evening, then came forward and were soon in action. Mitchell used a straight right punch for the body that looked very effective, but Brown kept coming and landed a few good punches himself. Mitchell made Brown come to him all the time and, judging from the way the dark skinned boy countered, he figured to win. Brown fought for the head most of the two first rounds and did not seem to do much damage. He shifted his work from the head to the body, however, and although Mitchell landed several good punches and fought gamely, the white boy bested him and was given the decision.

TURF — Interesting Notes About Racing Matter — GOSSIP

By LEE DEMIER

SEATTLE, June 28.—The Meadows racing meet opens Saturday under the most auspicious circumstances in the history of the track. To date over 300 horses, including nearly all of the best of those campaigning at Williams' Park the past spring and winter, have arrived and more are coming. A special train of 160 gallopers and Owners with trainers, etc., got in yesterday from San Francisco. Nearly 200 more, James McElroy of the Meadows management estimates, are yet to arrive from California, and in two weeks he sys, Denver will supply probably an additional 100, making about 600 all told. As to owners, trainers, jockeys, the executive force has very much the appearance of Emeryville transplanted.

Horace E Egbert, official handicapper at Emeryville, will officiate as presiding judge of the Meadows meet, with Messrs. Mulholland and Leighton associate judges. The three have occupied the judges' stand for the past several racing meets. Judge Egbert has arrived from San Francisco. He predicts a successful meet from every point of view. This year the Meadows will give $26,000 in stakes and $1950 daily in purses. The purses hung up total $400 per day more than last year, and the stakes are materially larger.

Bookmakers are arriving in numbers. Fully twenty will cut in opening day, among other layers being George A. Labbe, Dave Argyle, Clancy Bros., W R. Engerson, Joe Harlan, Nelson Jones, Mullen & O'Brien, Columbus Jones, William Christy and Harry Peters.

The track is in good condition, though the weather for two days has been sultry and it is threatening rain.

The showing of True Wing in the Queen City Handicap was decidedly disappointing to T. H. Ryan. She was away slowly and showed little speed. Her long trip may account for her bad showing.

What the New York Telegraph has to say about two clever California lads: These Dugan boys, who have been doing so well in the saddle this season, come from a family of horsemen. There were four lads in the present generation of Dugans that were riders. John Dugan was a rider of some prominence in the West until he was killed at Chicago about three years ago. He had the mount on Mansard when he met with his fatal accident.

* * *

Clinton Dugan rode with varying success and he is now racing horses in Denver. Will and Eddie Dugan, the brothers who both rode so well in the Suburban, still have plenty of usefulness in front of them. They are both under contract to C. E. Durnell. Eddie has already earned for himself a strong local following, and he has the advantage of still being an apprentice and entitled to the allowance of five pounds. His apprenticeship will expire in September.

At Rockingham Park, Salem, N. H., recently, an assignee's sale of the "personal property" of the defunct New England Breeders' Club, meaning the wagons, carts, harrows and other track implements and the electrical apparatus and furniture of the offices and clubhouse, were sold by auction. The proceeds were $5500. The land, grandstand and other buildings, will be sold at some future date.

Jockey C. L. Miller, whose leg was broken when Punch went into the fence in the fifth race at Sheepshead Bay the other day, is in a bad way. There was a compound fracture and the bones were badly shattered, as he was dragged against the fence for a considerable distance.

C. E. Durnell says that Nealon worked better for the Suburban than any other horse he had ever trained for any race, with the exception of McChesney. He made John W Gates and his son Charles acquainted with this and the result was immense profit to those heavy speculators.

* * *

Commenting on the recent Suburban race, the Chicago Racing Form has this to say. While the honors among the three-year-olds that ran in the Suburban Handicap unquestionably belong to Montgomery and that son of Pessara must be ranked in the first flight of his age, allowance must be made for Electioneer, because of his collision with Calrugorm and through which he completely lost his stride. After the race Jockey Mountain and of Electioneer: "Do not think for a moment that Electioneer is not a good horse. He will win other good races, even if he did lose the Suburban. He would have won that but for the interference. He settled down to racing so well after leaving the barrier that I had visions of an easy victory until the trouble came." So an early meeting between Montgomery and Electioneer is anxiously awaited.

James P Dawes, for many years a noted owner of steeplechase horses and a successful business man in Montreal, died at Lachine, Quebec, last week. Ill health caused his retirement from the turf some five years ago. While he was regarded as a superior judge of steeplechase horses and devoted most of his attention to the jumpers, he raced many horses on the flat and had his share of success. His most noted jumper was Charlemagne, which, during the period from 1880 to 1886 met and defeated the best horses in the United States and Canada.

Los Angeles Wins Again From Seals

LOS ANGELES, June 28.—Captain Mohler of the Seals was so dissatisfied with the showing of his team this week that he gave the batting order a shake-up yesterday morning, making it stand the same as it did the beginning of the season, Spencer leading at bat. As a further attempt at breaking the hoodoo, he selected Henley, his star slabman, to put them over, but the Looloos won again, 3 to 1.

The game was characterized by listless work throughout. San Francisco easily outhit the locals, but Henley was unlucky in having things break wrong. Burns, for Los Angeles, was correspondingly lucky. The Looloos did all their scoring in the second and third innings and in the other six Henley was a puzzle.

There was scarcely any plays worthy of mention as features. Moriarty robbed Eager of a hit by stopping one with one hand between short and third and throwing him out on first. He made two other good stops, also capturing a timely skyscraper.

In the fourth came the play that was most talked about. Burns made what the Seals claimed was a balk, but which Umpire Perrine allowed to go.

After Hildebrand walked, Irwin advanced him with a single. Apparently Burns started a delivery and both runners advanced off the bags. But the southpaw shot the ball to Dillon and Irwin allowed himself to be chased, hoping that Hildebrand could make third. Dillon threw to Smith, however, and so astonished was Hildebrand that he stopped and allowed himself to be touched in his tracks. Smith then returned the ball to Dillon in time to head off Irwin, who attempted to return to first. Irwin, in turn, was paralyzed and gave up, without trying to run. The Seals started a loud howl, but Perrine waved them back. Later in the game Burns made a similar delivery and Captain Mohler again "hollered," but to no avail. The score:

Sale of Seats Is Very Large

Seats for the Tommy Burns-Bill Squires fight were placed on sale this morning (Friday) at the Willis cigar store (1515 Ellis street), and between $6000 and $7000 worth of the "boards" were disposed of up to 3 o'clock this afternoon. Even Promoter Jim Coffroth was surprised at the popularity of his show for as a usual thing the first day of a seat sale is not so promising. Things cannot come any too fast for Coffroth, however, as the earning capacity of his brand new arena is something like $90,000 counting bleachers and all. And besides, should all the reserved seats be disposed of, between $55,000 and $60,000 would have rolled into the box office. This is hardly likely however, for should the house be entirely sold out, all records for attendance will have been broken.

Several friends of the promoter have written him to the effect that they will neither receive nor accept complimentaries to this contest. This is in reality, a most timely bit of consideration when one considers the immense expense account Coffroth will have before opening his gates. With the $8000 he is to pay Burns, the cost of constructing the arena and incidental expenses such as advertising, employes and referee, he will be pretty lucky to get out at less than $20,000.

Word has been received that the Nevada mining districts will be well represented at Colma on the day of the big mill. Harry Pollock writes that besides Reno, Goldfield and Tonopah, Wonder, Fallon and Fairview will send delegates. A special car will also come from Los Angeles.

A number of fight fans visited the new arena, which was entirely finished yesterday, and pronounce it the best ever. Coffroth himself will personally supervise the arrangement of the seats in the various sections. Last night, the promoter said: "I was once asked to what I attributed my success in the fight business and my answer was "partially to luck and partially to the fact that I see that every ticket purchaser gets his proper seat." The chap laughed at me, thinking the seating business but an unimportant detail, but I have found in catering to the public in an affair of this kind that you have to treat the public right. If they are seated in their right locations the first time, they are reasonably sure of the same sort of treatment when they come again."

Squires is now favorite in the betting at 9 to 10. This price is most likely to take a turn, however, when the Los Angeles contingent arrives. Tommy is exceedingly popular with the sports in the Southern metropolis and he himself expects them to bet the bank roll on his chances.

Oak Runs Beat The Marine Nine

MARE ISLAND, Cal., June 28.—The Oak Runs of San Francisco defeated the crack Marines of this place in the fastest game ever played on these grounds; score 4 to 1. Up until the ninth inning the score stood 1 to 1 and was anybody's game but the Oaks made a splendid batting rally in the ninth and on three nice drives, one a three-bagger by Eckfeld, they scored three runs and clinched the contest.

This is the first defeat for the Marines who won the championship of the Philippines, besides beating the Veterans' Home nine twice and several other fast amateur teams in the interior.

SHANNON'S VILLA AT SAN RAFAEL IS BUSY CENTER

By EDDIE SMITH.

A visit to Shannon's Villa at San Rafael, greatly reminds one of the days when Johnnie Groll had his training camp at the Neptune Gardens in Alameda, where on most any day in the year, one could pass an afternoon watching the workouts of two or three pugilists.

At Shannon's there have been four men training but now that the time is growing close for the fighters to take part in their respective contests, they are spreading out a little and by Sunday, Bill Squires will be all alone to his glory.

The crowd, of course, will be admitted to Squires' camp up to the last day of his training, but if Bill had his way the crowd would be taged with a 23 sign as well as the fighters who are leaving.

Squires is about as bashful as a man of his age that has been before the public can be. When it is time for him to do his gymnasium work he quietly slips into the dressing room and the loudest noise that he makes is to smile. Once he has his clothes off and his gymnasium suit on he never stops working, and in a short time he is covered with as healthy a perspiration as I have ever seen on an athlete.

The minute the gymnasium work is over and the usual rubbing has been done Squires dons his clothes and away he goes, leaving his manager, Barney Reynolds, to do the talking for the crowd. He is always followed by the inseparable Judge Denton; the judge and Bill are very friendly and in all the times that I have seen Squires the two have been together.

Barney Reynolds, when asked the other day why he did not go to Santa Cruz with Squires, said that he wanted Bill to have a vacation and that as he knew the big fellow needed no one to watch him, it was unnecessary for him to go along. Then, too, continued Barney, "if a boy wantsa vacation and his father takes him out, the boy never has any fun, but give the same boy a half dollar and tell him to go where he pleases and see what kind of a time he will have. It is the fact of being free that makes a vacation and that is what I wanted with Bill. I wanted his mind to be off the fight and all the things connected with it, and for that reason I sent Bill and the judge away alone."

Squires is one fighter in a hundred so far as training goes. He never hangs around the camp, and, unlike most fighters, never jokes or plays jokes on the sparring partners. With him it is a business pure and simple and anything he gets into his head that will do him good is hard to get out. He has some moves in his training that are very good, but he also has some that are not so good, and when asked why he did not stop them Reynolds smiled and said, "Bill has an idea that he is strengthening this or that part of his frame and to tell him to stop would only lead up to a lengthy argument which would end in him doing it all the more."

If it is possible to get Squires into an argument I would like to be there when it comes off, for I have tried to get him to do a little talking ever since he landed and the best that I can get is an occasional grin that shows two rows of pearl white teeth that in keeping with the rest of his body are powerful looking and such as the man who has visited the dental chair envies.

Tommy Burns arrived last evening at 6 o'clock from Harbin Springs and was met at the Sixteenth-street depot by L. C. Keating, of the Columbia theater with a big automobile. He was rushed away to Keating's home where he will stay until the day of the fight.

Burns says that he is in fine trim and that he is ready for the fight of his life. Of course all fighters say the same thing, but, judging from the tanned face and bright eyes of the champion one is compelled to believe that he is just what he says—in good condition.

Today he will go over the six miles on the road on the same course that Jeffries used in his preparation for his fights in Frisco. This afternoon he will work at the Reliance club. This will be his daily routine until the day before the fight, when he will taper off and rest up a bit.

* * *

Jimmy Britt could and would not believe that the Nelson fight had been called off when notified to that effect Wednesday night. When finally convinced that it was so he almost broke down.

Jimmy had his mind set on winning the fight and never a fighter trained harder or more faithful than did the same Jimmy Britt. He was in good shape and his hopes were high. Nelson, it appears, has been swimming at Corte Madera every day, and owing to the shallowness of the water he stirred up considerable mud which found its way to the delicate organisms of the ear. Dr Apple, who examined the battler, said after the examination that he could see no effects from Nelson's strenuous work in the ring and gave as his opinion that the Dane was as good as ever. Both of the fighters intend going into the country for an outing and rest from the grind of the training camp.

Truck Eagan Is Leading Batsmen

Going some.

"Eetle Ootsie, Tootsie Eeny, Teenie Truck is just hitting .350. That's poor. Truck has been to bat just 240 times and smashed out 87 hits. The midget must be sick. Ed Walter had better have an oculist look over Truck's lamps—nit.

Americans Win Over the Britons

LONDON, June 28. — May Sutton victorious again! That was the news that was flashed across the cable last night, after the California girl had put to rout Miss Lowecock, one of the premier lady tennis players of all England. The scores were 6-2 and 6-0. Miss Sutton played wonderful tennis, and drew plaudits from the British onlokers by her clever serving and brisk work at the net.

D. P. Rhodes, American, defeated T. D. Stoward, 6-2, 6-4, 6-4.

Karl H. Behr, the Yale champion, beat J. F. Rendell, 6-2, 9-7, 4-6, 6-3.

Miss May Sutton will play with Beals C. Wright of Boston in the doubles.

Athletic Union After Infractors

The Pacific Athletic Union has signified its intention of being more strict with the amateur athletes of the coast in the future.

That body held a meeting at the Olympic Athletic Club in San Francisco last night and several of the officials decried the leniency with which the Union has been dealing with infractors of the rules.

One organization that came in for some censure was the Webster Athletic Association, and the meeting adopted a resolution commanding that body to make application for registration before holding their Fourth of July games or else suffer the penalty of suspension from the union.

San Pablo Fight Club Has Big Card

The San Pablo Athletic Club, composed of up-to-date Oaklanders, have organized a new boxing club and will give a tobasco show at the new hall.

The management has announced its first show for July 6, and the card is one of the best yet offered to lovers of the boxing game in Oakland.

The Congo Coon, who is one of the richest cards, is matched with Tangle Foot Terry McGovern, who is without a doubt the best card in the world. Tanglefoot fights well enough to lose every battle in which he starts, and to see him in the ring is worth the price of admission.

The appointments of the new club are of the best, and seating arrangements have been made to suit the convenience of boxing fans.

The price of admission will be $1.00. The first go will be started promptly at 8:30 p. m.

CHICAGO, June 28.—George Siler, the noted referee, and at one time one of the best exponents of the ring himself announced to a number of friends yesterday that he would participate in no more ring contests. Siler will be sixty-one years old the 23d of September, and it is intended to tender to him a monster reception at the Coliseum in Chicago on that date.

YALE AGAIN VICTORIOUS WINNING VARSITY FOUR

(By ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

NEW LONDON, June 28. — Yale won the four-oared varsity race today and Harvard was second.

At the three-eights Yale was a length and three-quarters ahead.

At the half Yale was leading by two lengths. Time at half mile: Yale 2:47; Harvard 2:53.

After getting over the first half mile Harvard spurted and pulled Yale's lead down to a little more than a length. At the three-quarters Yale spurted and again obtained a clear lead of two lengths. Approaching the mile Harvard sagged farther back. The race seemed like a procession. At the mile the stroke of both crews dropped to thirty-three Yale was well in the lead by more than three lengths. Time at mile:

YALE 6:06; HARVARD 6:18.

Every stroke seemed to give Yale more advantage, and Harvard seemed to be nearly spent. Yale was five lengths ahead, rowing thirty-five to Harvard's thirty-six.

Harvard passed the mile and a half mark a dozen lengths behind and seemed to be barely able to send their shell along.

It was merely a procession and at the mile and three-quarters Yale hit it up again.

TIME: YALE 12:31; HARVARD 12:59

The oarsmen in both boats were very tired.

Two minutes after the finish of the race, however, each crew started to paddle to their quarters.

In the last mile of the race, Yale, apparently confident that without a fluke of some kind, victory was certain, rowed well within themselves.

Harvard pulled gamely along the finish. There was little enthusiasm. The observation trains carried but few people and but few boats were at the finish line. Both Harvard and Yale freshmen pulled up to the mark and witnessed the finish from their shells.

HARVARD FRESHMEN DOWNED THEIR RIVALS

NEW LONDON, June 28.—The freshman race was a splendid struggle, a fight from the pistol to the navy yard, in which Harvard always had a lead with enough reserve power to keep just in the lead. No freshman crews ever fought it out better, although the time was slower than for several years in this event. The start was at the drawbridge and both crews broke water the instant the pistol flashed, a pretty sample of perfected racing start

Harvard got off with 34 strokes to Yale's 32. A quarter of a mile from the start Harvard leads by more than a length.

Harvard increased her stroke slightly and gained on Yale Approaching the half-mile Harvard led by a length and a half The unofficial time for the first half mile is 2.45.

Harvard is now rowing a slower stroke, but continues in the lead. Three-quarters of a mile from the start Harvard leads by more than a length

Yale increases stroke as the mile mark is passed. After leaving the mile both crews hit up the stroke to 36 Yale has more power and began to gain.

Half way between the mile and mile and a half Harvard led by less than half a length

At the mile and a half Harvard was in the lead by half a length. Time Yale 8:57, Harvard 8 55.

After leaving the mile and a half with the finish in sight, Harvard spurted and fairly seemed to put the boat out of the water and draw away until there was open water between

Harvard won by a length and a half

Yale Crew Wins From Fair Harvard

NEW LONDON, Conn., June 28.—Before the largest crowd that ever witnessed a race on the Thames river the Yale crew yesterday evening, rowing on an average of four strokes to the minute less than Harvard, held the big Cambridge eight even until the last half mile, when the blue let out their speed and won a magnificent contest by a scant boat length Never once in the whole four miles did the long, graceful shells cease to lap each other. Thousands of persons crowded the observation trains and either kind of floating craft, and those who lined the shore sent cheer upon cheer to the old rivals as they got out one of the grandest races in the history of boating. Yale's time for the four miles was 21 minutes and 10 seconds; Harvard's, 21 minutes and 18 seconds.

Mile—Yale 5 16, Harvard 5.16.
Mile and a half—Yale 8:38, Harvard 8:40.
Two miles—Yale 10:41, Harvard 10:43.
Two and a half miles—Yale 13 16, Harvard 13:16.
Three miles—Yale 15:55, Harvard 15:55.
Three miles and a half—Yale 18 32, Harvard 18.32.
Four miles—Yale 21:10, Harvard 21:13.

S.S.S. PURELY VEGETABLE

S. S. S. is recognized everywhere not only as the best of all blood purifiers and the greatest of all tonics, but the one medicine that can be taken with absolute safety by everyone. Young or old, those in robust health, or those whose systems are delicate and run-down, may use it with the same good results, and equally without fear of any unpleasant or injurious after effects. Next in importance to removing the cause of any disease is the condition in which the system is left after a course of medical treatment. Medicines containing mercury, potash or other strong mineral ingredients often do permanent injury by eating out the delicate lining and tissues of the stomach, producing chronic Dyspepsia, unfavorably affecting the bowels, and so deranging the system otherwise, that even if the original disease had been removed from the system it is left in such a weakened and deranged condition that the health is permanently impaired. S. S. S. enjoys the distinction of being the only blood medicine on the market that does not contain a mineral ingredient of some kind. It is made entirely of the healing, cleansing extracts and juices of roots, herbs and barks gathered directly from the forests and fields of nature, under our own supervision, and when they reach our laboratory contain all their original valuable tonic and blood purifying properties. We offer a reward of $1,000 for proof that S. S. S. contains a particle of mineral in any form. Being made entirely from these vegetable ingredients S. S. S. is absolutely harmless to the system, and while curing disease adds health and strength to every part of the body. S. S. S. cures Rheumatism, Catarrh, Scrofula, Sores and Ulcers, Skin Diseases, Contagious Blood Poison, and all other blood troubles by removing the cause and supplying the circulation with health-giving and strength-producing qualities.

Radtke Given Some Advice

NEW YORK, June 28.—"You can't ride race horses under the glare of the Broadway white lights," is the way Trainer Billy Garth, the directing spirit of Paul J Rainey's stable, warned Jockey Radtke to cut out the 'primrose path" late this week. It appears the young rider had been staying up half the night in New York and getting down to the Sheepshead Bay training grounds just in time to get into the saddle of some horse for an important trial. Once or twice Radtke didn't show up at all and his work in the afternoons became listless and devoid of finish Hence the $25,000 jockey suffered a "call" The sporting life of Broadway has killed off many a good man in the last twenty years, the victims being such shining examples that the fact of Radtke falling into the pitfall passes understanding.

Brooklyn Club Has Fine Card

The Brooklyn club will try an innovation in the form of having fifty of its own members act as ushers at its show at Dreamland rink tonight. It is believed that this system will prove very popular, as in the past holders of tickets have complained bitterly about their seats being sold by the professional ushers, who are merely in the show 'for their bit'

The management of the Brooklyn club wants each member to get the seat apportioned to him, and for this reason has adopted the new idea

The card is of unusual high grade, and some interesting fights are due to come off

Abdul the Turk will have another opportunity to show his ability in the fighting line when he stacks up against his former conqueror, Joe Summers, in the final bout of the evening Their last go was a short but decisive affair, with Summers landing the only blows struck Tought's battle promises to be just as exciting, with the Turk being a little more in the glare of the calcium

The semi-windup will be between Tom Barry and Young Chovnski, and as the lightweight title will be at stake both will strive hard to gain the long end of the purse Barry hasn't fought since Chovnski stopped him, and now that his efforts to get a return match have finally been successful, he is confident of defeating his adversary

Two specials also grace the card. Soldier Davis, the heavy-weight who fought such a hard battle with Jim Wilson, clashes with Frank Clark. Dick Hart, a newcomer from Chicago, will make his local debut against Harry Riley, one of the hardest hitters in the welter-weight class Al Emmick will box Charlie Weber, while Tony Baroni and Harry Dell will dish up the preliminary

Betting Has Begun on the Big Fight

SAN FRANCISCO, June 28.—Betting on the Burns-Squires fight has started in earnest and Corbett's resort on Ellis street is nightly packed with a bunch of those inclined toward sport and sporting, all anxious to get their money down on either fighter at the best possible price.

So far most of the wagering has been done at even money or at 10 to 9, with Burns the favorite; but an abundance of Squires coin is on hand and Burns money is eagerly grabbed at that figure. From present indications, it looks as though the Australian will be a ringside favorite. As a betting proposition, the Fourth of July will promises to break all records.

Squires is still working away with a vengeance at San Rafael and a more perfect specimen of athlete would be difficult to locate. Here is an ordinary day's work at his training camp: He runs twelve miles and returns without even breathing hard. Then for a half hour punches the bag, skips rope for another half hour, goes through six continuous rounds of shadow boxing. Next comes a ten-minute session at punching a mattress, after which he goes four rounds with each of his sparring partners. Nineteen minutes of ground exercise follow, after which Bill is ready for a shower and a rub. If you don't think this is going some, try it yourself some day.

Tommy Burns has practically completed his hard work. He is down to his best fighting weight and while he intends continuing the regular labor, the duration of each stunt will be materially shortened. The American champion wishes to remain at his present tonnage.

Seats for the big Colma attraction will be placed on sale Friday morning and may be procured at the Willis cigar stand, 1515 Ellis street.

Wyoming Stars Win From the Westerns

The Westerns hitherto considered amateur champions of Oakland, went down to defeat before the crack Wyoming team of this city in a game played on the college campus on last Sunday to the tune of 11 to 5. The features of the game were the work of the Wyoming battery, Pierce and Stevit, formerly the backstop for St. Mary's team, the stick work of Bennets, and the playing of McDonald, who made three of the eleven runs Sunday, June 30 the Wyomings will again go to Benicia to play the team of that place whom they once defeated, but as both teams are considerably strengthened a great game is expected. A Friend in Need—Always with You.

WHEN you have Heartburn, Colic, Coated Tongue, Suspected Breath, Acid-rising-in throat, Gas-belching, or an incipient Cold, take a Cascaret.

They act like Exercise on the Bowel-Muscles that propel Food, and that squeeze the natural Digestive Juices of the body into Food.

* * *

Constipation	Bad Breath
Biliousness	Headache
Indigestion	Diarrhœa
Dyspepsia	Flatulence
Torpid Liver	Jaundice
Appendicitis	Nausea
Colic	Vertigo
Worms	Pimples
Piles	Blotches

In such cases a little Cascaret in time is worth fifty dollars worth of Treatment later on, to say nothing of the suffering, discomfort, loss of Business Energy, and loss of Social Sunshine it saves.

* * *

Headaches, Heartburn, Gas-belching, Acid-risings in the throat, and Colicky feelings are sure signs of bowel trouble from food poisons, and should be dealt with promptly.

* * *

Be very careful to get the genuine, made only by the Sterling Remedy Company and never sold in bulk. Every tablet stamped "CCC." 740

MEDICAL.

DR. SYLVESTER'S Office.
517 23d st. (near Telegraph ave.)
Oakland, Cal.
Leading Specialist for Women.

Ladies—If you are suffering from any ailment peculiar to your sex, worried about your condition and need help, consult this famous specialist for the following reasons:
First—He is a well-trained physician and surgeon, with qualifications recognized by the highest medical authority and truly the only regular graduate specialist for women advertising.
Second—With his painless and harmless methods known to no physician but himself he gives you relief—at once—without drugs, needless operations or detention from your occupation.
Third—His broad experience, his 19 years of success without one single failure—with the most obstinate, obscure and complicated cases, where all others failed, makes him the safest and surest man to consult when you need help.
Why suffer disappointment, pain, anxiety and endanger your life and health by employing quacks and self-styled specialists when you may have advice from a man eminent in the profession absolutely free of charge?
His fees are moderate and you can safely intrust yourself in his care and be assured of prompt and happy results.
Hours, 9 a. m. to 9 p. m. Open Sundays.

SUMMONS.

GEORGE ORRIN SIMMONS, BENJAMIN FRANKLIN SIMMONS, and WILLIAM HENRY SIMMONS, Plaintiffs,
vs
THE REGENTS OF THE UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA (a corporation), PRESIDENT and BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE COLLEGE OF CALIFORNIA (a corporation), and also all persons unknown, claiming any right, title, estate, lien or interest in the real property described in the complaint adverse to plaintiffs' ownership or any cloud upon plaintiffs' title thereto,
Defendants.
Action brought in the Superior Court of the County of Alameda, State of California and the complaint filed in the office of the Clerk of said County of Alameda.
FRANK OTIS, Attorney for Plaintiffs.
The People of the State of California send greeting to The Regents of the University of California (a corporation), President and Board of Trustees of the College of California (a corporation), and also all persons unknown claiming any right, title, estate, lien or interest in the real property described in the complaint adverse to plaintiffs' ownership or any cloud upon plaintiffs' title thereto.
DEFENDANTS.
You are hereby directed to appear and answer the complaint in an action entitled as above brought against you in the Superior Court of the County of Alameda, State of California, within ten days after the service on you of this Summons—if served within this County; or within thirty days if served elsewhere.
The object of said action is to require you to set forth the nature of your claims to and clouds upon the plaintiffs' title to the real property described in said complaint and to have your adverse claims to and clouds upon said title determined by a decree of said court, to have it adjudged and decreed by said decree that you have not, nor has any of you, any right, title, estate, lien or interest whatever in or to said real property or any cloud upon plaintiffs' title thereto and that the plaintiffs' title thereto is good and valid; to have you forever enjoined and debarred from asserting any claim whatever in or to the said real property adverse to plaintiffs and to obtain for plaintiffs such other or further relief as to the court may seem meet and agreeable to equity.
The said real property is situated in the Town of Berkeley, County of Alameda, State of California, and is bounded and described as follows, to wit:
Commencing at a point on the western line of Piedmont Way as now laid out, opened and existing, distant along the curve of said line 301.30 feet northerly from an iron bolt located at the point where said western line is intersected by the eastern projection of the line dividing lots numbers Forty (40) and Forty-two (42) in Block E as said lots and block are delineated on the "Map of a portion of the Berkeley property situated between the University of California and the State Deaf, Dumb and Blind Asylum, Oakland, Alameda Co. as laid out by F. L. Olmstead, Officially adopted by the Board of Trustees of the College of California May 5th 1868" which map was filed May 26th 1868 in the office of the County Recorder of said county and was also recorded in said office on February 5th, 1879, and to which map reference is hereby made, said iron bolt being also at the North Eastern corner of the land known as the Christy lot, said point of commencement being at the northeastern corner of the land heretofore sold and deeded by George Orrin Simmons et al to Ella Lolor by deed of record in the office of the County Recorder of said county; thence running northerly from the said point of commencement and along said line of Piedmont Way 23.40 feet to the northern end of said Piedmont Way as now laid out and existing; thence south 85 degrees, east along said northern end 97.25 feet; thence north 5 1-6 degrees west 51.72 feet; thence north 19¼ degrees west 115.50 feet to a bay tree; thence north 26 1-3 degrees, west 236 feet to a post No. 15 on the line of the University of California survey; thence south 46¾ degrees west 158.19 feet to a point in the center of the creek known as "Strawberry Creek;" thence south 7 degrees west 56.3 feet to the western line of real property now being described; thence south 5¾ degrees east 92 feet to an oak tree blazed and marked "W. N. S." standing on top of the bluff bank of said creek from which said oak tree an oak tree blazed on the west side and marked "B. T." bears north 65¼ degrees east distant 32 feet and an oak tree blazed on the north side and marked "B. T." bears south 27 degrees east distant 58 feet; thence south 5¾ degrees east 202.50 feet to a point distant 300 feet north 5¾ degrees west from the northeastern corner of lot number forty (40) and thence north 85¼ degrees east 187½ feet more or less to the point of commencement.
And you are hereby notified that, unless you appear and answer as above required, the said plaintiffs will apply to the court for the relief demanded in the complaint.
Given under my hand and the Seal of the Superior Court at the County of Alameda, State of California, this 28 day of November, A. D. 1906.

OFFICE THE Assessor of Alameda County

POLL TAX NOTICE

Oakland, March 5, 1907.

Notice is hereby given that the State Poll Tax of two dollars for the year 1907 is now due, and payable at the Assessor's office, room one, Court House, or to a Deputy Assessor.
Sec. 3829 of the Political Code reads as follows:
Every male inhabitant of the State over twenty-one and under sixty years of age, except paupers, insane persons and Indians, must annually pay a Poll Tax of two dollars, provided the same be paid between the

First Monday in March and the First Monday in July

Then it shall be three dollars.
Sec. 3846 of the Political Code makes it the duty of the Assessor to "demand Poll Tax of every person liable therefor, and on the neglect or refusal of such person to pay, he must collect by seizure and sale of any personal property owned by such person."
Under Sections 429 to 435 every person who refuses to give his own name or the name of any person in his employ, or who in any manner obstructs the Assessor or any of his deputies in the collection of the State Poll Tax, is guilty of a misdemeanor, and liable to a fine of $500 or imprisonment in the County Jail, or both such fine and imprisonment.
Only those persons under twenty-one or over sixty years of age are exempt. Poll Tax must be paid on demand.

HENRY P. DALTON
Assessor of Alameda County.
Oakland, California.

OFFICE OF THE Assessor of Alameda County

NOTICE TO TAXPAYERS

Oakland, March 5, 1907.

All Persons, Firms, Companies, Corporations and Associations, are required to deliver at the Assessor's office at the Court House, City of Oakland, County of Alameda, on or before April 1, 1907, a statement, under oath, of all the property, both real and personal, owned or claimed by him, her or them, or in their possession, or held in trust for others, at 12 o'clock meridian on the

First Monday of March 1907

In accordance with Sec. 3629, Political Code.
Every person who refuses or neglects to furnish the statement as provided for in Section 3629, Political Code, becomes liable to a fine of one hundred dollars and the value fixed by the Assessor on their property must not be reduced by the Board of Equalization.
All persons owning real estate that has been assessed in the wrong name, or errors have appeared on their tax bills, are requested to call at the Assessor's office or notify the Assessor by mail on or before April 1, 1907, so that the proper corrections may be made on the assessment roll for the year 1907.
ASSESSMENT BLANKS may be obtained at the Assessor's office, room one, Court House, or from any Deputy Assessor.

SLEPT WITH HIS WIFE'S CORPSE

PHILADELPHIA June 28.—Gruesome as a tale of Poe or De Maupassant is the story of a "flower bed" at 1507 North Mervine street that developed yesterday.

The house had been used as a boarding house for negroes, and was conducted by Mrs. Fred Maloyed. Several days ago she ordered all the boarders to leave, with the exception of a young man named James Ford.

The day after she dismissed her boarders she disappeared. Her husband, a man 30 years old, said she was sick and confined to her room. Ford had observed that Mrs. Maloyed had been in the habit of receiving a male caller during the absence of her husband at his place of employment, a veterinary hospital, and there had been numerous quarrels between the husband and wife.

FLED TO BACK YARD.

Monday evening Maloyed told Ford that he was not going to sleep in his bed, but would sleep in the back yard, where it was cooler.

Yesterday morning Ford saw Maloyed digging a trench in the back yard beneath a canopy made of a door and some blankets. Suspecting all was not well, he sought Policeman Krouse, of the Tenth and Thompson streets station, and asked him to investigate.

The policeman went to the house and found Maloyed at work in the trench, that was the proper dimensions for a grave. When asked what he was doing, Maloyed replied that he was digging a flower bed. Krouse demanded to be taken through the house. Maloyed readily took him inside.

SAYS SHE IS SUICIDE.

In an upstairs room the body of Mrs. Maloyed was found lying across a bed. Then Maloyed said that she had committed suicide, and he was going to bury her in the back yard to save funeral expenses. He had an old crate for a coffin. The body was removed to the morgue, while to the police force was given the task of discovering whether or not a murder had been committed.

Maloyed had occupied the same room with the body for three or four nights. This, and the further fact that he had not attempted to leave town, suggests insanity and jealousy as the explanation of the ghastly affair.

BILL NYE'S LETTER.

The Kansas statesmen who are staying at home on account of the enforcement of the anti-pass law should get out Bill Nye's letter written to W. F. White, general passenger agent of the Santa Fe, just 20 years ago. Nye's pass had been revoked by the company after the passage of the interstate commerce law, and the great humorist then sat down and penned a letter to accompany the returned pass, of which the following is a part:

"I enclose herewith annual pass No. Q 035 for self and family over your celebrated road during the year 1887. I also return your photograph and the letters you have written me during the past five years. Will you kindly return mine? And so this brief and beautiful experience is to end, and each must go his own way hereafter.

"Alas!

"To you this may be easy, but it brings a pang to my heart which your gentle letter of the 1st cannot wholly alleviate."—Kansas City Journal.

CONSUMPTION'S HARVEST.

According to a report recently issued by the Census Bureau, tuberculosis and pneumonia are the diseases that in 1905 caused the greatest number of deaths in the United States. Out of two-fifths of the population of the country more than 500,000 persons died of the various diseases. The greatest death rate recorded for any one disease in 1905 was from pulmonary tuberculosis, amounting to 56,770, while pneumonia follows closely with a death rate of 39,068, exclusive of broncho-pneumonia. The much-dreaded cancer shows a steadily growing death rate, the figures being 24 330.

NOTE—In the above tabulation of tides the daily tides are given in the order of their occurrence, commencing with the early morning tide in the left-hand tide column, and the succeeding tides as they occur. On some days there are but three tides, the usual fourth tide occurring the following morning.

RALSTON SLATED FOR CHOICE FEDERAL JOB

According to political forecasters William C. Ralston, stockbroker, State Senator and former president of the California Miners' Association, will be appointed to the position of Assistant United States Treasurer to succeed the late Julius Jacobs, who died in San Francisco several days ago.

Ralston's name has been sent to the President by Senator Perkins with the recommendation that he be appointed.

Ralston last evening said:

"I understand that both Senator Perkins and Senator Flint have recommended my appointment. I have had the matter under consideration for several days, and have been sounding the sentiment of the bankers who are the most directly interested class. Finding no opposition in that quarter, I decided to accept the place, if appointed."

LATEST NEWS FROM NEVADA GOLD FIELDS

WONDER, Nev., June 28.—Electric power for the Wonder district is the big piece of news this week. It is the biggest piece of news for many weeks. In fact, there has been no more important development since the birth of the camp a year ago than the maturing of the plans to give the district an abundance of electric power for mills and mining machinery. It has been estimated by an engineer in close touch with the project that the electric equipment of the Wonder and Fairview districts will cost $1,000,000. This expense will be borne by the Philadelphia and Tonopah capitalists who are in control of the Nevada Wonder group.

The enterprise is an assured fact. J. B Daniel, who bought the Nevada Wonder for the Philadelphia syndicate late last summer for $800,000, and who is general manager of the property, has within the last few days signed the contracts with the United States government, which were indicated in the last issue of the Nevada Mining News These provide that the government, which controls the water-power of the Carson river, shall furnish 2000 horse-power the year round, and 4000 horse-power between March 15 and September 15 each year during the life of the contract. To provide for the great mining expansion which is expected in the Wonder district, Mr. Daniel has taken an option on 10,000 horse-power, and he is confident that the demands of the mining operations in the Wonder and Fairview districts will compel him to take up this option.

From a 125-foot water-fall on the Carson river about sixteen miles from Fallon the power will be transmitted by means of turbine wheels to electric generators and from these conducted over wires to do the strenuous work of making Mother Earth yield up her ore. The system of wires will be seventy-five miles long.

The electricity brought to the Wonder district will very materially lessen the cost of ore production, and will thus increase the value of every mine and prospect. It will do even more. It will make highly valuable mines on ground which has great bodies of ore, but which produce no wealth because of the heavy cost of transportation to the smelters.

For six months the Nevada Wonder people have had in mind a big custom mill for the reduction of gold and silver ore to pure bullion by the improved chlorination process. John E. Greenawalt, the inventor of the process, and the proprietor of the Greenawalt Electro Chlorination plant in Denver, came to Wonder about three months ago to reach a conclusion as to the feasibility of installing a mill here. He found that the district suitable for making the bricks necessary for the big buildings of the plant. He found, in short, that all the conditions were highly favorable except in the vitally important matter of power. He knew that the heavy expense of hauling in coal, or even of using gasoline, would bar either of these fuels. The lack of an adequate power seemed to threaten the ruin of his plans. Eager as he was to take advantage of the immense milling possibilities of the district, he was beginning to feel doubtful of the project of building the mill, when his attention was called to the water power on the Carson river. He investigated it, and so did C. A. Higbee, president of the Nevada Wonder Mining company, John F. Brawn and Charles Griffith, stockholders in the Nevada Wonder, with whom, in April, Greenawalt returned to Wonder The result of this investigation was the signing by Daniel of the contracts with the government. It has been announced that the erection of the mill is to be commenced at once.

Edward Hoffman, engineer and mine manager for the Rich Gulch Mining company, in a personal letter recently, said:

"I have been endeavoring to report on the development—of this property along the most conservative lines, because it has been the wish of the directors, but I guess I'll have to get busy with my pen in the next report. We have drifted about 50 feet on the vein now, and every shot confirms me in the opinion that, with the probable exception of the Red Top, at Goldfield, we have the biggest body of low-grade ore in point of size ever uncovered in Nevada, with stringers of very high-grade appearing very frequently. I'll hit a big shoot of rich ore soon, but am not counting my chickens before hatching.

"The Red Top's great low-grade ore body was uncovered at a depth of 165 feet. We are only half of that depth now, and the ledge on which we are working is from 30 to 50 feet wide and extends on Rich Gulch ground for a distance of 3000 feet. From the surface croppings, by which it is clearly traced, and from the fact that the vein was encountered on the very day I figured it would be, I believe that this ledge, carrying ore all the way, is the filling of an enormous volcanic fissure, and it would not surprise me if it should reach a depth of 1000 feet. The preponderance of silver in the ore we have insures greater continuance than can be expected even in the great Red Top ore body, and I am going to hold the stock I own in the company for $3 a share at least In all my experience I have never seen a better prospect of a mine making good, at a similar stage of development, on such a valuation."

BROKERS ARE EMBARRASSED

Kenneth Donnellan Company is Unable to Deliver Stock—"No Failure."

SAN FRANCISCO, June 28.—Members of the stock exchanges and mining operators experienced a sudden surprise yesterday afternoon when the rumor became current on the street that the Kenneth Donnellan company was financially embarrassed. Inquiry proved the rumor to have some foundation, but it was not so bad as reported, but instead of being a failure it was merely a suspension

It appears that while the affairs of the Kenneth Donnellan company were not in condition to present a detailed statement, the embarrassment was due more to the inability to make delivery of stocks rather than to any default on financial obligations. It is stated that the cramped position of the firm is caused by the unwieldly methods in vogue relative to the delivery of stock. Certificates in certain issues are very scarce in this market at present as a consequence of the lavish selling on the part of the shorts and the opinion has been freely expressed that the slowness with which brokers have to accommodate themselves in the matter of getting stock certificates subdivided in new issues of smaller or different denominations would surely work harm sooner or later. This subject has been under consideration for some time and the governing committee of the San Francisco Exchange is at this time formulating a plan for a stock clearing-house, based on the lines of the Goldfield Exchange.

"There has been some unfortunate trouble in my office," said Donnellan, "which I do not care to discuss; but I have decided to do no further business on the board until the matter is straightened out. By tomorrow everything should be satisfactorily arranged, and my firm will be doing business as usual. The mix-up that I refer to has nothing whatever to do with the solvency of the Kenneth Donnellan company, the credit and standing of which remain as solid as ever."

GOLDFIELD, June 28.—Goldfield brokers were not surprised at the suspension of the Kenneth Donnellan company in San Francisco, although they did not believe the climax would come before the 1st of July In local circles there is no definite reason assigned for the failure, and as the headquarters of the firm is in San Francisco, the branch here has been keeping close-mouthed for some time.

The general impression among the better-informed brokers is that the firm named has been shorting stock too strongly and got pinched on the recent advance.

YOUNG DONNELLAN IS SUSPENDED BY BOARD

SAN FRANCISCO, June 28.—The governing board of the San Francisco stock exchange this morning suspended Kenneth Donnellan, the youngest stock broker on the street who is in financial difficulties.

Under the rules of the exchange he will be sold out. For several months Donnellan has been selling short on Nevada mining stocks and has been hard hit. He sold combination fraction at $1.90 and today the price at which he will have to deliver the stock rose to $3.15.

STOCKS SHOW GENERAL RISE

Low Priced Securities Play Most Prominent Part in Advance.

NEW YORK, June 28.—Opening prices of stocks showed general advances on a fair volume of business. The low-priced stocks were most prominent in the rise. St. Paul, Southern Railroad and American Car gained large fractions.

Buying was renewed after a dull period and prices rose to a higher level than before. St. Paul preferred gained 3. Bonds were irregular.

The slight gains at the opening were wiped out when selling orders appeared and the list eventually sagged to fractionally below yesterday's closing. Later on there was a moderate absorption which carried the leaders back to about where they opened, but the market did not hold. Westinghouse Electric gained 3, United Railways and Investment preferred 2½, Southern Railway preferred 2½, Northwest 1⅝, and American Telephone 1¼.

Marked increase in the demand for stocks after midday caused prices to rise rapidly. Northwestern rose 2 1-2, Atchinson 2, Union Pacific 1 3-4, Sloss 1 1-2, Reading, Northern Pacific 1 1-2 and Canadian Pacific 2.

The market closed weak and run dull, gains being wiped out. The flurry in call money aggrevated the depression in the market.

MONEY MARKET

NEW YORK, June 28.—The call money market, which has been moving gradually upword for several days, took another spurt soon after the opening of the market today. Some early loans were made at 6 per cent, but the rate worked gradually upwards and before noon 8 per cent was offered

IN SAN FRANCISCO

CLEARING EAST STREET.

The Board of Harbor Commissioners yesterday instructed the secretary to give notice to all owners of fruit stands and peddlers' shacks occupying East street to move off at once, as the board is determined to clear the street, which is State property, of all obstructions.

JAPANESE TURNED DOWN.

The applications of five Japanese for a renewal of the privileges they have been enjoying of keeping intelligence offices were turned down yesterday by the Board of Police Commissioners, on the ground that the applicants are not citizens of the United States and cannot become such.

LICKED UP BY FLAMES.

In twenty minutes after the discovery last evening of a fire in the rear of a vacant store at 272 Jessie street, three neighboring one-story structures were totally consumed, resulting in an estimated loss of $5000.

REDUCTION OF A PENALTY.

Captain Emil Francke master of the big steamship Dakota, when she was wrecked last March off the coast of Japan, has had the suspension of his master's certificate, which was fixed by the examining board of inspectors at Seattle as two and one-half years, cut down by Captain John Bermingham, the supervising inspector, to eighteen months. Francke was held to be solely responsible for the disaster

FALLS FROM LADDER.

Becoming dizzy while ascending a tall ladder where he was working at Seventh and Harrison streets Alfred Day, a machinist, yesterday fell to the ground, striking on his head and producing concussion of the brain.

ATTEMPTS SUICIDE.

Yesterday, during a fit of despondency, G Roberts, a carpenter, attempted to commit suicide in Lafayette Square by slashing his throat with a pocket knife. The park gardener's timely interference prevented Roberts carrying out his purpose, but he had to be taken to the hospital for repairs

BREAKS RIBS AND NOSE.

The breaking of a weak plank on which he was walking in the Emma Spreckels building caused James Richards, a bricklayer, to fall yesterday a distance of twenty-five feet, breaking four ribs and fracturing his nose.

KILLED BY A FALLING SKIP.

A defective ratchet pin in a donkey engine employed in operating a skip used to remove the debris from a basement excavation at Stockton street and Union Square avenue caused the loaded skip to drop while being swung in midair and strike Henry Robinson, a colored laborer, killing him instantly.

FIRE DESTROYS OLD MANSIONS

SAUSALITO, June 28.—"Cliff Have," the beautiful home of A. A. Watkins, the capitalist and president of the Board of Trade, was totally destroyed by fire yesterday afternoon The property was valued at over $10,000 and only partially covered by insurance.

Another sufferer was the "Hacienda," famed for its beauty and hospitality as the old home of the Charley Fosters and rendezvous of the Bohemian club, and now occupied by Walter Beatle and his family.

The fire started in the latter house and was caused by the explosion of a gasoline stove in the kitchen.

Firemen responded to the alarm, but the chemical engine was empty and useless. The cruiser Buffalo sents its launch and two boatloads of jackies under command of Captain Pond, Lieutenant Bryant, Chief Gunner Simenson and Paymaster's Clerk Francis. They formed bucket brigades and fought with wet blankets. Their prompt and efficient action saved a large portion of the residence section of the town.

SAN JOSE, June 28.—The list of private autos that were in the Osen and Hunter Garage for repairs and that were destroyed in the fire last night numbers eleven, most of them valuable cars, and only a few of them carried insurance. The total loss is estimated today by Osen and Hunter at $50,000.

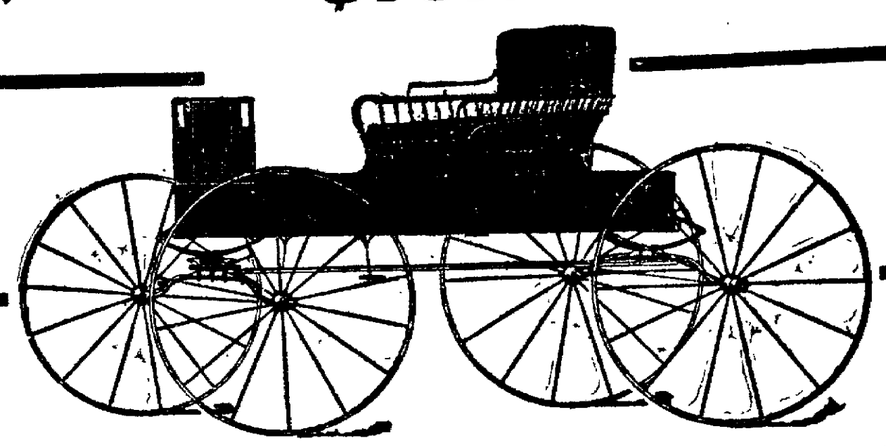

FLAMES DESTROY REDONDO RESORT

REDONDO, Cal., June 28.—Fire caused by defective electric wiring early this morning caused the destruction of the New Casino, just completed by M. Mayer of Redondo and Adolph Hauerwaas of Los Angeles. The loss is about $25,000, partially covered by insurance. The absence of the usual early morning breeze from the sea alone prevented the destruction of the entire water front. Fire fighting apparatus was brought from Los Angeles on a special electric car but was not used.

FLAGMAN RUN DOWN BY AUTOMOBILE DRIVER

B. F. Skaggo, living at 863 Fida street, the switchman for the Oakland Traction Company at Fourteenth street and Broadway, was run down this morning by E. Hall, a chauffeur for the Peoples Water Company. It was at first supposed that the flagman had sustained a broken leg, but a diagnosis at the Receiving Hospital by Assistant Steward John J. Travers found that Skaggo suffered a mere contusion of the limb.

CHARGES WIFE WITH CRUELTY

SAN FRANCISCO June 28—James F Larken, a clerk filed divorce complaint yesterday charging his wife, Mrs Anita A Larken, who was a rich widow with cruelty He accuses his rich wife of never showing him either affection or respect, of repudiating his authority as head of the family, of holding his personality up to ridicule of slighting him by word or deed of taking several protracted trips to Europe without his consent of refusing to have anything to do with his friends of scorning his Christmas presents, of complaining of his presence, and making him feel an outcast in his own house

HOWARD K. CLOVER APPEARS IN COURT

Howard K Clover who was arrested last Monday by United States Marshal Harry Morfit on a charge of defrauding persons in Los Angeles while pretending to be a naval officer, was taken before Commissioner Heacock yesterday on an indictment found by the United States grand jury at Los Angeles which charged him with obtaining by fraud from Francis Ormond, a resident of Los Angeles, July 21, 1905, $2600 on July 22, $15,999, and on July 31, $16 287

The defendant asked for a delay Commissioner Heacock granted him until next Monday at 10 o'clock

Clover said when before the court that the matter of the $33,000 did not amount to much, as the money had been paid He also said that the money he is charged with obtaining by fraud was paid him by Ormond for the purpose of establishing a line of tugs at Port Los Angeles, but when that project fell through he repaid the amount of the advances made by Ormond with the exception of $3000 for which he gave a promissory note Clover expected to secure $5000 bail some time today.

REPORTS LOSS OF WHEEL TO POLICE

BERKELEY, June 28—Manee Dean Miller, living at 2227 Dwight way, reports the loss of a bicycle yesterday afternoon The wheel was at the curb at the corner of San Pablo avenue and Jones street and was fastened with a padlock The thief did not try to unfasten this, but took the wheel and lock.

FALLS DOWN STAIRS; IS BADLY INJURED

By falling from the top to the bottom of the stairs at her residence at 811 Castro street last night, Mrs Mary Ferris sustained a fracture of the right wrist and many internal injuries. Mrs Ferris started down the steps when she tripped in her clothing and fell the full length of the stairs. The other people in the house summoned the police ambulance and removed her to the Receiving Hospital, where Steward Harry Borchert set the fractured arm.

The condemnation suit brought by the Western Pacific against Christine A. True for a right of way over her lot at Junction avenue and First street in Livermore, is being heard before Superior Judge Wells of Contra Costa county, who is sitting in the place of Judge Waste in department one of the local courts.

KILLS WIFE AND HURTS MOTHER

SAN FRANCISCO, June 28—William Stulz, a butcher returned to the home of his father-in-law, Louis Bechtel last evening and killed his wife, Louise, shot his mother-in-law Mrs. Emma Bechtel and blew out his own brains in the Bechtel flat at 374A Dolores street.

They had been parted for about two months, but he had called on his wife's parents in efforts to bring about a reconciliation When he came last night his wife went to the door, and he fired two shots at her killing her instantly. Then the mother-in-law came into the hall and he fired at her, the bullet lodging in her shoulder A sister-in-law narrowly escaped being hit, and is suffering from the shock

Stulz then turned the revolver on himself and fired a shot through his head, killing himself

The bodies of the husband and wife were taken in charge by the coroner Mrs Bechtel was terribly burned about the face by the powder but Dr Sullivan says she will recover unless blood poisoning or other complications arise

RETURNS WITH HONORS FROM OLD OXFORD

BERKELEY June 28—William Clark Crittenden the first Rhodes scholar from California to Oxford, has returned to Berkeley after three years at the English university Of the forty men sent over in 1904, thirty-eight are still there taking their examinations Crittenden, the first student back finished the three years' work in two and spent the rest of the time in special courses, in which he took high honors He is enthusiastic regarding the treatment accorded American students by the English and says that Cecil Rhodes' idea is proving a success in promoting friendly feelings between the university men of the two countries
